That you are getting full value for your money when you use this class of tobacco.

The good, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—nor do you need so big a chew as you did with the ordinary kind.

Any man who has used the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

SWEET THOUGHTS

When you pass Clark's, think of how appreciative your sweet-heart or wife, mother or sister, would be if you sent her a box of strictly fresh chocolates or a mixed assortment of fruity sweetmeats. You'll have cause to thank us for this suggestion because we know how it has worked in other cases.

Wildcats and Gunpowder.

Isn't that a great name for contestants for a goal, to be assumed by the followers of the meek and lowly Jesus? Wildcat! The nature of a wildcat is to scratch, bite, kill, and eat. Gunpowder! The nature of gunpowder is to make a noise and supply the force behind the instruments of destruction.

What is it the Wildcats want to bite, scratch, kill, and eat? Is it the community at large, the other church, or is it just the young people? Whatever it may be it seems like the instinct of self preservation would be to keep away from them.

What is it the Gunpowders want to destroy with a great noise? The same elements perhaps.

The churches adopt the ways of the world and then wonder why there are not more become Christians. What is the use? If the world won't go to the church then the church will go to the world and they will get together some way or other.

Last year the Methodist S S had the same kind of a contest but they were milder in their use of cognomens, for they styled themselves the Blues and the Blacks, but the termination of the contest resulted in a picnic and a big eat furnished by the LOSERS. We are not criticizing the Methodist church on their method of conducting a contest, for, never having read their discipline, we do not know what their official rules are in such a case, but we have read the book which the Christian church claims as its discipline, and the nearest we can find to it is long removed from the Wildcat and Gunpowder phase.

Emulation in good works is taught, yes, clearly. But it seems that the incentive is at the other end of the line. Sometimes this: If any man will be great among you let him be your minister (servant)

Now it does really seem to us that to be Scriptural in applying the final reward of the contest, that it ought to be the winner and not the losers that furnish the eats. They ought to be so happy that they succeeded in accomplishing the most good (?) that they should want to treat the other fellows.

But that isn't the program. The world says let the losers pay the bill, and the church says the same thing. And can you wonder that "Only the Master who knoweth all can tell the two apart?"

Strive to excel in good works. That is all right. We hope much good may come from the contest. But we are old fashioned enough to think that the Master's way is the better way. We would like to see it tried at any rate, but we never expect to.

The Halsey High School will give their play in the local hall on the 11th of this month. This play was a decided hit in their home town and from all reports is well worth seeing. And another reason why we should see it is that Halsey forgot bad feelings and turned out to see the drama from Shedd when it went to Halsey, and it is no more than we should do, and go out and see their play when it comes here, for we want them to know that we do not have any hard feelings.

J Tait, wife and child from Grant Falls, Montana, have been visiting their aunt and uncle in Shedd for ten days.

The Tangent High school plans to give their play here either the 17th or 19th of March.

Chas Troutman had trouble with his Oldsmobile truck. The oil feed became stopped up and failed to function and Chas has now some burnt out bearings and all the pistons became heated and will have to be replaced with new ones. It was lucky they were made of aluminum and hence were softer than the sides of the cylinders, or it might have meant a spoiled engine.

Miss Amy Liska, who had been sick at the home of her sister, has recovered sufficiently to go to her home on the ranch above Scio.

It is reported that Gould's car is so mulish that when it is cranked that it backs up until something stops it, but prefers to lean on a telephone pole.
