Linn Holstein Men Elect.

At the regular annual meeting of the Linn county Holstein Cattle Club in Harrisburg, Saturday, Feb 26th, the following officers were elected to serve the following year. Pres, Clyde E Woods; vice pres, W C White; secy-treas, Geo A McCart; Directors, C R Evans, L R Grimes, J P Stearns, J M Philpott and Wm Elliott.

The regular routine business was transacted previous to the election of officers, one particular project being the adoption of a plan to employ a paid state field secretary. This is an up-to-the-minute move which every Holsteiner in the state is signing up to. C R Evans was appointed to solicit those in Linn county.

Halsey Loses to Crabtree in a Stirring Game of Basketball.

Crabtree High School last Friday night defeated the Halsey High school at basket ball by a score of 24 to 18 in an exciting game played in the Crabtree gymnasium. This was the third and deciding game between the two teams, each having won a game earlier in the season. The line-up of the teams was as follows;

Crabtree—Kuni and Bilyen, forwards; Gerhart, center; Powell and Sumpter, guards.

Halsey—Corcoran and Robertson, forwards; McKern, center; Skirvin and Clark, guards.

Before the Crabtree—Halsey game the Crabtree High School girls defeated a team of town girls by a score of 18 to 13. A game between the Halsey and Crabtree high school girls had been planned, but the Halsey girls were unable to make the trip and a team of girls from Crabtree was substituted.

Those attending from here were Delos Clark, Wayne Robertson, Clarence McKern, Wm Corcoran, Harold Mueller, Albert Heinrich, Lewis Skirvin, Lawrence Wells, Glenn Chance and Profs Patterson and English.

After the game the visitors were entertained at supper and a social time was enjoyed.

Rex Davis Takes a Position in an Albany Bank.

Rex W Davis of Harrisburg, and well known in Halsey, president of the Linn county good roads association and for many years manager of the May and Senders merchandise store in Harrisburg, has accepted a position in the First National Bank of Albany as one of the cashiers and will assume his position as soon as he can be relieved of his services as a Federal court juror in Portland.

Mr Davis has long been regarded as one of Linn county's most progressive men and has been for many years one of the active members of business and social life at Harrisburg. His family will move to Albany as soon as the school closes at Harrisburg this year.
