the stove, became available when the owner was moving from town.
Subscribers have been rushing in with renewals and new cash-in-advance names have been added to the list. The first of these from out of town was that of J. B. Neff of Los Angeles, who wrote: "I have just received your paper of the 4th and am glad you are located. I will be glad to note the improvement that I am sure will be made in the paper and in order to do so am inclosing a check for a year's subscription."

ier of the Halsey State bank and resided in Halsey for several years before selling his interests.

E. B. McKinney, local stock buyer, returned Monday from a four-days trip which took him through southern Oregon, then to Klamath Falls, Bend and back across the mountains by way of Belknap springs and Eugene. The trip was made in company with his brother, Earl McKinney of Lebanon, and Dick Miller of Eugene.

Mrs. Fred Taylor of Corvallis is a guest at the home of her father, J. C. Standish.

Monday night Balf Bond and wife, Mrs. Frank Porter and daughters Gertrude and Amie, Mrs. Charity Clark and daughter Georgina and Miss Chrona Smith motored to Shedd, where Mrs.
Clark and Mrs. Porter were initiated into the mysteries of the Eastern Star. This was followed by a social hour when Gertrude Porter sang several numbers, accompanied by Miss Smith on the piano. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were served.

the home of Mrs. Porter's father, Mr. Hopkins. They will go to Aleska for an outing before leaving for Portland, where they will spend the winter. The Cornelius family will occupy the Porter house this winter.

Twelve 50-pound boxes of dynamite was fired off Tuesday at Saddle butte, where rock is being procured for the pavement between here and Shedd. Thousands of pieces small enough to be fed to the crusher. The ground for miles around rumbled.

and Eugene cantons, I. O. O. F., will picnic at the auto camp grounds at Harrisburg Aug. 28.
All subordinate lodges and Rebekah's are invited to attend.

In the little electrical storm Saturday morning a bolt of lightning tore a hole in the wall of the telephone office at Tangent and put the apparatus out of commission.

Miss Hazel Cornell of Newberg, niece of Martin Stone of Brownsville, came through here Tuesday on her way home, after spending several days visiting him. Mrs.
A. E. Stone of Tacoma, sister of Martin Stone, was also a recent guest at his home.

Mrs. L. E. Walton and son, James Rector, and Mrs. J. W.
Rector left Sunday for a two-weeks outing at Newport. They were met at Albany by the latter's granddaughter, Miss Grace Wallace of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerman and niece, June Layton, left this morning for a ten-days trip which will take them over the Columbia highway and into the Yakima valley, where Mrs. Zimmerman has a brother living.

While endeavoring to put up an extension ladder at the W. H. Mc-Mahan residence, where he and W.
L. Norton were painting, J. A.
McWilliams suffered the fracture of both bones in his right forearm.
The extension slipped and, falling, caught his arm between the two rungs, the weight of the extension causing the break. Mr. McWilliams was removed to the home of his brother, D. S. McWilliams, and is getting along nicely.

County Agent Heyman is off on a vacation.

E. B. Penland and C. H. Davis agent for the Fidelity Phoenix Insurance company of Portland, was in Halsey Tuesday with J. W.

Moore, agent of that company here.
This company had no losses in the recent fire.

The Enterprise is expecting a roller for use in taking proofs. It will take some time to season it, but after it comes the matter that goes into the paper will first be "proved" and read and some of the typographical errors corrected.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Randall of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stur-zie of Boise, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Z. N. Borden of Riverside, Cal., arrived Monday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Schroll of Halsey. The four ladies named are sisters.

The Oregonian says: "A painter at Halsey who had both arms broken by a falling ladder is called lucky because he had some accident insurance. 'Provident' is a better term." The painter above mentioned had both bones in one arm broken; the other arm was uninjured. He was both lucky and provident.

About half the people of Brownsville were here for the fire Sunday night. Among those seen in about fifteen minutes were Jesse Hinman and Mr. Almon of the Times staff, who are also members of the fire department of that city, the Tinlills, Standishes, Cocorans, Thompsons, Camerons, Sawyers, Dawsons, Carlsons, scores of others.
The fire department was unable to help in putting down the conflagration on account of lack of hy-drants.

Edith Robnett, district deputy president of Purity Rebekah lodge No. 180, installed the following officers at the last meeting: Belle Gormley, P. N. G.; Della Moranhinweg, N. G.; Esther Bond, V. G.; Charity Clark, secretary; Edith Robnett, treasurer; Nellie Frum, warden; Nellie True, conductor; Laura Bramwell, inside guard; Callie Frum, outside guard; Mary Gray, R. S. to N. G.; Louise Taylor, L. S. to N. G.; Agnes Brown, chaplain; Ella Moore, musician; Balf Bond, captain of degree staff.
Charity Clark was appointed reporter.

Clarence Cornelius, son of the depot agent of this place, is a bright, industrious little chap about 12 years old and is acting assistant for his father during vacation. He is efficient and quick and the busiest ever. Clarence felt his responsibility Sunday night during the fire, and felt that the Southern Pacific belongings should be looked after, therefore looked about him to see just what he could save and saw three lead pencils and in his excitement packed them off for safety. When he saw the danger past he quietly returned the pencils to their accustomed place.

Mr. Andrew Brown, one of our incoming teachers, spent week end with relatives in Shedd. Sao will
