

SWEETS TO THE SWEET

The age of the girl doesn't count when it comes to candies; big and little they all love it. The candies that we sell are made of pure unadulterated sugar and flavorings, and consequently no matter how much is eaten there can be no harmful effect. Take home a box knowing that it is the purest candy made.

Charity Grange Items

Clarence Long and A F Rice
our Grange janitors, made a few minor repairs at the hall the first of the week.

Francis Kizer and wife, Mrs H
C Kizer and Mrs E A Kizer m

tored to Eugene Sunday to view the ruins of Ralph Pierce's garage which burned early Saturday morning. Mr Pierce is a brother of Mrs Francis Kizer. They went by way of Coburg and called at the home of J D Wigle, and also called on Dick Morris, who is quite ill. The party returned home by way of Junction City and Harrisburg.

Mr and Mrs August Sperling and Mr and Mrs Farmer Rice made a business trip to Albany Monday.

Our telephone central office at Harrisburg is being moved from the Hubble building to the old First National Bank building.

Shedd

Born on Easter Sunday, to Mr and Mrs Elmer H Morgason, a 9 pound son, their first son but third child.

Steward P Arnold of Brownville, has brought his saw over and is sawing wood on the Arnett place.

The Odd Fellows are to have a convention here April 9th, and the Rebekahs are getting busy about serving a feast for them.

A son has lately arrived at the home of Mr and Mrs N Kennedy. Mrs Dora Davis is about as proud of it as its parents, for it is her first grandchild.

Mrs Dawson has been staying with Mrs E H Margason for a few days.

Fred Nitzel, who is attending school at Monmouth, with two of his friends, visited during the Easter vacation with his parents.

O M Thompson shipped a car of hay lately.

The Christian Endeavor society held their business meeting at the U P church Monday evening which was followed by a social time.

Mrs I Pennell has been ill with a cold but is better at present.

Mrs S P Brock, who has been ill, is slowly getting better.

Hon Robert S Acheson and family were Albany callers last Thursday.

(Taken from the Shedd Visitor of March 30th.)

The union revival meeting has passed into history with a total number of 79 conversions and reclamations. Sunday morning at the union service held in the U P church, there were 28 took membership, 19 of these as a direct result of the meetings. In the evening in the Methodist church 22 joined the church, 30 as a direct result of the meetings (Bro Van Winkle must have made a typographical error some place in this account.—Editor). Many more will yet line up with both churches.

Last evening the boys got out and propped up the old back stop on the base ball diamond and hired A M Kendall to hitch onto one of the county's many idlers and drag the diamond. From the present outlook it looks as if we would have a good team this Spring.

Last Sunday a number of the young people gathered at the Nitzel home and ate Easter dinner together.

Ralph Malson is back in school again after his sickness. He's well out looks somewhat washed out.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
