

Jots and Tittles

The Christian church gir's sold $7 worth of candy at the gee club concert.

Mrs. Alice Moore, superintendent in the Brownsville telephone office, was here Sunday.

Mrs. Josie Smith went to Shedd Tuesday to visit her brother, who has been ill for some time.

Won't somebody please climb up and knock off those sun spots? Astronomers tell us they are the cause of this cold weather.

Mrs. Mary Taylor of Corvallis, mother of Otis Taylor, formerly of Brownsville, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. M. B. Southern.

C. E. Egle's auction sale Monday was pronounced a success. There is money in this valley yet, notwithstanding the high taxes.

Mrs. Aldrich, mother of Mrs. Stewart of the confectionery, and Mr. Butler, a friend, came over from Albany Sunday and at Mrs. Stewart's home joined in celebrating the elder lady's birthday.

There will be about 500 Linn county pioneers whose names will go upon the pioneer monument if it is erected, as proposed, at Brownsville. Contributions are being solicited from surviving pioneers and relatives of pioneers for the monument and some have been received.

The way the auto business has been availed of as a source of revenue is illustrated by the following items in the cost of running a ten-passenger auto between Corvallis and Albany for a year: "State license $100; federal tax $20; liability $210; state filing fee $10; bond of $1000 that the stage will run on schedule time $10; insurance against fire, theft and collisions $150; chauffeur's license $2; franchise in Albany $120." And we are told that these autos have the use of the highways for nothing and an attempt was made to compel them to finance the 1925 fair.

There was a time when it might have been possible to eradicate the Canada thistle in Oregon. That was when the first of the pest-were discovered. The importance of the danger was not recognized until too late. The thistle has spread until it produces seed unnoticed in thousands of out-of-the-way places, and that seed is scattered over the state on the wings of the wind. The farm bureau is fighting the thistle, and it is well to restrict what cannot be abolished of the evil. The leader in the fight here is J. A. Stevenson; at Brownsville Harry Park and J. P. Weber are the men; in Snedd C. H. Davidson and J. B. Cornett and at Tangent Louis Grell.

"Listen, my boy, it's Max Rosen playing 'Humoresque'"

There must be some compelling reason why so many noted musicians and musical educators, in both Europe and America, have The Brunswick Phonograph in their own homes.

A. F. Goodbrod returned Tuesday from a short business trip to Salem.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Tice were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. White, in honor of Mrs. Tice's birthday.

Mrs. D. F. Dean was on the sick list Tuesday.

The Study club meets with Mrs. Henry English today and a St. Patrick's day program has been prepared.

The Plainview Pig club meets at 3 tomorrow.

Grace Hodgen of Shedd and E. D. Austin of Albany were married Monday.

On Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the Christian Church Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. W. F. White. Altho a good many were absent on account of sickness and stormy weather, there was a fair attendance and a good program was rendered, after which refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Karl Bramwell. The missionary colors were displayed, with the white and laven ter-crouses, the hostess also being dressed in a gown of white with a touch of lavender.

The average profane swearer uses his expletives from force of habit, knowing how silly it is but not realizing how much of that kind of language he is uttering. To the fellow who swears from intent, thinking that it is smart, we have nothing to say on the subject. "Ephraim is wedded to his idols. Let him alone."

The Enterprise is glad to call the attention of those of its readers who visit Albany to the advertisement of the Elite confectionery and cafeteria because it is seldom that such excellent service can be had at such low prices. It is a large, airy, roomy place, with plants and flowers and singing birds, with fine music at frequent intervals, with courteous and efficient attendants. The eatables are first-class and that they are served at the prices named gives evidence of a management in a class with that which has made Henry Ford the marvel of the world for efficiency and low cost.

A tree fell across the Mountain States company's line between here and Brownsville Monday and broke the line and stopped the juice for an hour or two.

The barn of W. Y. Shearer of Shedd burned last night. A horse and a calf perished in the flames. Mr. Shearer lost between 500 and 1000 bushels of grain, a quantity

RIALTO FRIDAY

For years he had heard the toot of the whistle as if it had been the voice of a friend. Then it took away his boy and stirred in his life a struggle that thrills every soul who knows the meaning of love. A new Hart picture with a new heart thrill.

of hay and 500 pounds of pork. There was no insurance. The farm belongs to his father, David Sealer. The county court announces that it will build eleven wooden bridges on the Pacific highway south of Albany this summer and says they are more durable than steel.

KEEP HORSES IN CONDITION
Injurious Practice to Permit Animals to Go for Weeks Without Some Attention.
Don't neglect to curry the horses these days. It is injurious to allow them to go for days and weeks without attention. A good currying once or twice a week will not only make them look better, but they will feel better and keep in better condition.

FARMERS usually have an accumulation of articles no longer needed, or succeeded by better ones, which somebody would like to obtain. An advertisement the size of this, costing 25c, might find a buyer and convert what is now only trash into good CASH

There will be an Endeavor social and rally in the Endeavor rooms at the Presbyterian church Friday evening. A delegation of young people is expected over from Harrisburg in the interest of the county Christian Endeavor convention, which is to meet there soon.
Mrs. Grace Goodall returned home last week from a visit of some weeks with her son George and family at Eugene.
Miss Keith McHargue, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hand while attending high school, was called to her home near Holley Sunday evening to assist in the care of her father's family, who are all down with the flu.
There is an intense longing among farmers for some good, old-fashioned spring weather suitable for plowing and seeding. Such weather would also probably dissipate the flu that is so prevalent.
In the case of Mrs. A. S. Hamill, who has been severely ill for some weeks, there does not seem to be much prospect of a change for the better soon.
Mrs. Eliza Robe, despite her many years and weakened condition when taken with a severe attack of the flu, is better, but the improvement is necessarily slow.
Mrs. R. P. Dougherty is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Isom, south of town, helping to entertain the new granddaughter who recently took up her abode in the Loom family.
Mrs. Wayne Stanard, who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is reported better.
Rather Saddening Thought.
When we come to think it over, only a few of us have done the best we could in what we have undertaken. And only those of us who have honestly tried to do our best, have much satisfaction with what we have done.
