Last Saturday afternoon and evening the Linn-Benton County Odd Fellows' convention was held here at the W O W hall. There were 226 all told who were present at the convention. There were representatives and delegates from Albany, Halsey, Brownsville, Corvallis, Lebanon, Sweet Home, Crawfordville, Alpine, Alesia, Harrisburg, and Scio, and of course nearly all of the Shedd Odd Fellows.

The meeting was called to order by President A T Grugget, and W W Poland gave an appropriate address of welcome which was responded to by A T Gruggett of Corvallis.

The program was then rendered as follows: "Why the Linn-Benton I O O F District?" by J K Weatherford from Albany.

"Why the Endowment Fund?" by W F Moore of Brownsville.

"Why I Became an Odd Fellow." T A Logsdon of Corvallis. Then followed the grand banquet.

After being called to order for the evening session the convention was addressed by Rev Geo H Parkinson of Corvallis, on the subject of "Politics" viewed from the standpoint of Government, Industry, and Religion. One of the delegates from Halsey said it was the best address he ever heard in his life.

After this came the "Recitation of Unwritten Work and the Exemplification of Signs.

Harrisburg was expecting to put on the initiatory degree, but for some reason which our correspondent didn't get, it was exemplified by another lodge.

1st Degree work was exemplified by Sweet Home, 2nd Degree by Alesia, and 3rd Degree by Alpine.

After the conclusion of the evening session a second banquet was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, even if some were a little under the weather and not able to take on more than two men's ordinary rations.

The next convention will be held at Alesia, and the Alesia lodge promises them a feast of deer meat, as it will be during the open season when the next semi-annual convention meets.

"NOW-A-DAYS"

says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind.

He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
