It's all in getting used to it.
Said the foreman in the glue factory, "I don't see how those fellows over in the Tannery stand it."

Said the foreman in the Tannery, "How on earth the fellows over in the glue factory stand it is by me."

It may be that you have become so used to paying war prices that our reconstruction campaign is not attracting your attention as it should.

If that's the case—the $10 to $20 difference in the price of a suit or overcoat will have to keep on going into somebody else's wallet until your landlord reduces your rent—and then you will take notice.

Everything is coming down.
Men's clothing is down and if you will follow in the steps of those men who accepted our invitation last week you will break the hab-bit of paying high prices—may we say—before it breaks you.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lessons on Citizenship.
And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
This is the great and first commandment. And a second like unto this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Matt 23: 37-39.

This is one of the great lessons of the year. Until the time comes when the provisions of this text comes to be the belief and practices of men and nations, wars and rumors of wars will continue. Those true to God will be loyal to human government. "Whatever makes men good Christians will make them good citizens."—D Webster.

Many of the friends were glad to greet Bro Green Sunday morning after his strong sermon.
His force and earnestness were equal if not greater than in former years.

Mr and Mrs A M Wright of Pendleton, Chairman of the roads and highways committee in the house of representatives came to attend the funeral of Mrs Quick and were here for the morning service.

The missionary and King's Heralds meetings were postponed last week until the same time this week.

Bro Cook's little son Claude is on the sick list.

Once more the hand of death has taken one of our number; this time it was our beloved friend and counselor, Grandma Quick. She always had a smile, a joke, or a cheerful word for her many friends. She was charitable, more so than many knew. Many a meal and dollar were sent out to the worthy ones.
In her early days she would leave her babes in care of her husband while she would go to nurse a sick neighbor. She was a pioneer in early church and W C T U work and she was always under the burdens. She stood for principles which were then very unpopular but are now incorporated in law and practice, and to those of her type is the credit largely due. She was a consistent follower of her great Master. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Christian Church Notes

Raymond C Smith has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian church until Oct 1st, and began his work last Sunday.
He stated last Sunday that his first impressions of Halsey and its people are very favorable and he is taking hold of the work with enthusiasm. Especially is he interested in the activities of and for young people, and expressed his opinion that Halsey's young folks are of the type that accomplish great things in the world.

Brother Smith is a very able young man and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to worship with us and get acquainted.

All church services Sunday as usual, beginning with the Bible school at 10 o'clock. The High School class is getting along nicely in their study of the New Testament.

Plans for the enlarging of the Bible school are under consideration with a view to "101 by Easter."

At 11 o'clock the sermon subject will be "Forward March," followed by communion.

Endeavor meeting at 6:30.
Subject, The Sacrifice of Christ, Genevieve Wells, Leader.

7:30 song service. Sermon topic, "No Room in the Inn."

C E business meeting was held at the home of Wilmetta Forster on Tuesday evening.

Many of the Endeavorers are leaving Friday for the State C E convention at Corvallis. These state conventions are always "mountain top" events for the Christian Endeavorers.

School Notes

A basket ball game has been scheduled with Lebanon next Saturday night at Lebanon. It is to be a double header, both boys and girls. Come along and root for your school team. The Quite a number of the High School students drove to Albany Tuesday evening to hear the musical concert given at the First Presbyterian church.

The teachers training class are taking a special correspondence course in Palmer method writing.

Last week the school was pleased to be addressed by Mrs Moore of Shedd, in regard to the play given by the Band.

Miss Moore is conducting the girls' physical training class.

Lebanon Jottings

A letter from Chas P Poole gives us a few items from Lebanon that might be of interest to the Halsey people.

The Wm Curtis family are well and doing well.

Alex Power has disposed of his stock in the First National Bank and is in very poor health. They expect to leave Lebanon soon and travel in search of health. Mrs Power has entirely recovered from her recent severe sickness. Her niece will be married in the Spring so her friends say.

There is considerable building going on and more contemplated.
Mrs Poole has been nursing Mrs Georgia Bierley in an Albany hospital. Mrs Bierley is reported as improving.
