"Just Between You and Me"

says the Good Judge

Here's genuine chewing satisfaction for you, hook ed up with real economy.

A small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much long er than a big chew of the ordinary kind—that's be cause the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Shedd

Miss Blanche Epperly and Miss Mabelle Jones were guests in Al bany Friday evening.

Rev Stanley Van Winkle at tended the revival at the Metho dist church in Albany last Friday night.

At a Farm Bureau meeting at Millersburg last Friday night J E Cornett explained the object and aims of the association. W D Por ter was selected as the leader of the movement for the Eradication of tuberculosis among cattle.

Miss Esther Dawson went to Al bany Saturday morning to spend the week end with her brother, Paul Dawson and family.

Mrs W L Pate was an Albany visitor Monday.

C J Shedd was an Albany caller Monday.

The Shedd cooking club, under the leadership of Mrs Van Winkl is progressing finely. There ar twelve members and they have had two meetings at the home of their leader.

The Freshmen and Sophomores gave a party at the school house last Friday night under the cha peronage of Jack Dannen and Miss Maude McDaniels.

A car of hogs and sheep were shipped from Shedd one day this week.

When the Lad'e' Aid society met at the Methodist parsonage last Thursday, the cooking class served supper for them, consisting of puffed potatoes, salad, muffins and tea.

Mr and Mrs Robert Arnold transacted business in Albany Wednesday of last week.

The Senior class is busy practi cing their new play, "Assisted by Sadie."

The Circle ladies gave a ban quet Tuesday night of last week for their husbands and children.

Thompson Bros are shipping grain from their bins at the mill.

Mr and Mrs Guy Porter of Al bany were visitors in Shedd one day last week.

(Taken from the Shedd Visitor of April 13th.)

Rev Fred Schnell was in Shedd Monday afternoon and remained here until he barely had time to get back to Turner for the servi ces. Like everybody who comes to Shedd, he has fallen in love with the place. His wife and boy accompanied him and they all made the trip in a Ford.

Last Friday morning the Albany College quartet accompanied by a pianist and Pres Williams, visited the Shedd school and sang several numbers for the pupils. Pres Williams gave a short but pointed talk to the young people. In his talk he showed that according to the U S government figures, for every hour spent in school from the primary grade up it gave an average return of $9.02. So some of those who have their doubts on the value of an educa tion, had better think it over.

Mrs Hannon of the Oregon State W C T U spent Tuesday in Shedd. In the morning she visit ed the school and told some of the evils of the cigaret. In the even ing she met with the local chapter at the home of Mrs Brasfield, which meeting ended with a luncheon.

A punching bag has been added to the equipment of the Scout hall and some of the boys are getting so they can use it. In the Spring the hall is going to have to be moved. It is the present plan to get a place over town and move the hall there and then fix it up and put in a reading room and get a traveling library and make it of service to the community.
