A Pretty Wedding

A very happy wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Walker, on Tuesday, June 21st, at 10 a. m. when their third daughter, Miss Bertha, was married to Mr. Oscar Lee of Springfield. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom. The bride was prettily dressed in a gown of white-satin embroidered in pink. The bridesmaid, Miss Nora Pehrsson was dressed in pink. Mr. Elmer Ferguson was best man. The floral decorations were pink and white roses against a green background. Rev. Raymond Smith performed the ceremony. Miss Nora Pehrsson caught the bride's bouquet, and Louise Robnett received the ring. The wedding march was played by Miss Louise Robnett and Miss Pearl Pehrsson sang. A fine wedding dinner was served after which the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip for Belknap Springs. Their friends had jokingly decorated their auto with old shoes, placards, etc., in keeping with the occasion. The groom is employed in a garage at Springfield, which city will be their new home. It will be remembered that the bride just recently graduated from the Halsey High School with signal honors and was a favorite among her classmates. Congratulations go with them from a large circle of friends.

Charity Grange Items.

The Grange Woodmen picnic was pulled off in fine shape and a general good time was had. Mr. Powell, secretary of the State Farm Bureau was speaker of the day.

Preventive measures are best against insect enemies. Rotate the crops, avoid introducing insects and disease, practice frequent cultivation, and employ fertilizer to stimulate plant growth. A vigorously growing garden may produce a crop in spite of injurious insects, but in fighting insects be thorough.

Methodist Church Notes

Sunday School, Quarterly review topic, "The Social Task of the Church." "He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, Rev. 21:3.

We have been discussing, the church at work in the world through each of us as members. Work, wages, taxes, schools, health, family, neighbors, poverty, competition, everything that anyone has to do or to decide in his daily living is really connected with his life as a Christian. Let us each one put ourselves in the way of Christian duty so that the church may measure up to her highest working efficiency, that the Lord may have his own way in all things in this restless, selfish age.

Each member of the S. S. is reminded to be ready for the work assigned for the close of next Sunday's service.

The pastor delivered a very strong sermon last Sunday morning. All should have heard it. His subject for next Sunday morning, "Dynamic Disciples," and in the evening, "Doesn't Matter What a Man Believes."

Sister Cook's brother, Frank O'Neil and family of Philcmath, made an over Sunday visit here.

Christian Church Notes

W. A. Howell of Brownsville, came over Saturday to meet his son, Victor, who is with the S. P. bridge gang working near Springfield. He was accompanied by another son George Howell, who has the distinction of being the smallest man of whom we know anything about in this section. He is twenty years of age and weighs but 86 pounds while his height is about 56 inches.

Frank Isom borrowed a new fangled corn cultivator from one of his neighbors the other day, and when asked how he liked it, he said it was O. K. but the do-funny that works the ikterbob that holds the jolly-whacker in line with the whatebamaycallit keeps cutting off the corn.
