Almost 56 Years

ago Mr. Leighton E. Blain established this business. We have grown to be one of the leading Men's Clothing stores in this part of the state.

When we ask ourselves the cause of this growth, we are always forced to conclude that there is only one real cause and it can be expressed in only one way:

A Square Deal For Every Customer.

THE VALUE FIRST STORE.

BLAIN CLOTHING COMPANY.

Halsey Items

Leave orders for land plaster at the lumber yard. 2 10tf.

W R Kirk made a business trip to Brownsville Monday.

G W Laubner was an Albany caller Wednesday.

Lewis Skirvin had business calling him to Shedd Monday.

Dr. E. W. Barnum, Dentist, at Hotel Halsey every Tuesday and Thursday.

R B Mayberry is confined to his home with an attack of tonsillitis.

E S Marsters shipped a car load of hay to Summit the first of the week.

For Sale—Fine, large, White Rose potatoes one dollar per hundred. A. H. Quinby.

Claron Gormley was a passenger for Harrisburg Friday where he visited the dentist.

Honey—Reduced 20 per cent while it lasts. Also some fine male calves for sale. NT Sneed Halsey. 1-27 tf.

W J Ribelin has a Jersey heifer for sale from a thoroughbred sire, and her mother gives a little better than 6 per cent test.

For Sale—Registered Short Horn bull three years old past, perfectly gentle, never broke a fence. A. H. Quinby.

I will have my regular Spring opening on Tuesday, March 1st. Ladies of Halsey and vicinity are invited to attend. Brownsville Milliner.

Dr E W Barnum of Harrisburg, has equipped a dental office at the Hotel Halsey and has made arrangements to be here every Tuesday and Thursday.

While in Halsey call on the Rawley man for extracts, spices all medicines stock tonics and worm destroyer. Mail orders promptly filled. Or phone 1615. H S Winkleman, Rawley man.

Dr E W Barnum and family of Harrisburg were Halsey visitors Monday. Dr Barnum is fitting up an office in the hotel and expects to make professional visits to our city in the near future.

Mrs D F Dean of Coquille was a guest of her daughter Sunday and Monday of this week. While here she purchased the H H Kirk residence on north Second Street and she and Mr Dean will again make their home in Halsey in the near future.

To say that the people of Halsey were surprised, would express it very mildly, when the news reached us that a mistake of 4.5 mills had been made in the tax assessment, and the mistake made in favor of the people too. We haven't heard of any one yet dying from heart failure on account of it, but we would caution officials to be careful about springing too much of that kind of stuff on us suddenly, for there is a limit to human endurance, even on the joy side of life.

Mrs B M Bond entertained the ladies of the Study Club at a very enjoyable meeting on Thursday afternoon. Mrs Drinkard and Mrs Stafford presented the lesson on American Folk Songs, giving excerpts from the life of Stephen C Foster and upon legendary Indian music; They were assisted in the musical part of the program by Mrs Bond and Miss Donna Robertson. The hostess served delicious refreshments, being assisted by Miss Leone Palmer. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs D Taylor, March 3d. Mrs D S McWilliams will present the lesson on Interior Decorations for the Home. Roll call to be answered by current events.

Lawrence, the 14 year old son of Mr and Mrs Frank M Maxwell of Tangent, suffered a severe fracture of the right leg Tuesday afternoon when he was either kicked or stepped on by the horse he had been riding. The horse, a spirited animal, was in the act of rearing when the boy sought to dismount in front of his home. His left foot was caught in the stirrup and threw him under the horse. The bones of the right leg below the knee were badly crushed, but hope is entertained of saving the leg.

Christian Church Notes

In spite of the steady down-pour of rain Sunday morning there was a fine attendance at the Christian church. The Wildcat-Gunpowder contest in the Bible school is off in full swing with Miss Helen Moore, captain of the Willicats, and Miss Helen Armstrong, captain of the Gunpowders. The contest will close on Easter Sunday, March 27, and points will be counted for each person present and on time and for each new member. The winning side will be banqueted by the losers. The goal for the school has been set "101 by Easter." A special program in commemoration of our Lord's resurrection is being prepared for Easter Sunday.

The Juniors met last Sunday afternoon for their first meeting and will meet again next Sunday at 3 o'clock in the church.

The prayer meeting held in the church last week was very successful and these meetings will be continued from week to week. Prayer is the great avenue thru which we receive the power so necessary to our spiritual and moral development and growth. Let us not forget the prayer meeting Friday at 2.00.

We are glad to welcome Brother and Sister True back to town and their many friends are delighted to see them again in their places in the Lord's house.

Brother John Pitman very ably led the Senior C E meeting Sunday night. The topic next Sunday will be "The Miracle of the Resurrection."

The regular services next Lord's day: 10 a m, S S. 11:00, preaching and communion: 3:00, Junior C E; 6:30, Senior C E; 7:30, song service and sermon; Sermon topic, "Repentance." The young people's chorus will sing a specially prepared anthem at 7:30.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Rewards of Faithfulness. Well done good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things. Mat. 25: 23.

Aim of the lesson. To emphasize the duty of faithfulness in the use of all the resources entrusted to us. Many people get the idea they never had a fair chance or a fair start. This lesson shows whether this is so or not.

Next Sunday morning the annual, public thank offering for the W F M S will be taken. A missionary sermon will be delivered by the pastor. The Standard Bearers will have some special numbers. The public is cordially invited.

Preparatory to the revival meetings, the twice-a-week prayer meetings began at the M E Gardner home Tuesday evening with a meeting filled with much interest and prayer. On Thursday evening it will be at B M Bond's, next Tuesday evening at J C Stanish, and the following Thursday at Mrs E C Allen's. It is to be sincerely hoped that many will avail themselves of these opportunities and show their interest in the important event soon to come.

Bro Bernard, the evangelist who will conduct our revival meeting, is from Chicago, came West and held a meeting with a large number of conversions at Wenatchee, Wash. Then to Klamath Falls with another large ingathering and now at Ashland, Or. The record speaks for it's self. Watch and pray.

Letters received by friends who have been attending Evangelist Bernard's meetings all say that we shall be very fortunate to get him at Halsey. These statements are emphasized by the fact that "Centenary," one of the largest churches in Portland, was anxious for him to come there from Ashland. But it is HALSEY next! How are we citizens going to show our appreciation of this special favor? Watch for posters.

School Notes

The fifth and sixth grade students have purchased a pair of Indian clubs each and they are rapidly learning to handle them very well.

Last Tuesday was George Washington's birthday and the literary society gave its program that day. There were several visitors whom we were glad to see. The program was as follows:
