In Memoriam.

Whereas: Our beloved Sister Laura Taylor, has been called to her eternal home by her master above.

Purity Rebekah Lodge has in Sister Taylor lost one of its most worthy members, who, we are all well aware (as far as human beings can form a judgment of the lives of their fellows) was in every act, deed, and word a true Christian.

Brother Taylor and family truly live in a world where solemn shadows are continually falling upon our path, shadows that teach us the insecurity of all temporal blessings, and warn us that here there is no abiding stay.

But how grateful you must have felt to see her so resigned and happy in the thought that altho her loss would cast a shadow on your earthly life, you would meet her hereafter in that better world, where no trouble nor sorrow is to be found.

She was good in every acceptance of the term; her charities so unostentatiously dispensed, her cheerful willingness to relieve any distress, her talents and charms, endeared her to all, naturally you must deeply grieve for the loss of one so dear, and ordained that time shall bring comfort and soothing for all earthly sorrows, and to its healing influence we must leave you.

Resolved: That a page be set apart in the minutes of our order to the memory of our departed sister, and that a copy be furnished the family and a copy be given to the Halsey Enterprise for publication.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our all for the Kingdom.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Matt 19: 19. The high cost of living every thing that money can buy has been talked about for so long. This lesson is about the high cost of money. We are in danger of letting money cost us too much. This lesson shows how wealth is often a stumbling block to the salvation of a soul. As a warning, the example is given of a certain rich young man who refused to give up his wealth in order to obtain eternal life. The lesson offers the opportunity to emphasize that salvation is worth more than all else.

The missionary society spent a very delightful afternoon last Friday with Mrs D Taylor. Mrs Standish made the lesson quite interesting and was followed by stories of missionary work by different ladies. Mrs Merriam was a guest. Delicious home made candy was served by the hostess.

The Standard Bearers held their regular election of officers with their superintendent, Mrs Taylor, on Friday evening. The following were elected: president, Nora Pehrsson; vice pres. Hazel Gulliford; rec sec, Pearl Pehrsson; corsec, Isabel Gulliford, treas, Alberta Koontz. The study course for the coming year was outlined.

The many friends of our former Baraca boy Paul F Green of Pullman, Wash, will be much gratified to learn of his decision to enter the foreign missionary field.

Bro Cook was called to Junction City last Sunday morning by former friends to conduct a funeral service. In his absence Rev A S Mulligan of Salem very kindly came and filled the pulpit in the morning and gave us a good sermon.
