

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. X

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, DEC. 15, 1921

NO. 15

Jots and Tittles

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly

Rev. C. T. Cook motored to Junction Monday morning.

Mrs. H. C. Whitlatch visited Albany Monday.

Lawrence Taylor of the U. of O. spent the week end here with his parents.

The teachers' examination in Albany, Dec. 21 to 24, will be in the community house.

Mrs. Schenk and little daughter of Sweet Home came over Monday and took the train for Portland.

The Hargburg ferry was out of commission several days last week while the cable was transferred to a new pole.

We publish some verse on the disarmament conference that is good as to sentiment but rather jerky in mechanical construction.

The Tribune says that S. F. Zysset of Scio has sold the patent on a stump burner of his invention to a Portland firm for $25,000 and a $5 royalty on every machine sold.

Mrs. Ardella Ringo, mother of our druggist, returned Tuesday to her home in Salem after a visit of two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Ringo and other relatives here.

Mrs. Clara Starr, Mrs. George Drinkard and Mrs. McMahan of Brownsville motored to Albany Monday. Mrs. Starr made a morning visit with Mrs. Wheeler.

O. E. Marsters, who is doing evangelistic work in Salem, stopped to visit his brother, E. S. Marsters, between trains Monday, on his way to Eugene to take the Coos bay train.

Mr. E. I. Harrington, who has been with her father, B. I. Carey, through an illness, returned to her home in Salem Monday, the old gentleman being well on the road to recovery.

A number of Albany college students started to Brownsville Sunday to attend the Endeavor services. Their car broke down near Halsey, so they spent the evening in this city. Rev. Mr. Moore, who was among them, delivered a sermon at the Methodist church here.

F. W. Seek of Lebanon has a patent on what is pronounced an important device in the power transmitting machinery of automobiles. He says he spent $7000 making it successful and has organized the Gearless Differential company to produce and market it.

The farm bureau is making determined war on moles and gophers in this county and is getting results.

Mrs. W. A. Ringo gave a duck dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. Ringo's mother and several old friends.

W. J. Lane and wife and Mr. R. B. Forbes of the Dunlap Drug company were over from Brownsville Sunday.

Frank Walker has sold his farm near Brownsville and the Walker family has moved into a house of J. F. Venner's in the north part of that city.

J. F. Venner of Brownsville passed his 76th birthday the other day and the editor of the Enterprise goes back and sits among the youngsters.

Of the national appropriation for irrigation $11,000,000 comes to Oregon and the farm bureau is endeavoring to get a due share of it for Linn county.

After great preparations the Halsey Ladies' Study club is having high jinks (no jinx) at the home of Mrs. C. P. Stafford as the Enterprise goes to press. A well-laden Christmas tree and an elaborate program, consisting principally of musical numbers, are among the attractions.

Ed Bowers' team won the Ash Swale hunt club contest Saturday night, with Jim Bowers' team close up. Charles Bowers won the silver hunt club medal for the highest score. These seem to be the right and left bowers of the club and one more for good measure. Charles Bowers has now won two silver medals; Cecil Harrison has won two; Ed Bowers two, and James DeWolf two.

Tuesday was the anniversary of the coldest day in Halsey. That surely was cold for this section—sixteen degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

Mrs. Pansy Morris, daughter of Frank Findle and wife, was brought home from the Portland hospital Saturday.

Mrs. William Wheeler, who was very low after a stroke of paralysis when the Enterprise went to press last week, has continued to gain strength. Yesterday she was able for the first time to sit up in bed and feed herself from a tray of food, using her remaining hand. For the present her malady makes her almost totally blind.

Next Saturday night members of the Intermediate league will have a Christmas party at the home of their superintendent, Mrs. G. W. Mornhinweg. Delicious crisp popcorn balls, tasty homemade candies and large, red, shiny apples will be the holiday refreshments. The main feature of the affair will be a large Christmas tree with presents for all.

Hans Koch, Mrs. W. P. Wahl and Mrs. George Maxwell, probably unintentionally, were born on the same day of the year, the lucky day in December. They have a custom of celebrating the anniversary of this event together, taking turns as the entertainer. This year it was Mr. Koch's turn and Tuesday they had a fine celebration and in the evening neighbors filed in and gave them an encore.

Read the advertisement on page 4 which tells how to get a Christmas present from the Enterprise. The opportunity is open only to subscribers who have paid in advance, but to anybody who has prepaid, even if only for a week ahead of the day when he sends in the new name and $1.50. The office expires on the evening of Dec. 24. The present is worth 50 cents to anybody, so if you prefer you can get the cash in exchange for it.

(Continued on page 5)

Removing Mildew.
Chloride of lime, used intelligently will remove mildew. Do not use too much. A teaspoonful to a small tub or pail full of water is plenty. Before lime is thoroughly dissolved, or better still, tie it up in a stout piece of cloth and run water onto it, pressing the cloth with a stick; then allow it to float in tub. Immerse article to be cleansed and allow to stand several hours. Remove and rinse thoroughly in several waters. Repeat if necessary, but do not increase quantity of lime, as it will eat the material.

Beyond the Pale.
It is plain that there are books which are not fit subjects for criticism, which do not rise into the field of artistic being, quite irrespective of the number of editions through which they have passed.—Jules Lemaitre.

Heads, I Win; Tails, You Lose.
"What am I doing? I'm spinning a dime. If it's heads, I'll go to the judge. If it's tails, I'll go down to the billiard hall. If the dime stands on edge, I'll stay home with you."—Atlantic Globe.

upon its voyage. It is not the end of the voyage, but its beginning.

II. Paul's Backward Glance at Life (v. 7).
This backward look is presented in three figures:

1. "I have fought a good fight." The figure here is that of a soldier. The Christian life is a warfare of difficulties, conflicts, dangers and temptations. As a soldier, the Christian must fight and overcome all these.

2. "I have finished my course." The figure is that of an athlete who sets out to win a race. The Christian life is a race to be run; we must not only begin the race, but persistently run to the end.

3. "I have kept the faith." The figure is that of a husbandman to whom had been entrusted a treasure. This treasure was the Christian faith. He was conscious of having been faithful to the trust committed. He had many temptations to give it up, but to the end maintained his fidelity to his vow to Christ.

III. Paul's Forward Look to the Future (v. 8).
This is a beautiful picture of calm confidence at the end of a period of faithful service. Though knowing that death was awaiting him, there was no dark cloud before him, because the glory of a completed task rested upon him.

1. He saw before him a life with God. Fellowship with God is a prize greatly to be desired.

2. A prize laid up—A crown of righteousness. This award will be given at the coming of the Lord to all who love His appearing.

IV. Paul's Associates (vv. 9-12).
1. Demas, the renegade (v. 10). Demas has become immortalized as one who was religious, but because of the attractions of the world he went after it. The love of the world caused him to turn his back upon principle, friendship, honor and duty.

2. Luke, the faithful (v. 11). Perhaps he was the best fitted of all to minister unto Paul. Luke was faithful whether in shipwreck, imprisonment, journeying by land and sea.

3. Mark, the restored runaway (v. 13). Mark had gone back, but he was restored. Though we have failed, we can redeem ourselves and become trustworthy.

V. Personal Matters (vv. 13-18).
1. Bring the cloak, books and parchments (v. 13). In the jail the cloak would be needed for his comfort. The books and parchments would be needed for his study and writing.

2. Alexander, the coppersmith (vv. 14, 15). We have no way of determining when this deed was committed. It was given as a warning to Timothy.

3. Defended by the Lord though forsaken by men (vv. 16-18). Paul in his last trying hours was much like his Lord—left alone. He says, "All men forsook me." It was said of Christ, "They all forsook Him and fled." Paul manifests a like spirit, "I pray God that it might not be laid to their charge." Christ said, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." Though it was wrong for them to leave Him alone, He not only forgave them, but prayed that the Lord might forgive them. Paul had so completely lived for Christ, and his fellowship with Him was so complete, that he was alone in this dreadful hour.

Halsey Christian Church

Church Announcements

Methodist:
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Junior League, 8.
Intermediate League, 6:30.
Epworth League, 6:30.
Preaching, 7:30.
Prayer meeting, Thursday, 8.
Rev. C. T. Cook, Pastor.

Christian:
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Endeavor, 6:30.
Preaching, 7:30.
Lester Jones, Minister.

Pine Grove Church:
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11, by Bro. Eggy.
Prayer-meeting, 7.
Bible Study, Wednesday, 7.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 18

PAUL'S LAST WORDS.

LESSON TEXT—II Tim. 4:6-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.—II Tim. 4:7.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Rom. 8:27-39; I Cor. 15:57; Rev. 3:21.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Last Words From Paul.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Close of a Victorious Life.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul's Final Triumph.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons for Today From the Life of Paul.

1. Paul's View of Death (v. 6).

Set forth in two metaphors:
1. An offering (v. 6). "I am ready to be offered." This specifically meant a drink offering—a libation. The shedding of his blood was to be an offering poured out upon the sacred altar as an act of worship. Death can only be an offering to God when the life has been wholly yielded to the doing of God's will. This was preeminently true of Paul, for he could say, "For to me to live is Christ" (Phil. 1:21).

2. A Departure (v. 6). "The time of my departure is at hand." The same idea is expressed in Philippians 1:23. "Departure" is a nautical term which signifies the loosening of a ship from its moorings, in order to enter

High School Notes

Halsey Shows Junction City How to Play Basketball—School Clubs Organized

The Junction City basketball teams arrived on the 4:34 train Saturday afternoon, and were conducted to the hall by a number of the students.

The girls' teams played first, and the ball was Halsey's from the beginning. Special note should be taken of the excellent playing of some of the girls. Pearl Pehrson proved herself star player of the team by her ability to make baskets. Altho Junction City did not have the ball very often, the Halsey guards, Anna Heinrich and Louise Robnett, were extremely skillful in retrieving it. The score stands at 25 to 2, in favor of Halsey. The last half of the girls' game was not played, as one of the Junction City girls became sick and they did not bring any substitutes.

The lineup was:
Junction City, Madsen, F.; Heron, F.; Peterson, C.; Strome, S. C.; Bodtger, G.; Buchanan, G.
Halsey, Pehrson, F.; Bass, F.; Cook, C.; Koontz, S. C.; Heinrich, I.; Robnett, G.

The boys' teams were evenly matched and a fierce struggle was witnessed by the spectators. The star player on the boys' team was Harold Muller, who displayed some hard playing. Altho the game was unusually rough, no one was hurt. The score at the end of the first half was 8 to 5. Final score, 17 to 13, both in Halsey's favor.

The lineup was:
Junction City, Ayers, F.; Keck, J. Young, C.; Lee, G.; Ayers, G.
Halsey, Cross, F.; Robertson, F.; McKern, C.; Clark, G.; Muller, G.

School spirit was in great evidence and the rooters showed pep and enthusiasm.
Door receipts amounted to $38.90. We are proud of our hoop-shooters and wish them success in the next games, which will be played with Scio at that city Friday night and with Albany college here Saturday night.

The Junction City teams were entertained at the schoolhouse while waiting for their train. At 10:35 steamed in there was an exchange of cheers and they departed none the worse for their defeat. We noticed that one young man almost missed the train.

Debates—

The English class has been studying debating recently and a number of debates have taken place. They will continue until the Christmas holidays. Results have been as follows:

First debate: Affirmative, Alberta Koontz; negative, Louise Robnett. Negative won.

Second debate: Affirmative, Grace Kirk; negative, Alta Hayes. Affirmative won.

Third debate: Affirmative, Geraldine Cook; negative, Janet Boggs. Negative won.

Fourth debate: Affirmative, Anna Heinrich; negative, Pearl Pehrson. Affirmative won.

After the series of debates has been completed a school debating team will be chosen.

Clubs—

Fred Williamson, Linn county club leader, visited schools Monday afternoon and as a result a number of clubs were organized. They will begin their work as soon as possible. Clubs and officers are as follows:

Sewing club of fifteen members: President, Louise Robnett; vice-president, Grace Kirk; secretary, Frost Bass.

Cooking club of thirteen members: Leader, Ruby Schroll; president, Janet Boggs; vice-president, Anna Heinrich; secretary, Alta Hayes.

Homemaking club: Leader, Mrs. T. I. Marks; president, Cecil Mayberry; vice-president, Lillian Reynolds; secretary, Agnes Hayes; treasurer, Georgina Clark.

Camp-cookery project, fourteen members: Leader, Charles Mornhinweg; president, Ercel Sneed; vice-president, Wayne Robertson; secretary and treasurer, Truman Robnett.

Whatnots—

Last week Dr. Benson of Portland addressed the high school in behalf of the Pacific Coast Rescue home. As a result tag day will be held by the pupils some time soon. Your help is solicited.

Irene Quimby spoke to the high school last week on her trip to Portland with the boys' and girls' club, to the livestock exposition. She explained how they judged livestock, and described the exposition grounds. Her talk was of great interest to the students.

Fred Williamson, while addressing the assembly Monday concerning the clubs, announced that Irene Quimby had won another prize, consisting of fifteen dollars. This is the "nth" prize she has won this season. Keep it up, Irene, We're proud of you.

The student who wrote up the inter-class games last week failed to give an account of the sophomore-fresh meleé. It was a lively game, in which Clarence Cornelius and Truman Robnett were "stars of the first magnitude" in the fresh team, and Harold Muller, Guy Merriam and Collin Carver were leading hoopmen of the sophs. The final score was 42 to 7 in favor of the sophomores.

J. B. School Reporter.

Brownsville Briefs

B. W. Loucks & Sons are putting down a concrete walk fronting the R. H. Robertson and William Davidson residence properties on the south side.

J. C. Finnell was over from Albany the latter part of the week looking after business matters and greeting friends.

Mrs. Mary Kirk, Kirk ave., returned a few days ago from a Portland hospital where she underwent a successful operation for a serious neck trouble.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder, the former twice pastor of the Presbyterian church of Brownsville, were here the latter part of the week from Corvallis exchanging greetings with their many friends.

The Calantha club will present "A Perplexing Situation," a two-act comedy, Friday evening at the K. of P. hall, the proceeds to go to the community building.

The Methodist singers are preparing a fine cantata for Christmas.

A. W. Leverich of Albany and Mrs. Mary Welch of Brownsville were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John McKorcher, at Crawfordville, Thursday, Rev. J. E. Snyder of Corvallis performing the ceremony.

R. H. Robertson was quite ill with the grip several days.

While Misses Ruth and Grace Beattie were in Albany on a racing expedition Saturday the latter was unfortunate in losing her pocketbook, probably the work of a professional purse-lifter.

Mrs. W. D. Washburn left Saturday for Florida to spend the winter with her father.

W. T. Templeton has opened the Economy meat market and is prepared to ease the community with first-class meat.

A delegation of Christian Endeavor young people was over from Albany Sunday evening and had charge of the service at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Saiz, the Linn county delegate to the world's Christian Endeavor convention, held in New York City in July, gave a very complete and interesting report of that great meeting. The young people were unfortunate in having an auto breakdown between Sheff and Halsey, which detained them a short time.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church, under the direction of State Evangelist M. G. Bentley, are increasing in interest. A number have professed conviction and some old-time letters have been brought to light.

Heroic Poem.

There is no life of a man faithfully recorded but is a heroic poem of its sort, rime or unrimed.—Carlyle.

WE HAVE EVERY THING OPTICAL
EYE STRAIN
Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS
If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US, We can Relieve You Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany. Phone

The Xmas Spirit

In this store you will find the Christmas spirit reflected in a host of pleasing gift articles for every member of the family. The toy department, particularly, will appeal to the fathers and mothers with sturdy youngsters to provide with gifts.

These Suggestions May Help You

For Mother

- Felt Bedroom Slippers
- Leather Hand Bag
- Ivory Toilet Set
- Silk Gloves
- Silverware
- Silk Parasol

For Sister

- Hummingbird Silk Hose
- Silk Lingerie
- Fountain Pen
- Stationery
- Photo Album
- Silk Blouse

For Father

- Handkerchiefs
- Hosiery
- Silk Shirt
- Wool Gloves
- Merite Jewelry

For Brother

- Neckwear
- Silk Muffler
- Sweaters
- Cap
- Arm Bands

M. V. KOONTZ CO.