Change in Time of the Movies

A letter from Mr Kessell manager of the Riato Theatre here, that should have been published last week, states that beginning with Friday May 13, the moving pictures will be shown on Friday nights instead of Thursday nights, and that he will have only big special shows which he shows at Harrisburg on Saturday nights.

He has been able to arrange bookings so that he can give the people of Halsey the benefit of these bigger shows and hopes that the patronage will justify him in continuing to do so.

He has booked for this week George Melford's special production and for other early dates he has to offer "Midsummer Madness," "Dead Men Tell No Tales," "Fatty Arbuckle in the 'Roundup'" "Outside The Law," Chas Chaplin "The Kid," "Forbidden Fruit" a line of pictures that cannot be beaten.

'Behold My Wife'

Worth Bass was an Albany caller Saturday.

L E Walton was a business caller in Albany Monday.

Dr and Mrs T I Marks and Mr and Mrs J W Drinkard enjoyed an outing on the Calopooia Sunday.

One night last week the Boy Scouts had a feed at their meeting. They were expecting to initiate some new members but as none showed up the old standbys had to eat their feed themselves.

The furnace at the school house was giving trouble again last Friday, and the most of the school got a vacation in the afternoon. The High School Bible pupils stayed and took their examination.

Last Saturday afternoon on the Halsey ball ground the Halsey High School crossed bats with the Harrisburg High School which resulted in a score of 8 to 4 in favor of Harrisburg. Halsey was handicapped by only having eight players against Harrisburg's nine, two of Halsey's best players being absent. But in spite of Halsey only having eight players they were in the lead up to the seventh inning, when the Halsey boys went to pieces, allowing the Harrisburg boys to make five scores in that inning. After that Halsey held them level neither side scoring after the seventh inning.

Miss Helen Cook was delightfully entertained at the home of her sister, Mrs L B Kimbrell last Thursday evening May 5 by a surprise party given in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and music delicious refreshments were served in May baskets. At a late hour the guests departed each wishing Miss Helen many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Misses Merle Straley Isabelle Gulliford Hazel Gulliford, Anna Heinrich, Geraldine Cook, Clarice Gourley, Pearl Pehrsson. Messrs Glenn Frum, Claron Gormley, Clarence McKern, Lawrence Taylor, Wayne Robertson Wm Corcoran, Delos Clark and Roland Marks.

W H Walton had the misfortune last Friday afternoon while grubbing out some fence corners, to miss the weeds with his grubbing hoe and strike his foot. He thought at first he had cut an artery but an examination by a doctor showed that it was not dangerous.

Rev Cook went to Junction City Sunday after the services at the church here, to preach the funeral sermon in English of Edward Jensen who was electrocuted at the Oregon Electric bridge between Harrisburg and Junction City some time ago, and whose body had just been found Thursday. The boy was at one time one of Rev Cook's Boy Scouts.

Wednesday of last week at the office of County Judge W R Bilyeu, occurred the wedding of Joseph Krewson of Leone, and Mrs Minnie Boyer of Halsey. Mrs Krewson is a daughter of Mr Curry. The newly married couple arrived in Halsey the same evening.

Last Friday at the home of the bride's father at 1316 Front street in Albany occurred the wedding of Miss Helen Moore and Rev Raymond C Smith, Dr D V Poling, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Mrs Smith has been a teacher in the Halsey schools since about the first of the year, while Rev Smith has been associated with the Christian church in Halsey as its pastor for a few months. At present they are living in the post office building.
