 Paul Reviews His Ministry.

I. Paul's Visit to Greece and Mile- tus (20:1-6).

Two incidents marked this trip:
 1. The Jews laid wait for him (vv. 1-5). This plot obliged him to retrace his steps through Macedonia instead of a more rapid sea voyage.

2. Fellowshiping the Disciples at Troas (vv. 6-16). He met with them around the table of the Lord and spoke words of encouragement. While preaching here, Eutychus, in a deep sleep, fell from a window and was killed. Paul restored his life, thus giving to the disciples a sign of divine power which was greatly needed at that time.

II. Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders (20:17-38).

His object in this address is to impress upon them their responsibility.

1. Review of his three years' ministry (vv. 18-21). (1) The spirit of ministry (v. 19). He was humble, tender and faithful in spite of the many trials which befell him. (2) The faithfulness of his ministry (vv. 20, 21). He made known unto them everything which was of profit, taught them both in public and in private. He neglected no class, Jews or Greeks.
 He was impartial in all his ministry.

(3) The theme of his ministry (v. 21).
 Repentance and faith. This is the preeminent note in the message of true ministers today.

2. The present state of things (vv.
 22-27). Having reviewed his ministry, he now points out the present state of things. (1) His immediate purpose was to go to Jerusalem (v. 22).
 (2) Bonds and afflictions were lying across his path (v. 23). Despite these he went forward with undaunted courage. He knew that God was leading him, so he went forward. (3) His fixed purpose (v. 24). He was determined to complete his ministry at whatever cost—even giving up his life.
 (4) His consciousness of obligation discharged (vv. 25-27). Knowing that they should see his face no more, he called them to record that he had not shunned to declare the whole counsel of God; therefore was free from the blood of all men.

3. His charge to the elders (vv. 28-35). (1) The ground of (v. 28). The flock for which they must care was purchased by the precious blood of Jesus, and they had received their commission from the Lord. (2) The impending evils (vv. 29, 30). False teachers would arise from their own number. Grievous wolves would devour the flock. The most deadly foes of the church are those ministers and Sunday school teachers who are unfaithful to their trust. (3) Incentives to faithfulness (vv. 31-35). His own example of watching night and day for three years is held up before them; his unselfish service, laboring with his own hands night and day that he might be free from suspicion of selfishness.

III. Paul Tarrying Seven Days at Tyre (21:1-6).

His point of destination was Jerusalem. He was pressing onward thither with all speed, but on account of the unloading of the ship he was obliged to wait at Tyre for seven days. During this delay he searched out the disciples who lived in that city. While here certain disciples said that Paul should not go to Jerusalem. The information which these disciples received by the Spirit was doubtless the same as that given to Agabus (vv. 10, 11). Agabus told exactly what the Spirit said, which sets right what the Tyrian disciples seemed to say.
 The same Spirit which showed to these disciples that suffering awaited Paul, revealed unto him the same suffering and sent him forward into it.

IV. Paul Tarrying in Philip's House (vv. 7-14).

Resuming their journey, they paused briefly at Ptolemais to greet the brethren there, after which they went to Caesarea. Here they took up their abode with Philip, who had so successfully wrought in the early days of the church.

V. Paul at Jerusalem (vv. 15-17).

The brethren at Jerusalem gladly received them. Paul's lodging place was with an old disciple.

Changed in Transit.

A teacher asked her pupils to suggest a song to be sung by the class and a patriotic little fellow in the rear called for "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." His voice was so weak that the teacher could not understand and a youngster near him sang out: "He wants 'His Country 'Tis of Him!"— trying to get a few pheasants.

 of town the last of the week, while Halsey has a better public library than many larger towns, but it is reached by a long flight of stairs from the street. How much better if a good location on the ground floor could be had! There are many elderly people in this city who can still see to read but find stair-climbing laborious.

T. B. Smith and wife came over today from Brownsville and Craw-fordville, where they have been Shedd. They are former residents of Crawfordville, having gone there in 1876.

 Billy were arrivals today on the way to Brownsville. Mrs. Dedman is the daughter of W. C. Cowalnuts, grown on the W. W. Poland trees, was brought to our ued their journey to Yakima valley and Walla Walla, Wash., Athens, Pendleton and Paisley, Oregon, where they visited Mr. Mitzner's parents and sisters. From there they crossed into California and returned home by way of Ashland and the Pacific highway.

GOBS APPLAUD BULL

American Sailors Witness Exhi- bition of Portugal's Sport.

More a Display of Good Horsemanship and Skillful Feints Than Cruel Sport as in Spain.

Lisbon.—Sailors of the American warships who were entertained in this city when the American squadron visited Portugal the other day, saw a Portuguese bullfight and lustily cheered for one of the bulls.

A Portuguese bullfight is more a display of splendid horsemanship and skillful feints than a cruel sport, such as the Spanish bullfight. There is no bloodshed. The bulls are merely teased by the bullfighters and others, who pierce their hides with their tormenting darts. The horns of the bulls are covered with leather balls, so that they can do no great damage and the proof of the skill of the horseman is never to let his horse get touched by them.

After that a group of peasants wearing green-and-red caps advance into the ring and each tries to throw himself on the bull, either between his horns or on his neck, and to cling there despite the frantic attempts of the animal. If one succeeds in clinging on, the other peasants rush up and hang onto the bull until he is reduced to impotence.

The American boys cheered all this with great enthusiasm, but the real outbreak came when one bull leaped after one of his tormentors over a wooden partition and into a group of bullfighters, scattering them right and left.

Roars of laughter filled the enormous circus and a thundering cheer and cries of "bull, bull, bull" burst from the throats of the Americans.

The bullfighters fled in disorder while the amphitheater resounded with the laughter and cheers of the Americans.

Blessings of This Day.

Enjoy the blessings of this day, if God sends them, and the evils bear patiently, and sweetly; for this day is ours; we are dead to yesterday, and are not born tomorrow.—Jeremy Taylor.

Near Him.

We come too near Him when we search into His counsels. The sun and the fire say of themselves, Come not too near. How much more the Light which none can attain unto?—Bishop Hall.

Another One Heard From.

The Birmingham Age-Herald reports that an Alabama man has a cane to match every suit. We have a cane, too.
 —Arkansas Gazette.

Brumfield to Hang

Brumfield, the Roseburg den-ist, was last evening convicted of murder in the first degree for killing Dennis Russell and trying to pass the body off as his own so that his wife might collect the insurance on his life.

Lake Creek Farm Bureau

Friday evening the Lake creek community club held its first of a series of Farm Bureau meetings.
 A fairly good crowd attended and were particularly interested.

C. R. Evans, chairman, opened the meeting with an address setting out the objectives which he believed attainable in the locality and ending by making an appeal to the members to "hold fast."

Mr. Hill, distributor for the Moline Plow company, was the principal speaker for the evening.
 He explained the attitude of the company entirely, and easily succeeded in winning the whole audience.

It is the plan to continue these meetings with a variation of program for the entire winter and spring months.

The Study Club

An enjoyable meeting of the Women's Study club was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Laubner, when each member responded to roll-call with an interesting account of her vacation in verse.

An outline of Oregon history was read and approved for this year's work and the lesson for the next meeting was assigned to Mrs.
 Moore and Mrs. Laubner from Prof. Horner's "Oregon History." A committee was appointed to meet with the business men to plan a campaign for the lyceum course, the first number to be given Nov. 2.

Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Walton and Mrs. English were guests. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Marks.

The club meets at the home of Mrs. Marks today.

Beautiful Gingham

At Prices Very Interesting

Everyone is buying gingham, the all-year fabric, more than ever now that it has established itself among genteel materials. So handsome are the new patterns in gingham that they are instinctively recognized as appropriate for wear on dress occasions, yet they are again surprisingly inexpensive.
 Cool, washable dress gingham are here in abundance to celebrate National Gingham Week.
