Fruit Growers Meet.

Growers of fruit in Linn and Benton counties are invited to attend a meeting of members of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative Association to be held Friday afternoon, November 17th, at the Community House in Albany.

This will be one of the regular meetings of members of the Association but this time it is to include all who are interested in fruit growing.

A large number of meetings have been held this fall and there has been shown an unusual interest, not only in the work of the Association, but in the latest ideas in fruit growing.

Rodney Savage flew the flag of distress the fore part of the week. His tractor was out of commission and he was out of ground feed for his stock, so G W Morabinweg came to his rescue and loaned him an engine and chopper to work with until his tractor is fixed.

Mrs C H Koontz was an Albany caller Tuesday.

Guy Layton has purchased a new Dodge automobile.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Leeper were Albany callers one day last week.

Miss Marie Jones was an Albany caller Saturday.

Mrs Pearl Cummings spent Saturday in Albany shopping and visiting with friends.

There is a rumor that there is to be another meat market start here in the near future.

A load of crushed rock was unloaded here Saturday and Monday and distributed over some of the low places on our streets.

H L Straley and family and their cousin, John Hussey of North Dakota, were Albany callers Tuesday.

The High School pupils are very enthusiastic about their play that is to be pulled off tomorrow night. "The Old Oaken Bucket" is a good one.

J W Udell and family from Linton, Oregon came up one day last week on a visit to the Savage family and to G R Dannin's family in Shedd.

We are here to serve you. The best of pork, beef, and fish the country affords. We keep a line of lard and compound always on hand. See us before you buy. The Halsey Meat Market, Carter & Son.

Charles Ballard runs the Halsey Enterprise in first class style and finds time to teach singing school besides.—Brownsville Times.

News comes to us that Mrs Walter Rike presented her husband with a brand new baby daughter Dec 4th. Mr and Mrs Rike live in Orlando, Florida.

Geo Maxwell brought us a twig of a raspberry bush last week with half a dozen nearly ripe raspberries on it. He said there were more on the bushes that would probably be dead ripe by Christmas.

Lawrence Taylor and Glenn Frum, delegates from the Methodist church, Lawrence Wells and Wayne Robertson, delegates from the Christian church, and Delos Clark, delegate from the High School, went to Salem last Friday noon to attend the Y M C A Older Boys' conference from Friday afternoon until Sunday afternoon, all of them coming back Sunday night except Lawrence Wells, who returned Monday noon. They report a fine time.
