Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly Harmony grange is making an effort to get new life.

Jake Chambers and wife of Harmony have a baby boy.

The Stanwood sawmill near Brownsville is running again.

Crawfordsville Woodmen are giving dances to raise funds to build a hall.

The Crabtree Community association, with assets of $1500, has filed articles of incorporation.

The local members of the Harrisburg branch of the disorganized state dairymen's league propose to organize at Harrisburg and incorporate.

The Halsey Boy Scouts and the Halsey seventh and eighth grade basketball teams went over to Shedd Thursday night and were beaten by two Shedd teams.

The county fair board meets tomorrow afternoon at Albany to elect officers and receive the report of the finances of the year. Last year our fair was pronounced the best in the valley.

Ed Bowers was elected president of the Ash Swale Hunt club Saturday. W. W. Poland secretary and Dave Payne treasurer. There was a big feed and a fine program, with music by the Shedd orchestra.

Hereafter varmint bounties must be applied for by the hunter or trapper in person at the county seat, with two freeholders as witnesses. This will knock most of the profit out of the game. No pun intended.

Harrisburg gets a new boost as a home of early lambs with nearly every issue of a newspaper in the county. Halsey has a finer, lambier, rammier and hammier lambs than Harrisburg but does not do much blowing.

Mrs. G. Mitzner went to Albany Monday.

W. P. Wahl left Monday on a business trip to Missouri.

Wayne Robertson went to Eugene for the week end.

Miss Alberta Boyer of Leona arrived Tuesday for a visit at J. T. Curry's.

W. C. McHugh came over from Brownsville Tuesday and took train for Albany.

There will be a farm bureau drive for membership in this county from April 3 to April 8.

J. G. Anderson and family came from Brownsville Tuesday and the train for a visit at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Daniel Bellamy left for her home at St. Johns Tuesday, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Forster.

Nate Smith of Canby, who has been visiting at Clate Smith's, left for Portland and home Tuesday. Clate accompanied him.

D. H. Pierce and family of Albany, Miss Scile Shepherd and E. H. Settle of Eugene spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Stewart of Pine Grove.

Rev. J. D. Crane of the Toledo Methodist church visited the H. L. Straley home over Monday night, going on to the conference at Eugene next day.

V. V. McAvoy, employed at the Stanwood mill near Brownsville, went to Eugene Saturday to consult an eye specialist.

The Boosters' class of the Methodist church enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. G. W. Morrheweg, given by the losers of the recent contest. There are 19 members of the class. The rooms were artistically decorated in blue and white, the Booster colors. Fruit salad, cake and cocoa were served. A good time was reported.

The home-making club under the leadership of Mrs. Marks met at the home Georgina Clark Friday. The officers are: President, Cecile Mayberry; vice-president, Lillian Reynolds; secretary, Agnes Hayes; treasurer, Georgina Clark. The class has adopted the name: "The Industrious Six." Class motto, "Always up and doing."

LESSON FOR JANUARY 22

ELIJAH'S FLIGHT AND RETURN.

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 19:1-21. GOLDEN TEXT—I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.—Ps. 40:1. REFERENCE MATERIAL—Ezek. 2:1-3; Acts 16:30-31; 13:11. PRIMARY TOPIC—God Sends an Angel to Help Elijah. JUNIOR TOPIC—God Strengthens Elijah. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jehovah's Champion Encouraged. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Finding and Finishing Our Task.

This lesson story proves Elijah to have been a man of like passions as we are (Jas. 5:17).

1. Elijah's Flight (vv. 1-14). Upon Ahab's return from the excitement on Mount Carmel, he told his wife all that Elijah had done—that even all her prophets had been beaten to pieces by the sword. This so enraged her that she sent a message of death to Elijah, who seems to have been waiting at the gate (v. 1, 2). This was clearly a bluff on Jezebel's part. Though Elijah had courageously stood before the king and the priests of Baal, he now covered before this woman and fled for his life. He seems to have failed at his strongest point.

1. Elijah under the juniper tree (vv. 3-7). The juniper tree was a shrub of the desert which afforded shelter and protection to travelers from the burning sun by day and the cold wind by night. (1) His request (v. 4). This was that he might die. This was, no doubt, a foolish thing for him to say, but let us be as considerate toward him as was God. The discouragement, and even despondency, of Elijah was due to the nervous strain of about four years of unusual service for God, which culminated on Mount Carmel. Such nervous reaction is to be expected. (2) God's tender treatment (vv. 5-7). (a) He gave him sleep (v. 5). "He giveth His beloved sleep" (Psa. 127:2). (b) He sent an angel to cook Elijah's meal (vv. 6, 7). The angel of the Lord is usually understood to be the second member of the Holy Trinity. If this be correct, then we see Jehovah-Jesus preparing food for His servant Elijah, as He afterward did for His discouraged disciples by Galilee (John 21:19). God again gave him sleep and at the proper time again gave him food. Though Elijah wanted to die God had something better for him, for in a later day He met him with the "chariot of the Lord" and took him to heaven untouched by death.

2. Elijah at Horeb (vv. 8-14). (1) God's interview with Elijah in the cave (vv. 9, 10). (a) God's question (v. 9). "What doest thou here, Elijah?" This was a stinging rebuke, though most kindly given. It implied that His appointed messenger was now far away from the field of duty. Elijah was not where God wanted him, but God sought him where he was. How blessed to know that "A God forsaking saint is not a God-forsaken saint!" (b) Elijah's answer (v. 10). Elijah tried to vindicate himself by asserting his jealous loyalty to God—that in spite of all this the people had not only rejected his message and dishonored God, but had sought to destroy him. (2) God's interview with Elijah on the Mount (vv. 11-14). While standing before the Lord on the mount, God caused a mighty demonstration of wind, earthquake and fire to pass before him to show unto him the nature of the work which he had been doing for God, and to show him what was lacking in his work for the fullest attainment of success. Elijah had about him much of the whirlwind, earthquake and fire His work had been terrifying and alarming, but it lacked in gentleness and love.

High School Notes
Basket Social: Next Saturday evening a basket social will be held at the schoolhouse after the basketball game which will take place at the warehouse. The baskets will be auctioned at the warehouse.
Basketball: Friday evening the boys' basketball team gave the Shedd high school team a polishing. Halsey won, 16 to 4. The game was fast thruout. Kenneth Cross and Wayne Robertson of the Halsey hoop aggregation did stellar work.
Next Saturday night the boys' team will play with Bellfountain on the home floor.
The Halsey and Peoria town teams will play at the same place the same night.
Clubs: The cooking club met at the home of the club leader, Mrs. J. W. Moore, last Monday. Regular meetings will be held the first Tuesday of every month, at which a social time will be enjoyed along with the regular business. All members gave favorable reports at the meeting.
Debates: The first team had a clash in which the resulting score was 12 to 9 in favor of the negative. Members of affirmative were Janet Boggs and Louise Robnett; negative, Grace Kirk and Alberta Koontz.
The second team consisted of: Affirmative, Hazel Gulliford and Delma Wahl; negative, Bessie Dykstra and Hazel Quimby. Affirmative won, 11 to 10.
Tuesday a contest was held by the English IV class to determine the best debater of the class. Grace Robinson had the affirmative and Glenn Frum the negative. The affirmative won, 19 to 10.
The debate was witnessed by all of the high school students.
Whatnots: Everyone is studying overtime for the mid-term exams. The class emblems will soon be here. The juniors are expecting a clear enough at the basket social Saturday to finish paying for their rings. J. B. Reporter

Scouts Attention! E. E. McWain, scout executive of Linn county, will visit the Halsey troop of Boy Scouts next Wednesday evening. Be prepared.

Torrid Letters Win Divorce Husband Also Testifies That When He Was Sick Wife Refused to Take Care of Him. Cincinnati, O.—A number of torrid love letters from Chicago men which Charles F. Mondary, 29, railroad clerk 554 Laurel street, this city, introduced as evidence in domestic relations court here, and which he testified were written to his wife, Mary Mondary, twenty-seven, now in Chicago, secured a divorce for him.

One letter written by the wife to Mondary said: "I find there are lots of Chicago bachelors who are openly waiting for a nice little girl for a pal and see that she is well provided for. That is just how I am sailing along now. Let me know how you are getting along. As always, Mary." Mondary testified that his wife would not mend his clothes or cook his meals when they lived together in Chicago and when he was sick in 1917 she would not take care of him but brought him home to his wealthy parents and left him.

Burning Pigeons Fall As Rockets Into River St. Paul, Minn.—When an employe of a wholesale produce firm dived through a second-story window to escape flames which were consuming the building Thursday night, hundreds of pigeons followed him. As they merged from the broken window the black background of night made noticeable spots of flame on wings and tails of many of the birds. Their course was over the Mississippi river. Fanned by the motion of flying the flames spread until the birds were enveloped and many of them, like falling rockets, dropped into the stream.

Dead Sea and Mediterranean. The old question of the origin of the extreme saltiness of the Dead sea has received a new answer. It has been shown, after demonstrating that the soil and rocks can have furnished but a fraction of the quantity of salt that has collected in the Dead sea basin, that the most important source of supply of this salt is atmospheric transportation by winds from the Mediterranean. This view, it is thought, is confirmed by the fact that the ratio of chlorine to bromine in the Dead sea is the same as in the Mediterranean.—Washington Star.

Counsel and Help. They that won't be counseled, cannot be helped.—Franklin.

Brownsville Briefs

(Regular correspondence)

The old water mains on Kirk avenue have been removed and will be replaced by new and larger ones as soon as weather conditions will permit. With the new pumping outfit in operation the city is now in position to supply all who desire water.

Rev. M. S. Woodworth and Charles Howe drove to Corvallis to consult Dr. Howard in regard to the latter's health, which has not been good of late.

The Christian church people are arranging special evangelistic services to begin about Feb. 1.

Joseph Hardcastle and Ray Edwards got together on a real estate deal last week in which the former traded his Brush Creek farm to Mr. Edwards for his town property. The parties have moved on to their possessions. Mr. Edwards continues his stock buying.

The Rod and Gun club has offered the lot on which its building stood to the proposed community building committee for $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hume spent a week or ten days in Portland, the former to look after his interests in the Sellwood bank and the latter to visit among relatives and friends.

Dr. Rebhan was called over from Springfield Sunday in consultation with Dr. Waltz in the case of Will Templeton, who is seriously ill. The diagnoses of the two physicians seemed to practically agree. They could not give the patient very much hope for ultimate recovery, but hope to afford him temporary relief.

Dr. Rebhan and wife of Springfield and the former's father, John Rebhan of Brownsville, were guests Sunday at the W. C. Templeton home. Mrs. Templeton is a sister of Dr. Rebhan.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith and the latter's daughter, Miss Alice Porter, were down from Holley Sunday and attended the services at the Presbyterian church, where the ladies are members. Miss Alice expects to return Saturday for a two-weeks' stay with Brownsville friends.

The high school entertainment Friday evening drew quite a good attendance, as is usually the case when the schools put on anything.

The evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian church will continue this week and longer if the interest justifies. The attendance has been good, the other churches dismissing their services and uniting with their Presbyterian brethren. The pastor has been giving some very helpful Bible discourses.

George D. Thompson, who was killed at Twin Falls, Idaho, last week by the accidental discharge of a gun, was buried from the Baptist church, Rev. W. P. Elmore having charge of the services. Mr. Thompson lived here for some months and leaves relatives and friends who were shocked by his tragic death.

Pine Grove Pencilings

Mrs. Lawrence Eagy returned home Sunday after spending a few days in Corvallis with relatives.

Miss Sophia Heinrich returned home from Corvallis Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Egle.

J. R. Mode and Chris Egle transacted business in Corvallis Friday.

Chris Egle and wife spent Sunday at Fred Heinrich's.

Relatives from Eugene visited Sunday at the Claud Allen home.

Earl Albertson spent Sunday with Freddie Heinrich.

Christian Church Canvass

All feel much encouraged over the every-member-canvass which was put on by the church last Sunday. Three-fourths of the local budget was reached, with several members yet to be seen during the week. The missionary pledges were increased 200 per cent.

The church is planning a big get-together social for the whole church and friends for Feb. 10.

NEW FASHION IN EARRINGS

An optical illusion is presented by the double ear ornaments, resembling a telephone receiver, affected by a young East African dandy. The earlobe has been inserted in the dilated lobe of the ear and a stout ring through the pierced rim of the upper ear.
