

SWEETS TO THE SWEET

The age of the girl doesn't count when it comes to candies; big and little they all love it. The candies that we sell are made of pure unadulterated sugar and flavorings, and consequently no matter how much is eaten there can be no harmful effect. Take home a box knowing that it is the purest candy made.

"Try It Out Yourself"
says the Good Judge

And you will find how much more satisfaction a little of this Real Tobacco gives you than you ever got from a big chew of the ordinary kind.

The good, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often. So it costs you less.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco
RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

Charity Grange Items

The Grange met Saturday with all officers present and a goodly attendance of members. Three candidates were balloted on for membership and will be initiated next meeting. This will be our last all day meeting until next October.

E A Kizer and Meredith Kizer went to the hills the latter part of last week and finished their contract of cutting William Pence's wood.

A Farm Bureau meeting will be held in the Grange hall next Friday evening.

We are certainly learning to sing some hard and beautiful songs at the singing school. The school will have its twelfth lesson next Saturday night and the teacher hopes by the end of the sixteenth lesson to have the class half way through the book, and we have learned to sing all the songs by note as we came to them with the exception of two or three rounds, which the teacher said he would not have us take the time to learn.

Next Saturday night the literary contest closes with an oyster feed. It isn't known yet which side will have to furnish the feast but we will all go prepared to enjoy the feast no matter which side furnishes it.

Shedd

Mrs Wadworth of Harrisburg, is giving music lessons to Sylvia Thompson, Anna Pennell, Lydia Gregory, and Gail Troutman.

J E Painter, who was badly hurt last week by Mr Barton's bull, is slowly recovering.

Mrs A D Elder has returned from a week's visit in Ashland.

We are glad to note that the county road north of Shedd, which has been closed all winter, is now open for traffic.

The Tangent High School put on their play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" at Shedd last Saturday night. It was a good play and well rendered.

Mrs Catherine Croft and her daughter were Albany callers last Friday.

Miss Blanche Epperly, one of our school teachers spent the week end in Corvallis.

Chas Arnold and his son Karl transacted business in Albany last Saturday.

Geo A Dannen had the misfortune of seriously cutting his thumb. He was helping his father cut the strings of a load of sacked oats chop; when he had finished he went to stick the knife into a board in the wagon, the knife "jack-knifed," the blade catching the first joint of his thumb. The doctor says he will probably have a stiff joint the rest of his life.

Ralph Dannen was called to Albany last Monday to appear against the man who broke into Hattie Dannen's house at his preliminary trial. The man pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the grand jury. At 4:30 the grand jury had not reached a verdict.

Later, J H Russell, indicted at 6 o'clock Monday evening by a new grand jury on the charge of larceny from a dwelling, was arraigned before Judge Kelly and pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars or serve twenty-five days in the county jail. Russell is serving out his sentence, but it is reported that he is looking for money from his home in Hoquiam, Wash, with which to pay his fine.

He was accused of stealing an ostrich plume fan and a change of clothing from Miss Hattie Dannen's home two weeks ago.

O W Thompson's son Orval who has been sick, is recovering.

(Taken from the Shedd Visitor of March 16th.)

Thompson Bros and Co have shipped this week 1 car of flour, 1 of feed, 2 of oats and 2 of hay.

Ralph Malson has been very sick with what threatened to be typhoid fever.

Ralph Dannen and nearly the whole family have been down sick and are reported better. It was feared for a time that

Ralph sr would have pneumonia.

Harvey Pugh, knowing the failings of Fords and other cars of larger caliber, took his team and waited at the main, mud hole between the road and the cemetery the afternoon of the Maxwell funeral, and his judgment was good. He pulled out every car but one. He had some fun at the expense of his brother Chas when he had to pull out his forty horse power car with two horses.
