The Oregon pavements have cost about $24,000 a mile, and it will cost twice as much to construct pavements that will support heavy-weight trucks. We shall eventually come to it, but it will involve the tearing up the present pavements and substituting those that will make possible the more economical heavy-truck service. We are not always going to pay for every article of commerce the extra price made necessary by the use of light trucks on light pavements in their transportation. Would it not be wise, in building new pavements, to build half as much each year and make it equal to the transportation needs that are upon us?

Fatty Arbuckle's wife gets much praise in some quarters for coming to him in the dirty scrape he is in. Whether he escapes the law or not his income as an actor will be gone, for the public will not tolerate him on the screen. His fortune will be gone when his lawyers have done with him. The lady cannot save his income and the fat stipend he has been paying her. Her efforts will be love's(?) labor lost.

We have a bureau whose duty it is to read each week the country newspapers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over these papers and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper we immediately flood that territory with our literature. It always brings results for in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants use their local papers.—Herman Rosenfield, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Co.
Halsey and Brownsville merchants in certain lines are strongly tempting Sears, Roebuck & Co., and perhaps losing trade to them.

Elmer Yeoman of Cottage Grove has been indicted for manslaughter for killing Earl Herbert of Oakridge for a deer. If the pleas of insanity and irresponsibility offered by other-manslayers are effective, he who shoots a man for a deer ought to be acquitted on the ground that a fool is not responsible. Perhaps, however, it would be better to hang him for being such a fool as to be a public menace.

J. George Frank, Jr., of Walla Walla was another victim of the hunting season. He handled his gun carelessly and killed himself. The number of human fatalities during the open season for the "glorious sport" would make game animals laugh if they could know the facts.

A pheasant hunter shot and killed a heifer near Harrisburg the other day and escaped detection. That was better than if he killed a man, as some of them do. The open season for pheasants begins Oct. 15. For cattle it is later, but for men it appears to be all the year round of late.

It is claimed that "prohibition don't prohibit" in Chicago and Charles O. Fitzmorris, superintendent of police, exposes the reason when he declares that 50 per cent of the 5000 police there are getting profit from bootlegging. A cleanup in the department looms and Chicago may become dryer.

Arbuckle's version of his treatment of Miss Rapp, with whose murder he is charged, was such that Semnacher, who heard it, refused to repeat it verbally in court but handed it to the judge in writing. This is the Arbuckle who first declared that he had not been in the room with the girl and he has "nothing to say." And he is Billy Sunday's sympathy!

Brumfield has apparently deemed it expedient to turn insane again. A man as insane as he claims to be is as great a menace to humanity as a wild tiger in a city street ought to be as promptly extirpated.

The "Independent Medical Association," in session at St. Louis, declared that beer with a high alcoholic content than the present law allows is desirable from a doctor's standpoint. More ethics!

The Ku-klux terror has apparently spent its force and the only victims seem to be those who were mulcted in an admission fee.

GOES TO SHRINE ON KNEES

Lisbon Wife Fulfills Vow She Promised to Keep if Husband Lived.

Lisbon.—A curious sight was witnessed in the streets of Lisbon soon after dawn recently. Maria Conceicao, wife of a workman, was seen dragging herself painfully on her knees from her house through the busy streets to the Church of Our Lady of Health, thus carrying out a vow made during the illness of her husband.

The distance from her house to the church was over two miles and long before she had accomplished one-half of her pilgrimage her knees were torn by the stones and her dress was stained with blood.

Maria's husband, a young tinman, fell seriously ill about six months ago and was given up by the doctors. She tended him with untiring care and when it was thought that he was dying, she prayed for a miracle to save his life, making a vow that if he recovered she would go on her knees, as a sign of thanksgiving to the shrine of the Lady of Health.

BUILDS CHURCH IN 20 YEARS

California Bank Clerk Collects Funds, Draws Plans and Does the Work.

Colusa, Cal.—Jacob, in Biblical days, labored seven years for the hand of Rachel.

George Barrett, a bank clerk in Colusa, is just completing his 20 years of toil in building an Episcopal church for his community.

He obtained the land from a local philanthropist, collected funds almost single-handed, drew the plans, prepared the specifications, obtained the estimates and worked as a laborer on the building in his spare moments.

"You can send along a rector before long now," Barrett jubilantly told an official of the Episcopal church on his visit here.

KING BARS CREAM HORSES

Famous British Hackneys Grow Too Small, Owing to Inbreeding.

London.—The famous six cream ponies, which were formerly part of the state pageantry of London, will never appear again drawing the royal coach through the London streets, as, owing to inbreeding, the stock has grown too small for ceremonial purposes and their places have been taken by the "royal blacks."

The stock of creams, however, will not be allowed to die out altogether, for the king has presented them to the army council, and in future they will be used as cavalry drum horses.

Home Gardening Beats Golf.

Detroit, Mich.—Thousands of Detroiters who acquired the gardening habit during the war have continued the practice of making and tending patches of vegetables and small fruits until it has become a hobby with a large proportion of men here. More interest is being taken in gardening than in golf, baseball or other sports during the summer months, according to those who have made a study of the situation.

AT THE BLAIN STORE

55-year Customer Celebrates Date by Buying Suit

How would you feel if you had been conducting a clothing store in the same old town for nearly 60 years and one of your life-long customers dropped in to buy a suit on the 55th anniversary of the day when he bought his first suit from you?
Last Friday Tip Humphrey, well-known citizen of Jefferson bought a suit of clothes from the Blain Clothing company of Albany under these very circumstances. He insisted on buying the suit of Mr. Blain personally. After the transaction had been completed Humphrey said:

"Well, I don't need the suit right away, but can use it this fall winter, of course. But I wanted to buy the suit now because 55 years ago today I bought a suit of clothes from you and I thought as long as I had to have a suit pretty soon, I would like to buy it on the anniversary day."

Mr. Humphrey was 8 years old when he bought the suit, and he bought it to wear to the Sunday school class that Mr. Blain was then teaching. During the interval he has bought his clothes of The Blain Clothing company.

What You Do See and What You Don't!
SONORA believes that what is worth doing is worth doing well. For example, some phonographs are finished on only three sides. You're expected to put them in the corner and not in the center of the room. Sonora is finished beautifully on all four sides. Its design and its cabinet are extraordinarily beautiful. You can see this. Its internal construction is of remarkably superior quality. This (if you are not a mechanical expert) you can take on trust. The trademark Sonora is your guarantee.
The tone of the Sonora, sweet, mellow, enchanting, is a joy of which you never tire. The Sonora is the phonograph you can enjoy for a lifetime and which you can be proud of possessing.
Magnificent period and upright styles are ready.
