the local Methodist church. The bride is a 1919 graduate of the University of Oregon and has been principal of the high school at Sand Lake Or. The bridegroom is a young business man of Stockton. The couple will make their home at Stockton.

Forty cans of trout fry were received here this morning by the Santiam fish and game association. to be liberated. Twenty cans of the fish were placed in the Willamette river and the other 20 cans were taken to Brownsville to be liberated in Millers lake, several miles south of Brownsville in the mountain. The association expects other shipments during the season to be placed in the streams and lakes of this part of the state.

concussion was feared by Dr. H. V.
Adix of Gresham, who examined the injured girl. Externally she was cut and bruised badly. Latter news has been received by Mrs.
Mary Hayes, grandmother of Miss Nash, stating that she had partially recovered consciousness but was still in a very serious condition.

Charity Grange Items.

The Charity Busy Bee Sewing Club had their regular meeting Wednesday, June 29, at the home of their club leader, Mrs. Byrd Wagner. The club's motto is,
"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." The members cut out and started making their needle-cases. The next meeting will be on July 13 at the Grange hall.
Members that were present were:
Ruth Long, Edith Long, Mabel Robinson, Edna Robinson, Irene Quimby, Ruth Quimby and Ethel Wiggle.

Shedd
(From The Visitor.)

Some time last week a three year old colt belonging to E. W.
Shedd became tangled in the wire fence and died as a result of the accident.

Mrs. Reid spent the last week in Albany visiting with her mother.

Mrs. Chas. Arnold was in Albany last week a part of the time taking treatment. She is at home again and is reported much improved.

Don't forget that there is going to be a Shedd Community Fair this Fall. Club members want to be getting their entries in shape. And the ladies want to be practicing for there is going to be a contest in bread making.

W. W. Newman, who has been hauling white fir wood from the Cornett ranch to town to ship to the paper mill in Salem, fell last week and broke two ribs.

Last Monday night the annual school election took place. H. G.
Pugh was the retiring member.
This place left vacant by Mr. Pugh was filled by Mr. J. C. Clay. This is the first time in a number of years that there was enough intrest shown in school affairs to get anybody out to the election.

Knowing Mr. Clay, we know that he will make a good director. Mr.
Clay and Mr. Porter both living in town, gives a majority of the board to the town proper and they will be easy of access. Everbody ought to be interested in the school, for the school's good. The gr a trouble is that the intrest most people take is in the fact that the school increases their taxes, and that is the only thing they can see.
And they let that fact blind them to the other things they owe to the school, and the editor knows that the tax burden is becoming a real one for most people.

The Boy Scouts plan to move their building to a more central location and fix up the building and make it into a Scout hall and community reading room and library. The thing that they are up against is a lot. And up until the new Brasfield Addition was opened up, there was none to be had. And now there are lots available the next thing is to get the money to get one. It is the plan of the Scouts to get a committee of the men of Shedd to back them in this and to see if they cannot raise the money for this lot. It is worth while as a reading room and library is something that Shedd has needed for some time.
