"A Prairie Rose"

A drama given by the Shedd Band. Special music. Mrs Wetmore the famous Cornettist.

Seats on sale at Clark's Confectionery.

Shedd

Mrs W Y Shearer has returned home from the St Mary's hospital where she underwent an operation. She is getting along real well.

If anyone wishes to learn anything about the Dairymen's League or the Farm Bureau, just hang around the street corners and you will learn it perfectly from all angles.

Miss Nina Kump of Halsey, and Chas Elder took in the drama last Friday evening.

Mr and Mrs E A Starnes and Mrs S B Savage and son Rodney visited at the Geo Danner home last Sunday.

Some of the good men from the Ash swale country have taken it upon themselves to gravel a bad piece of road between L R Wilson's house and the Saddle Butte R R on the Shedd-Brownsville road. It begins to look like this is the only way the farmers will ever get good roads.

The drama, "The Prairie Rose" was presented at the W O W ball last Friday night to a large audience. It was put on by the members of the High School and others to raise money for the Shedd Band which also took an active part in it. Mrs Walter Moore was the manager of the drama and Miss Vera Cornett was the central figure of the play.

F H Brock is draining his property here.

C M Gould of Castle Rock, Wash, is visiting with his son and daughter, Geo and Helen Gould.

Mrs Lillian Troutman and Mrs Thomas Hill were Albany shoppers Friday.

Will McConnell was engaged last week in taking Mr Evans over the country to solicit members for the Farm Bureau.

Mr and Mrs C C Purdy and family were visiting with relatives in Brownsville last week.

Jack Cornett is slowly recovering from the measles.

Miss Viola Arnold is reported quite ill.

Miss E Satchwell of Albany, came Saturday for a visit with relatives at this place and Fayetteville.

(Clipped from the Shedd Visitor.)

The football boys turned out Thursday and had their pictures taken. There is talk of putting out a High School annual and we will want a picture of the football team in it.

Last Friday (Jan 21) the Shedd basket ball team defeated the Alpine team with a score of 28 to 21.

The Farm Bureau.

The canvass of Linn county for members of the Farm Bureau has been made with the result that 908 members have been added of which number J C Leedy secured 46 from Halsey Charity and Alford. And C R Evans the Canvasser from Halsey secured 53 members from Shedd, Ash Swale and Fayetteville. Ben Sudtoll secured 82 members from Brownsville and Crawfordville. A meeting is called of the members for next Saturday at Albany when officers will be elected and policies for the organization outlined.

This banding together of the farmers calls to mind a prophecy made in the new Testament by James altho that is not the reason they are banding together. See the verse concerning the rich against the oppressors of the farmers. James 5:4.

"Behold the hire of the labourers (farmers) who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them that have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth" (armies.)

Will chop Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.
