JUDGMENT

It is a noticeable fact that a large percentage of the men who outfit here are choosing Cloth Craft Serge specials. Perhaps this is because they've worn these famous serges before, or it may be that they can't resist that feel of a certain wear when they handle these suits. Either reason they are showing rare judgment.

Halsey Items

Brownville and Drifted Snow flour at D H Sturtevant's. Leave orders for 16 inch slab wood at the lumber yard. J H Suiter was a Harrisburg caller Sunday. Mrs G W Laubner was an Albany caller one day last week. D S McWilliams is reported on the sick list. Wanted—A cow giving 4 qts of milk, part terms. E Russ, Halsey, Oregon. Mrs Morrow, Mrs Pray's daughter, left last week for her home in Canada. J W Manrose and son Frank and daughter Jessie from Portland made a flying trip to Halsey Sunday.

The parties that borrowed the singletrees from a wagon standing by my store, please return them. G W Mornhinweg. We are sorry that Mrs. J. A. Stevenson suffered a serious relapse in her sickness Tuesday morning and at this writing is suffering a great deal.

Mrs Callie Frum and son Glenn of this city, spent last Sunday in Brownville and attended the funeral of Link Kirk. The Kirks have been friends of Mrs Frum for over 30 years.

Ben Sudtell left Tuesday of last week for Banning, California, to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Elnora Sudtell. He was accompanied by his brother Ted of Cottage Grove.

In talking with R W Tripp, the Oldsmobile man of Albany, last Friday, he said that business was good in his line and that he had sold several machines in the last few days.

The Highway Commissioners by unanimous consent have decided upon Second street as the route the highway will take through Halsey. There were many who would have very much preferred to have had it on First street but the commissioners decided on Second street.

THIS A "WOMAN'S COUNTRY"

English Writer Gives an Interesting Impression of Her Sister Over the Seas.

As an English woman who went about America for nearly three years, making friends, East, West, South and North, I ought to be able to contrast the women of the two countries, but the more one travels the more one realizes that "folks is just folks" all the world over.

American women are quicker at the uptake as regards friendliness and kindness; but the tongue-tied English do just as much in the long run. The American's manners are more cosmopolitan, her clothes are better put on, she has more good stories in her after-dinner speeches. But if you compare corresponding types—as most travelers omit to do—they are "both the same color under their skin."

AMERICA IS A WOMAN'S COUNTRY. A boy belongs to his mother, and most women give their own opinions on all subjects—quite curiously well expressed—without any suggestion of having gone to a man for help.

The Englishwoman speaks more shortly and with a suggestion of having "asked her husband at home"; but I doubt if the Englishwoman is worse off, since England is the home of the proverb, "As the good man saith, so say we; but as the good wife saith so must it be."

One very noticeable charm in the American woman is her quickness in starting conversation with a stranger and her aptness in saying something pleasant at once. I cannot help thinking that if English nurseries and school rooms taught this, it would have widely international results and put more reality into the League of Nations.—Lucy H. M. Soulsby in the Woman's Supplement of the London Times.

VAST EMPIRE IN SOUTH SEAS

Extent of Australasian Group Under British Rule Is Hardly Realized by Americans.

Judson C. Welliver writes in the Country Magazine that our impressions about the Australasian empire of the future are rather vague, because we are unable to realize its mere bigness. Thus the island of New Guinea, the greatest island in the world, if we classify Australia as a continent, was, before the war, divided between the British, Dutch and Germans. The British have now taken over, in the name of Australia, the German claims.

We think of New Guinea as a considerable patch of dry land in the expanse of the southern ocean, but have difficulty realizing that if it could be laid down on the United States, one egg would be at Portland, Me., the other near Omaha, and that it would blot out an area about twice the size of the German empire, and including something like a quarter of the population of these United States. It contains vastly greater resources than Germany, also about a thousand white people and 500,000 aborigines, largely cannibals. Half of it yet remains Dutch, but its predestination to be essentially British is quite obvious.

Australasia aims at leadership in the south temperate zone, on lines curiously parallel to those by which Great Britain has become leader in the North. With inexhaustible coal and iron, she is creating iron and steel and shipbuilding industries, and a navy of her own. The war era has been marked by the completion of Australia's first transcontinental railroad, suggestive reminder of the beginning of our own Union Pacific.

Houses of Mud.

Women in California are building houses with their own fair hands. What is more, they are making the bricks.

The bricks, however, are of the kind spoken of in the Bible as made by the people of Israel in Egypt—i. e., of clayey earth mixed with straw for a binder. The straw is indispensable, and it will be remembered how the Israelites "kicked" because it was not provided.

Such bricks are merely sun baked. Missionary priests in California in the early days used them for building churches and other structures which, covered with stucco, were very handsome. These 'dobe buildings were also substantial, weatherproof and enduring, as is testified by many that still stand, unimpaired by the wear of centuries.

With labor so high and materials likewise, the idea of a mud dwelling, which one can put up for oneself, even the children helping, has its attractions.

Linn County Breeders Association Will Publish Directory.

The committee of the Linn county Breeders' Association on the publishing of a breeder's directory held a meeting April 4th at the county agent's office and made plans for the publishing of a directory. Letters will be sent to former breeder association members asking them to send in their names together with the kind of pure bred stock they are raising, or certified seed that they are growing.

It is hoped that every breeder of pure bred stock or certified seed grower will send in his name at once as the directory will go to press on May 1st and no names will be received after that time. Already there are eighty pure bred breeders who have listed their names for publication in this directory. No doubt it will be near twice this number. A membership fee of $2 is charged for membership in this association and those who wish their names to be entered in the directory must accompany the same with the $2 fee. This directory will be distributed to county agents, and breeders of livestock thruout the state and also to other states whenever information is desired relative to Linn county stock.
