High School Notes

Whatnots:
The trying time is over—let the band play on! The casualty list is not as long as was expected, only a few passing—out.

Hazel Gulliford, a member of our senior class, has fulfilled the graduation requirements and will soon leave her toiling classmates behind to seek book knowledge while she is enjoying herself in other ways. We will all miss her from our social functions as well as classes, in which she has taken an active part.

Basketball:
Next Saturday "the game" will be played at Frum's warehouse with Scio high. This game promises to be the most lively skirmish had in Halsey this season. Scio has lost no games this season and is trying for the championship of the valley. They have the advantage over the home quint, as they have a number of "old veterans" on their team. Come out and root for Halsey.

The girls' teams will also play. Although the Scio girls do not follow the lead taken by the boys, they deserve credit for being good players.

Class events:
The senior class received their pins and the juniors their rings. So far they have proved satisfactory.

Both the junior and senior classes are planning on giving plays. It is likely that the juniors will give theirs first, as they will begin practicing immediately after the play is decided upon.

Debates:
The junior-senior debating teams are planning on holding a public debate at the Rialto hall next Tuesday night.

A Live Farm Bureau

The Lake Creek Farm Bureau held a big meeting Jan. 20. About 100 persons enjoyed the affair, which included a basket dinner. Among those who helped make the program interesting were County

President Clarence Brown of Shedd, Rev. Mr. Hoddnett of Peoria, County Agent Heyman, Mr. Allen, club work leader from O. A. C.; Mr. Williamson, club leader for Linn county and Mr. Carlson and Mr. Hill of Shedd.

The instructions for trapping gophers and moles were very helpful. The school furnished songs and yells.

Farm Bureau officers elected Jan. 27 were: President, R. C. Evans; vice-president, Tom Ardry; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Martin Cummings; social leaders, Mrs. Clarence Williams and Mrs. Frank Logan; rodent control, Martin Cummings; Jersey calf club, Henry Brock and C. W. Gibson; crop improvement, T. J. Jackson; poultry, C. Williams; county fair exhibit, Mrs. J. W. Evans, Mrs. Tom Ardry, T. J. Jackson, Mrs. M. O. Faulk, Mrs. H. Renninger, Mrs. A. Knighton, Mrs. C. R. Evans and Frank Gibson.

DUELIST'S CHIVALRY BARED

Argentine Politician Refuses to Fire on Adversary—Reconciliation Is Then Effected.

Buenos Aires.—The popular fancy has been captivated by the details of a duel which has been fought here by Dr. Rodolfo Moreno and Senator Fernando Saguler.

Doctor Moreno is an eminent conservative politician, while Senator Saguler is a no less prominent radical politician. The dispute arose over the phraseology of a radical election poster. They met with pistols. Both fired at the signal, but neither was wounded. Doctor Moreno's seconds noted that Senator Saguler had fired at the ground, and they then insisted that Doctor Moreno should stand up unarmed to receive another shot, but Senator Saguler refused to fire upon him. A discussion resulted in a reconciliation.

Four Generations at Wedding.

Bucyrus, O.—In the presence of her brothers and sisters, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Mrs. Mary J. Lutz of Bucyrus was married to Alfred J. Hitchins, cement contractor of Dundee, Mich. The bride and bridegroom were both sixty-seven, and the bridegroom, a grandfather, was attended by his son.

The Apostles Work Wonders.

And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. —Acts 5:12-14.

Death in Life.

For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. —II Corinthians 4:11-12.

Jots and Tittles

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly

Mrs. G. W. Mornhinweg was at the F. M. Tindle home, Brownsville, Thursday.

A representative of Fleishner, Meyer & Co. was here talking men's wear to local merchants Friday.

George Drinkard and wife and Doris were visiting at the J. S. McMahan home from Brownsville the latter part of the week.

Miss Cleona Smith came home from school at Eugene for the week end.

The net profit of the poultry industry is reported to be $600,000 in Linn county.

The game warden's office received about $275,000 and its report would indicate that the bulk of the expenditures were for propagating fish. Something like 17,000,000 eggs were saved. This is about 18 cents per dozen for trout eggs. Make the license fee $12. That should bring the price of trout eggs about the equal of hen eggs. Common folks may be able to wear them as ring sets. —Harrisburg Bulletin.

Miss Donna Robertson came home from the U. of O. for the week end.

Miss Pearl Danielson left for Portland Monday, after a visit with Miss Nina Kump.

E. C. Clement of Portland, postal inspector, was giving our postoffice "the once over" Saturday.

Miss Gladys Wolgamott of Brownsville is attending the state normal school at Monmouth.

The ferry boat has put over a new one. It is a nuisance and knows it. It's determined to always be a tormenting, unruly, pestering, back-numbered, accident-provoking and death-threatening nuisance. This time it's lifting the anchor which holds the east end of the cable. That anchor is some anchor, too. It is made of concrete and measures four or five feet square, and goes down into the ground at least five feet. It was put in last fall under the direction of the Lane county court when the cable pole was changed. —Harrisburg Bulletin.

Bids will be received until Feb-

Christ (Matt. 12:39-41. The words of Jesus Christ are found:

I. Jonah's Second Commission (vv. 1, 2).

When called the first time to go to Nineveh, he found the task too great for him. For his unfaithfulness, he was chastised. He repented and God restored his commission. The Lord said to him, "Preach the preaching that I bid thee" (v. 2). God knows how he wants His work done. Happy is the missionary, minister, Sunday-school teacher, who preaches God's Word just as He gave it.

II. Jonah's Preaching (vv. 3, 4).

1. His field (v. 3). "Nineveh was an exceeding great city." Not only was the city large, but its inhabitants were noted for their cruelty.

2. His message (v. 4). "Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." This means that forty days were given by God for repentance ere the judgment would fall. God is long-suffering, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent (II Pet. 3:9). Though He is merciful, yet there is a limitation to it. He says, "Yet forty days."

III. The Repentance of Nineveh (vv. 5-10).

1. They believed God (v. 5). They believed that God was speaking to them through the prophet about their sins and impending judgment.

2. They proclaimed a fast (vv. 5-8). The king and people joined sincerely in this movement. The call was for them to turn away from their sins. Their penitence was genuine, for they not merely put on sackcloth, the visible sign of mourning, but they cried to God (v. 8).

3. They reasoned that God would repent (v. 9). Though they had no assurance that God would have mercy, yet they reasoned that the sending of a prophet and the giving of a time before the fall of doom implied that God would be merciful if they repented. They were wise in so doing. We today know that God will have mercy if we repent (Acts 3:19). What utter folly to go on in sin in the face of the assurance that God will judge.

4. God's mercy shown (v. 10). "God saw their works that they turned from their evil way." God's eye is omniscient. Wherever there is a soul who is turning from sin in penitence, He sees. No one has ever wept over sin unnoticed by God. God rejoices when a sinner repents (Luke 15:10). In the Book of Jonah we have portrayed the typical history of Israel:

"1. Jonah was called to a world mission, and so was Israel. (2) Jonah at first refused compliance with the divine purpose and plan, and so did Israel. (3) Jonah was punished by being cast into the sea, and so was Israel by being dispersed among the nations. (4) Jonah was not lost, but rather especially preserved during this part of his experience, and Israel is not being assimilated by the nations, but being kept for God. (5) Jonah, repentant and cast out by the fish, is restored to life and action again, and Israel, repentant and cast out by the nations, shall be restored to her former national position. (6) Jonah, obedient, goes upon his mission to Nineveh, and Israel obedient, shall ultimately engage in her original mission to the world. (7) Jonah is successful in that his message is acted upon to the salvation of Nineveh, so Israel shall be blessed in that she shall be used to the conversion of the whole world." —Dr. Gray's Commentary.

LESSON FOR MARCH 5

JEHOVAH'S MERCY TO A HEATHEN CITY

LESSON TEXT—Jonah 2:1-4:11.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. —Isa. 55:7.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Isa. 46:20-22; 48:7; Jonah 1:1-2:30; Mal. 1:10, 11; John 2:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Sends Jonah on an Errand.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Spared a Wicked City.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jonah's Missionary Adventure.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Missionary Teaching of the Book of Jonah.

That the book of Jonah is historical we believe for the following reasons: First, its record and use in the Scriptures. That the writers of the Bible intended the impression of its historicity is without the shadow of a doubt. The suggestion that it is a parable is absolutely gratuitous. Second, the unbroken testimony of tradition among the Jews is that it is historic. Third, the testimony of Jesus

It is now believed that little damage has been done to winter grains by the freezing weather.

The Halsey boy scouts went to Albany a couple of weeks ago and beat their Albany brethren at basket ball, 22 to 4. Monday night they went again and in turn took a drubbing, 27 to 8.

Auto licenses for 1922 are in evidence exactly in proportion to the financial condition of the various communities. We know of only one outlaw in this section. That's we. —Harrisburg Bulletin.

YANKS EXPLORE ARCTIC, TROPICS

Forsake Home Comforts Seeking Specimens and Data World Over for Scientists.

SEARCH FOR "MISSING LINK"

Stefansson Expedition Is Mapping Little-Known Boundaries of Wrangel's Island, North of Siberia—Seek "River of Doubt."

New York.—Comforts of home weigh little when cast in the balance with the interests of science, it is declared by museum experts and learned societies. Expeditions have gone forth from the United States and foreign countries into the frozen arctic, the blistering areas of Africa and to the varying climes of Asia, South America and other lands in quest of animal and vegetable specimens and data to add to the knowledge of man.

Some of the explorations have not stopped with the earth. Conan Doyle recently claimed to have talked with his dead relatives, and not a few wireless operators assert that kindred souls on Mars were trying to wireless folks here.

Hunt "Missing Link."

Among the expeditions now at work are:
The third Asiatic expedition of the American Museum of Natural History, which is to remain five years in the Orient hopeful of finding the "missing link," and of gathering a wealth of scientific data.

The Stefansson expedition which is mapping the little-known boundaries of Wrangel's island, north of Siberia where polar bears are most numerous. This party of Americans and Eskimaux expects to remain away two or three years, and Donald B. MacMillan and his comrades are exploring Baffin's land.

An expedition to hunt gorillas is trekking in Africa under the direction of Carl E. Akeley of the American Museum of Natural History. Recently he reported having bagged a family of five.

Seek "River of Doubt."
The Mulford biological expedition, now in South America, is exploring the headwaters of the Amazon, seeking Colonel Roosevelt's River of Doubt, and gathering rare plants and herbs desired by chemists and the medical profession.

The British expedition which climbed to within 6,000 feet of the world's highest summit, Mount Everest, in 1921, expects to finish the job this year. Minor expeditions are working in Peru, Ecuador, Bolivia and elsewhere, most of them being American.

Ronald Amundsen, who is quite used to cold weather, having spent many previous years in the Arctic, will set forth in the spring on a trip to the north pole.

HENS SURPASS MINE OF GOLD

South Dakota Birds Produce $30,000,000 Yearly—Homestake $6,000,000.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—Although South Dakota is classed as one of the gold-producing states of the Union—owing to the fact that the famous Homestake mine in the Black hills is one of the great gold producers of the world—it will be a surprise to many to know that the hens of South Dakota each year produce many times the value of the Black hills gold product.

The production of the Homestake mine is estimated at $6,000,000 a year. The hens on the farms of South Dakota, figures show, produce $30,000,000 a year. For every dollar of South Dakota gold the South Dakota hens lay down $5. The record made by the hens of the state is believed to make a record for states with no greater population than South Dakota. South Dakota has no great poultry farms. There are now about 9,000,000 chickens in South Dakota.

Brownsville Briefs

(Regular correspondence)

Petitions have been circulated and largely signed for an election about the middle of February on the consolidation of the Ash Swale and Powell school districts with Brownsville district No. 52-74.

There seems to be quite a little movement in real estate hereabouts.

R. H. Robinson is just getting out after threatened pneumonia. He was under the doctor's care for several days.

Cecil Harrison, living north of town, has been considerably under the weather the past week.

Miss Myrtle Myers came in from Jefferson the last of the week to look after the household effects of her aunt, the late Mrs. Laura Ambrose.

Charles Elswick was buried from his late home Friday, Rev. W. P. Elmore and the I. O. O. F. lodge officiating. Mr. Elswick was three score and ten years of age and had been a resident of Brownsville for nearly fifty years.

The DeMoss entertainers appeared at the Methodist church for the third time. Their entertainment deserved a better attendance.

Will Uber has bought the Jewell second-hand store building and stock from John Weber of Portland and is getting everything in readiness to do a good business in that line. He will handle both new and second-hand goods and expects to keep an up-to-date store. Mr. Uber was in this line of business in Brownsville several years ago and knows the needs of the trade. The upper part of the building will be rented for house-keeping purposes and the garage room for storing automobiles. We are glad to see Mr. Uber again in business in Brownsville.

There is a feeling that possibly the burning of the old city jail might have been for the purpose of giving the fire company an opportunity to try the new fire apparatus. It certainly was not a great loss.

Joe Weber, living between Halsey and Brownsville, returned home Saturday after spending a couple of months visiting relatives and friends in Illinois. He reports a fine time.

Next Sunday in connection with the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed in the Presbyterian church. At the same time the public reception and baptism of a number of new members will take place. All members are urged to be present and the public is cordially invited.

Everett Hunter was over from Corvallis Sunday to spend the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hunter.

Last week Rev. A. M. McClain preached four nights in the Presbyterian church in Crawfordville and the people were so pleased that they urged him to return for further service and he has been there each night this week. There is a move on foot to secure him for a mid-week service each week.

George Fallow, who has been working at Summit, left Monday morning for Corvallis, where he will assist in building a sawmill.

E. D. Myers, administrator of the Laura Ambrose estate, was over from Scio Monday and Tuesday selling off the household effects. Nearly everything was sold.

After a very painful illness covering many weary months Mrs. Daisy Morris passed away Friday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlin, in South Brownsville. Even a thing that medical skill could do or loving hearts suggest, was done to alleviate her suffering, but the disease could not be arrested and death only brought freedom from pain. Mrs. Morris grew up in this community and had a wide circle of friends who mourn her passing. She had long been a member of the Methodist church. The husband, father, mother, brother and sister have the sympathy of the community.

The Brownsville city jail was burned Saturday night. The fire department quenched the fire once but it broke out again.
