

and wife of Halsey, H. Thompson of Albany, Ivan Tucker and family of St. Helens, Walter Frum of Crawfordville, Ed Cushman and Ray Frum of Brownsville.

W. A. Carey left for Salem Friday. Oakville proposes to have a community hall.

Mrs. Charles Gibson and Mrs. W. P. Wahl were Albany shoppers Friday.

W. H. Kirk, Worth and John Bass and Ed McKern were passengers to Albany Friday.

There were Christmas trees, programs and pageants at the local churches Saturday night.

The high-school team beat the alumni at basketball at the Frum warehouse Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Chance and son Glenn and grandson Harry drove to Albany Saturday.

Twenty-two relatives of Mrs. Clark gathered at home of Bert Clark and enjoyed a Christmas dinner.

George Alford and wife of Harrisburg spent Christmas with Mrs. Alford's parents, E. E. Gormly and wife.

B. P. Sebick has a claim against the county for $90 worth of Oxford Down sheep that somebody's dogs have killed.

Miss Gladys Willbanks left on the noon train Monday for Albany to spend the Christmas vacation with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lillian Howe returned to her home in Brownsville Friday, after having nursed Mrs. J. D. Pitman for some time during recent illness.

Andrew Brown was an Albany caller Friday. He was accompanied home by his wife, who had been taking teachers' examination in that city.

Frank Miller committed suicide at his home at Waterloo Monday by shooting himself, following difficulty with his wife. He left a 9-year-old daughter and the wife.

Zorah Mehmed of Constantinople shows documents to prove he was born 146 years ago. He is believed to be the oldest man on earth. He has a son aged 85 and more descendants than he can reckon without consulting records. Zorah is in robust health and can carry a load of 200 pounds.

This might be called a poultry special. It tells about some special poultry, too. See page 4. Next week we expect to have more to say about poultry. This part of the valley is a great place for good hens. The fancy breeds are not in high favor here. White Leghorns and barred rocks are the leaders in their classes. The O. A. C. has crossed these breeds and produced the Oregon, that are hard to beat as layers.

The arrest of members of a gang of robbers who have gathered a million dollars of loot in various parts of the country is reported from Los Angeles and it is said that half the plunder will be recovered. The presumed head of the gang gave his name as Herbert Wilson and was said to have been at one time pastor of a Congregational church at Brownsville. There is no Congregational church in Brownsville and no minister is known as Herbert Wilson.

There will be demonstrations of the war on moles and rodents in the schools all over the county, under direction of County Agent Heyman. In this neighborhood the dates are: Harmony, Jan. 6 at 9 a. m.; Holley, Jan. 12 at 1:35 p. m.; Plainview, Jan. 16 at 9; Brownsville, same day, 1:15; Crawfordville, 12th, 9; Harrisburg, same day, 1:15; Charity, 18th, 9; Halsey, same day, 1:15; Peoria, 23d, 1:15; Lake Creek, 24th, 9; Shedd, same day, 1:15.

Miss Lela Cushman, daughter of the late B. M. Cushman and wife of Brownsville, was married in Portland Tuesday to E. Spellman.

Mrs. J. A. Ackerman of Brownsville is suffering from a severe cold.

Karl Bramwell has been suffering severely with stomach trouble the past week. He is on the mend, however.

Mrs. Adda Ringo spent Christmas with her parents, R. H. Kennedy and wife, at Cottage Grove, coming home Tuesday.

Pete Beebe was acquitted of the murder of the Painters on the ground of insanity. The Enterprise believes he was innocent of the crime.

Rev. S. A. Danford, district superintendent, will be at the M. E. church Sunday morning and preach and also have a conference with the church.

Mrs. Cecil Harrison died Monday at her home near Brownsville of pneumonia, aged 34. She left her husband and three children, the eldest 12 years old.

Mrs. Portia Stewart, the purchaser of Clark's confectionery, has moved over from Lebanon and will occupy the Robbett house west of the blacksmith shop.

Mrs. James West, mother of Mrs. Jake Ackerman of Brownsville, who has been away on an extended visiting trip, was in Halsey Wednesday on her way home.

Miss Faith Adams of Brownsville, home from her school at Reedport for the holidays, called at the Wheeler home yesterday. She was bound for Portland.

Rural Carrier Robertson's horse died a few days ago while out on route 1—died in harness, it might be said. Mr. Robertson is trying out L. A. McKern's white horse with a view to buying it for the mail service.

The third of the series of entertainments given by the W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church to the young people will be held in the church Saturday evening. A watch-night party will close after the new year comes on.

The booster class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Mornhinweg last Thursday evening. After the regular business was disposed of everyone enjoyed a Christmas tree. Games were played and a general good time was enjoyed.

The Christmas entertainment at the M. E. Church last Saturday evening was very well rendered and taught a splendid lesson in the tableaux and songs and scripture readings, with the children taking part at intervals. The usual sacks of candy, nuts and oranges were given at the close of the exercises.

H. C. Davis brot into this office this morning a copy of the Halsey Bugle, dated July 6, 1883. It is a business card says the Bugle is "blown monthly by A. L. Miller, Halsey, Oregon." Among the advertisers are Charles Borten, boot and shoe maker; W. G. Hathway, drug, stationery, paints and oils; Lams & Fields, cattle buyers; J. W. Rector, groceries; shaving, hair-cutting, etc., at the Bugle office; R. M. Robertson, grain buying and storage and implement dealer; Black, Porter & Co., general merchandise; W. E. Gibbens, Halsey house; J. F. Starr, hardware, wooden and tin ware; A. Laubner, Villard house; C. S. Gourley, watchmaker and jeweler; G. W. Cooper, dentist; F. S. Fields, insurance, and H. B. Keniston, who sells general groceries and buys butter but wants none that is not fit for table use and who weighs short rolls and sells "sugar by the keg for cash only." The paper has four pages of three columns each. It quotes as market prices, butter, 80c; flour $3 a hundred; side bacon, 12 1/2 to 14c; shoulders, 12 1/2; hams, 15c.

Paul Ashton and family, living near Albany, were guests at the Bass home this week.

RIALTO FRIDAY

Wallace Reid

"Too Much Speed"
All the thrills and pep you need
Many a reckless, daring deed
Autos smash, but still he'll lead
See a speed maniac succeed
In a state-wide race

Don't fail to go Friday night

Mrs. Hurley Morgan of Oakville suffered a broken arm one day last week.

The Harmony Christmas entertainment was a great success and the house was packed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Sprenger's sons and daughters, T. J. Sprenger and son, Mrs. Mable Ruitter and two children; Mrs. Arzella Hoflich and children; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sprenger, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Commons and children spent Christmas day and Monday with their parents.—Shedd Cor. Democrat.

Mrs. M. M. Huston's daughter, Mrs. J. W. Dauley of Portland, has been visiting here. The two went to Eugene today.

Misses Elsie, Lillian and Bessie Reynolds went to Harrisburg today to visit friends.

James Gilson came in on today's train from the north and took a jitney for Crawfordville to visit at the E. W. Ripley home.

L. W. Muller and wife, who have been here from the east visiting at S. C. Hunter's at Brownsville, took train today for Corvallis. From there they go to Los Angeles. Rev. A. M. McClain brought them over in his car and Mrs. Hunter came along to see them off.

Mrs. Henry Zimmerman, who has been on the sick list for some time, is considerably improved.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Stalnaker returned Tuesday to their home in Corvallis after spending Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Patton.

There is to be a Bible conference, led by Rev. W. P. White, D. D., at Brownsville January 1 to 4 at the Baptist church and Jan. 5 to 8 at the Presbyterian church. Hours, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Miller of Harrisburg visited at the C. E. Miller home this week.

T. W. Abraham of Shedd, while cutting wood yesterday, accidentally cut his foot, necessitating the taking of three stitches in dressing the wound.

Death of Mrs. Allen
Mrs. E. C. Allen died Christmas day, after paralysis which had rendered her almost helpless for about eight years.

Emma C. Gulliford was born in Manard county Ill., July 15, 1844. With her parents she crossed the plains 1852, the family settling in Linn county, Oregon. She was married May 28, 1858, to William Allen. Mr. Allen died in 1905.

There were four children born to the union. Mrs. Ara Miller of Yakama, Wash., Mrs. Lena Bere of Halsey, B. F. Allen of Oregon City and W. A. Allen of Halsey, one brother, J. A. Gulliford of Dufer, Or., and one sister, Mrs. Mollie Butler of Los Angeles, survive her.

From early girlhood she was a Christian and joined the Methodist Episcopal church, holding her membership in the Halsey church.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church Wednesday at 2 p. m., Pastor Rev. C. T. Cook having charge of the services. She has gone to her long rest which she desired to come.

Tables Made of Paper.
Tables, chairs and other articles of furniture are now made from compressed paper so colored and polished as to give the appearance of the finest woods.

Helium Atoms From Radium.
A gram of radium continuously sends off helium atoms, known as "alpha particles," at the rate of 145,000 billion a second, traveling at a speed of 12,000 miles a second.

FOR TALE

Shepherd Collie Pups

CARL SEEFELD

LOST MONTH IN WOODS

Camp Cook Staggers Back a Living Skeleton.

Wanders About in Bush After Being Assaulted by His Boss, Living on Roots and Raw Flesh of Part-ridges—Attacked by Bear.

Sudbury, Ont.—Assaulted by the cook at Chew Brothers' lumber camp, near Collins' Inlet, and left in the woods for dead, Edward Kelly, cook in the camp, wandered about in the bush for 29 days, was attacked by a bear and staggered back into camp a living "skeleton," after nearly a month had elapsed from the time he left it.

Fred McCann, the cook, was sentenced to two years less one day in Burwash by Magistrate Major at Little Current, after being arrested in Sudbury and brought back for trial.

Kelly alleged that McCann had knocked him unconscious some distance from the camp and he then decided to leave the place. For days he wandered about in the bush, living on roots and the raw flesh of a part-ridge, which he knocked over with a stone.

During his wandering Kelly reached the shores of Georgian bay and in the distance he saw a lighthouse. He took off his shirt and waved to it, but was not seen and there was no way of getting out to the lighthouse. He turned back into the woods, resolving to climb the mountains in an effort to find a way out to civilization.

On one occasion, while lying on an improvised bed of boughs, he was awakened by a rustling in the bush beside him and when he moved, received a blow from the paw of a bear, which ripped up his knee, and as he rolled frantically over so as to get out of the way he received another blow which gashed his leg. He rolled down the side of the mountain for several hundred yards and managed to escape the bear. On several other occasions he saw bears, but kept a safe distance.

Finally Kelly stumbled into a clearing in the woods where a number of men were working. They were men from the camp and they brought him back with them. He weighed 124 pounds, whereas when in good health he weighed 180.

McCann had disappeared from the camp the third day after Kelly's disappearance. He was arrested at Sudbury. Kelly will recover, his strong constitution having stood him in good stead. He is a veteran of the Imperial army.

MAKES BIKE SUPPORT HIM

J. E. Anderson of Los Angeles, with a family to support, was out of work. All he owned was a bicycle, so he decided to make the wheel support him and the family. He transformed the bicycle into a sharpening machine and said, "I am now in business for myself." Each morning he rides the bicycle downtown and keeps busy the entire day. He is now making more money than he ever did in his former work of wood turning.

Close Another Women's Jail.
Carlisle, Eng.—In consequence of a decrease in the number of women convicts, the women's prison here is being closed. Recent years have seen a gradual closing down of prisons for women in this country and there are now only 25 left of the 100 which were in existence several years ago.

Women prisoners have decreased from 3,100 in 1914 to 1,300 in October, 1920.

Advice.
Don't try to sail on the sea of matrimony until you have raised the wind. —Boston Transcript.

HALSEY RAILROAD TIME

North		South
No. 18, 12:04 p. m.	No. 23, 11:31 a. m.	No. 24, 4:34 p. m.	No. 15, 12:24 p. m.
14, 5:27 p. m.	17, 5:49 p. m.

SUNDAY MAIL HOURS

The delivery window of the Halsey postoffice is open Sundays from 9:15 to 9:45 a. m. and 12:20 to 12:35 and 5:15 to 5:30 p. m.

PAID-FOR PARAGRAPHS

Admittance Here 5 Cents a Line

Plenty of pep at the Rialto tomorrow night. See it.

Chicken dinner every Sunday at Hotel Brownsville. 53 cents.

In "Too Much Speed" at the Rialto tomorrow night Wallace Reid will show you how a speed maniac can burn up the road with an automobile.

For rent or for sale—Houses and farms in vicinity of Halsey. W. J. Ribelin.

You'll thrill at the automobile smashups if you go to the Rialto tomorrow night.

Old papers, 5c a bundle at the Enterprise office.

Dr. E. W. Barnum, dentist, at Hotel Halsey every Tuesday and Friday.

Artesian Water Always Warm. Water flowing from deep artesian wells is always warm, on account of the internal heat of the earth.

Al Jennings, former train robber, says that the so-called "successful" criminal is a myth, that the glamor of the business of outlawry is false, that its glitter is but tinsel and sham, and that some day every criminal is caught.

TO SAVE HOME OF MARY TODD

Old Lexington House Where Lincoln Courted Her is to Be Memorial.

$20,000 FUND IS NECESSARY

Building, Now a Confectionery Store, is Admirably Preserved—House in Which Mrs. Lincoln Was Born, Destroyed.

Lexington, Ky.—The home of Mary Todd Lincoln, where she lived from early childhood until her marriage to Abraham Lincoln, will be purchased as a memorial to her and a museum for the preservation of Lincoln furniture, manuscripts and other relics owned in Lexington.

The old Todd home at 574 West Main street, once a saloon and now a soft drink stand and boarding house for railroad employees, is on the market for the first time in many years. The site is being sought for business purposes by persons who wish to tear down the home. The owner is T. N. Arthur, proprietor of the confectionery.

Well Preserved. The building is in a splendid state of preservation and the quaintness of the interior has not been destroyed by several partitions, easily removed. The historic rooms where Mary Todd spent her happy girlhood, where she received Mr. Lincoln, and where they visited after their marriage have not been changed.

While the Lincoln farm at Hodgeville and the cabin in which he was born have been acquired and beautified for the nation at the cost of a million dollars, the part which Mrs. Lincoln had in preserving the nation has not been recognized. The house in which she was born has been destroyed, only part of the old foundation remaining as the basis for another home at 501 West Short street, Lexington.

Option Obtained. An option has been obtained on the property and civic and historical clubs have become interested. The property can be bought for $14,000 and it is thought that $5,000 or $7,000 would be needed to restore it.

June 18, 1858, Abraham Lincoln, his wife, Mary Todd Lincoln, and others conveyed the property to Benjamin F. Edge to settle the estate of Robert S. Todd, deceased, and the deed of record is in the Fayette county courthouse.

Plans for the ceremonies attending the dedication, if the home is purchased, would include an invitation to Robert Lincoln, son of the martyred President, and Mrs. Ben Fardin Helm, a resident of Fayette county, who is a sister of Mrs. Lincoln.

There Are Two Kinds of Sweets

the kind you can be sure contains the finest quality of ingredients and the doubtful kind. Cast doubt aside and deal at Clark's. If anyone ever tried to use anything but pure, fresh fruits and flavors in the spotless candy kitchen where our confections are made there'd be such a commotion it would be heard all over town.

CLARK'S CONFECTIONERY.