LESSON FOR OCTOBER 9

PAUL AT EPHEBUS.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt worship
the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.—Matt. 4:10.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Rev. 2:1-7.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul a Loving Friend and Minister.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul and the Silversmiths.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Experience in Ephesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Planting the Gospel in a Center of Paganism.

I. John's Disciples Become Christians (vv. 1-7).

These twelve disciples had only been taught the baptism of repentance as a preparation for the kingdom of God. Paul taught them to believe in Christ, that is, to receive Him as the One who had on the cross provided redemption for them.

II. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 8-10).

1. In the Jewish synagogue (v. 8). His message is characterized by: (1) boldness. He realized that God had sent Him and that His authority was back of Him. (2) Reason. He reasoned with them. God's message is never sentimental nor arbitrary, but in accord with the highest reason. (3) Persuasion. It is not enough to come boldly with a reasonable message; it must be accompanied by persuasion. (4) Concerning the kingdom of God. He did not discourse on current events, literature, or philosophy, but upon the message of salvation through Christ.

2. In the schoolhouse of Tyrannus (vv. 9, 10). Paul's earnest preaching only hardened the Jews. When they came out and spoke openly against this way of salvation in Christ, Paul separated the disciples from them and retired to the schoolhouse of Tyrannus.

III. God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-16).

So wonderfully did he manifest His power that handkerchiefs and aprons brought from Paul's body healed the sick and cast out evil spirits from those whose lives had been made wretched by them.

IV. A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41).

1. Fear fell upon all (v. 17). News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

2. It brought to the front those who professed faith in Christ while not living right lives (v. 18). They believed, but had not broken from sin.

3. Gave up the practice of black arts (v. 19). This means forms of jugglery by use of charms and magical words. All such are in opposition to the will of God; therefore no one can have fellowship with God and practice them. They proved the genuineness of their actions by publicly burning their books. Though this was an expensive thing—valued at about $12,500—they did not try to sell the books and get their money back. When you find you have been in a wrong business, make a clean sweep of things; burn up your books on Spiritualism, Christian Science, etc.; empty your whisky and beer into the sewer, and have a tobacco party similar to the Boston tea party.

4. Uproar of the Silversmiths at Ephesus (vv. 23-41). (1) The occasion (vv. 23, 24). This was the power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his fellows. It was clear to them that idolatry was tottering before the power of the gospel. They were not interested particularly in the matter from a religious standpoint, but because it was undermining the principal business of the city. (2) The method (vv. 25-29). Demetrius, a leading business man, whose business was the stay of others of a similar nature, called a meeting and stated that much people had turned from idolatry and that the market for their wares was materially weakening. He appealed to his fellows (a) on the ground of business, saying "This, our craft, is in danger of being set at naught," (v. 27). (b) On the ground of religious prejudice. He said "The temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised" (v. 27). He became quite religious when he saw that his business was being interfered with. His speech gained his end; the whole crowd was enraged and yelled in unison, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians." The mob was quieted by the tact and good judgment of the town clerk.

Stevenson's Prayer.

Give us to awake with smiles, give us to labor smiling. As the sun lightens the world, so let our loving kindness make bright the house of our habitation.—Stevenson.

Jud Tunkins.

Jud Tunkins says an optimist isn't complete unless he is as cheerful as his work as he is in conversation.

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly Grant Taylor took in the fair at Albany Wednesday.

Wingo Eggleston of the Brownsville creamery was in Halsey Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Armstrong drove to Brownsville Wednesday on business.

Lincoln Overton, who lives south of town, was a Wednesday visitor at the county fair.

Mrs. Lillian Howe of Brownsville, nurse at the Masters home, was a caller Wednesday.

Mrs. John Edwards and daughter were passengers to Albany Wednesday morning.

Mrs. C. S. Fuller postponed her trip to Portland until Wednesday, as visitors prevented her going sooner.

Work on the Frum warehouse was suspended yesterday to give workmen a chance to take in the county fair.

Mrs. S. A. Gamber, who has been visiting Mrs. H. M. Miller of Halsey for the past ten days, left for Eugene Tuesday.

Colonel Sudtall last Monday auctioned off 185 acres of practically unimproved land near Jefferson for $100 an acre.

Mrs. H. M. Miller and the Misses Frost and Lena Bass of this place returned from a short stay in Corvallis last Sunday.

Amor A. Tussing of Brownsville was a transient passenger through Halsey Tuesday. Mr. Tussing is the only attorney in Brownsville.

Grant Taylor, our rural route mail man, spent Sunday in Eugene visiting his daughters, Mrs. E. N. Warmoth and Mrs. Charles Whitlatch.

Dr. L. L. Edwards of North Bend left for his home Wednesday after visiting for a short time at the home of his brother, John Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ryerley of Dallas, parents of L. W. Byeley, an enterprising creamery man, left for home last Tuesday morning, after a ten days' visit.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet next Tuesday, Oct. 11, at the home of Mrs. D. S. McWilliams at 2:30 o'clock. Leader, Mrs. W. P. Wahl. All ladies invited.

That caravan of 88 Brooklynites who came to Idaho so happy in their own cars and bought land are no longer happy. They paid $125 an acre for sagebrush land 25 miles from market, and expected to make money while learning to farm. Better be an Oregon home seeker and fail to "get there" than be in the shoes of the caravan immigrants.

Charles Kutsch, who is building a home southwest of Halsey on which work has been going on the greater part of the summer, states that it is now near completion. R. E. Bierly, who lives east of Halsey, is also building a house which cost something like $1000 or more, and next week J. F. Hostetter will start a dwelling on the Harrisburg route 2, which may cost in the neighborhood of $1200. The Frum warehouse is rapidly nearing completion. Let the good work go on.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Widdle and daughter Agnes of Albany motored over accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Claus Pearson and their daughter Thelma and son Charles from Trout Lake, Wash., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Balf Bond. Mrs. Widdle and Mrs. Pearson are sisters and both went to school to Mrs. Bond's father in Washington some twenty years ago. Mrs. Balf Bond went to school to them while in the primary department. A most delightful day was spent in recalling past scenes and experiences.

There is a movement on foot for a first class second-hand store in the town, a much-needed enterprise, which would benefit both seller and buyer. Let us hope it materializes.

Was ever better weather for a county fair?

The county fair is so successful that it will be extended over Saturday.

Linn county paid $74,073 in auto licenses from Jan. 1 to Sept. 1, 1921, and did not get much from it except what was done on the Pacific highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker of Athena, formerly of Brownsville, both graduates from the high school at that place this year and recently married, passed through Wednesday morning on their way to Brownsville after receiving a telegram stating that little six-year-old Glenn, brother of Lloyd, had been killed Tuesday evening.

Glenn went to the pasture to get a horse. Not returning, search discovered him dead. Just how the accident happened is not known. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, who run a farm and dairy on the north side of Brownsville. Mrs. Walker is the president of the W. C. T. U. of that place. Glenn was a bright, sweet little fellow, and many a time he had run into The Times office with a nosegay or some other little token of his unselfish love for the Wheelers, whose hearts are with the family in this, their deep sorrow.

IN THE NEGLIGES

Interesting Wearables for Fall and Winter Wear.

Newest Garment May Be Substituted for the Evening Dress Or Opera Coats.

Rumors of the attractive things now being manufactured for autumn and winter behind closed doors, and which will be brought out as surprises later on when the cool weather is here and every woman is feeling the need of adding to and replenishing her wardrobe, are not confined to suits and dresses. Interesting things are being done in the realm of negligees. Negligees as they are made today might be placed in two general classifications—one of the dressing gown type, the other on the order of a dress. Those of the latter sort, during the days when a wave of extravagance swept the whole world, became extremely elaborate and were considered as belonging among the luxuries.

Makers of such clothes showed themselves versatile and extremely clever when, with the passing of the spending debauch, they made this type of dress to fill more than one need and simplified it. Now for many occasions a negligee may take the place of a dress—especially an evening dress.

The beautiful negligees that resemble so closely handsome evening dresses or opera coats being made for the new season are lovelier than ever, but among them is seen a goodly showing of dressing gowns and kimonos in which beauty has been blended with utility.

There was a time when we felt that the good old-fashioned dressing gown made for comfort had receded into the distance. We may have sighed occasionally for its comfort on a cool autumn or winter morning, but remembrance of its plattness and unbecomingness soled us for its loss.

Extremely attractive challs have been chosen for autumn models, and to make them even more pleasing soft silk linings of contrasting colors have been added.

The Fall of Jerusalem.

And Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came against the city, and his servants did beset it. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives.—II Kings, 24:11 and 14.

The Day of Reckoning.

And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness; now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.—Hoses, 7:2.

Dreaming of Banishment.

To dream of banishment signifies that you will have sorrowful news, but it will be of short duration; for a woman to dream that she is banished is a very lucky omen and denotes that she will speedily attain her most sanguine desires.

High School Notes

Among those enrolling recently are Wayne Robertson, Collin Carver, Guy Merriam, Clarence McKern, Glenn Frum, Preston Newton, DeEtta Bobnett and Frost Bass.

Prof. Nicholls visited the high school last week in order to organize an orchestra. Who shall be members has not been determined yet.

Mrs. Henry English will test voices in order to class them properly in the glee club.

The classes have selected their colors, mottoes and flowers. They are as follows:

Senior class—Motto, Carpe diem; colors, pink and white; flowers, pink and white carnations.

Junior class—Motto, Carpe diem; colors, purple and gold; flower, pink rose.

Sophomore class—Motto, Win or bust; colors, purple and gold; flower, white rose.

Freshmen—Colors (censored); flower, violet.

COLORED VEILINGS ARE WORN

Brilliant Toned Face Coverings Draped to Make Them Look Like a Trimming.

Worn over light-colored soft felt shapes are brilliantly colored veils, draped in that loose and careless fashion that makes them a trimming as well as a veiling. This is a Paris idea, and it carries with it all of that Paris cachet that one can expect from the description. The veils are not used to cover the face; they are merely designed to drape themselves at the most becoming angle.

An established fashion for Paris is the long skirt, about six inches off the ground. And this length is sanctioned by French shops, in the majority of which they are making the skirts of all the suits and dresses just about that length.

The waistline must be "bloused" and at some distance below the normal waistline in order to be consistent with the very latest of fashion's decrees. But this gives a nice and a novel variety to the dresses of the new season, without interfering in the least with the straightness of the silhouette.

The new furs are short, and the new colors are taupe and gray, in many shades and tones. They give a new look to garments and trimmings of fur, and they carry with them a new inspiration for cold weather dressing.

Wall Paper.

If your wall paper has cracked you can mend it successfully by cutting the pattern from that which was left over and fitting it over the crack and pasting it firmly.

W. P. Foren has sued J. P. Hunter for $2315 wages claimed to be due.

Frosh Ride the Goat

We gazed at something—
'Twas green as grass—
And found we were looking
At the freshmen class

Saturday night the freshmen rode the goat. Special note should be made of the undoubtable courage of Truman Robnett, Freddie Heinrich and Clarence Cornelius. Many of the freshmen girls also enjoyed, with smiling faces, the trying ordeals. The goat was unusually wild, on account of having run at large in the hills above Crawfordville, but the freshmen were a game class and finally subdued it.

Among the chief features of the entertainment was a parade by the frosh in which all took part. Truman Robnett performed a prophetic act in which he wheeled Grace Pehrson around in a baby carriage. All the others enacted baby roles also.

There was a freshmen class, conducted by Harold Miller, which was very amusing. As in the good old days, the frosh boys went barefooted, while the girls wore their hair in numerous braids.

The party was under the supervision of the sophomore class, and at the close of the initiation refreshments were served.

Tyranny of Custom.

Stanley, the African explorer, said: "No luxury of civilization can be equal to the relief from the tyranny of custom. The heart of Africa is infinitely preferable to the heart of the world's largest city. If the way were easier, billions would fly to it."

Beautiful Gingham

At Prices Very Interesting

Everyone is buying gingham, the all-year fabric, more than ever now that it has established itself among genteel materials. So handsome are the new patterns in gingham that they are instinctively recognized as appropriate for wear on dress occasions, yet they are again surprisingly inexpensive. Cool, washable dress gingham are here in abundance to celebrate National Gingham Week.
