John Pitman Married.

Married, at the home of Capt Chester O Taylor in Eugene, Saturday, Jan 1st, 1921, John D Pitman of Halsey, and Miss Eva A Barber of Eugene, Elder E V Stivers, pastor of the Christian church at Eugene, officiating.

It was a quiet wedding, witnessed only by Miss Lillian Barber, a sister of the bride, Mrs E J Coburn a friend, the host and hostess, and Mrs Taylor's parents, Mr and Mrs E C Atkins.

After the 12 o'clock ceremony a fine dinner was served by Mr Taylor. On Sunday Mr Pitman brought his bride home and installed her in his home at the north end of town.

On Monday evening about sixty of Mr Pitman's friends, including a goodly number of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, and some of the younger element of the city met and treated the newly married couple to an old fashioned skimelton.

Mr Pitman is a highly respected citizen of Halsey. He has worked on the section here for going on to four years and he will continue to work there.

The Enterprise extends its heartiest congratulations to the newly married couple.

Mrs Umstead Entertains.

On New Year's Mrs A V Umstead, according to her usual custom, gave a dinner to all who were minded to go. It was an exceedingly fine dinner. The editor and his wife had an invitation but circumstances were such that they could not be present.

Those present were Dr Philo T Starr and wife, Mrs Ary Miller, Mrs W J Ribelin, Mrs Pearl True and her niece, Lila Dudley, and W F White and wife.

B S Clark was an Albany caller Monday.

F H Porter transacted business in Albany Tuesday.

One day last week Mr Stevenson presented us with a large egg. Up to the present writing it has not been broken but we suppose it has a double yolk. It was 8 inches around the sides and 8 inches around the ends, but the curious part about it was that around the middle there was a creased line extending entirely around, as if some one had made a small groove in it. Outside of that it was a perfectly formed overgrown henegg.

Off Summer Pastures

As your animals come in off the pastures they'll miss the tonic and laxative which nature supplied to keep them in condition. It's a big change. You must supply what is lacking in the dry feed—hay, grain and food—or they will get "off feed" and out of fix.

Dr. Hess Stock Tonic
