

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. X

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, APR. 13, 1922

NO. 32

Hoff in the Field

To the People of Oregon: I am making the race for a second term as state treasurer on my record of a little more than three years in this office.

In the past three years I have earned and saved the state, through the application of business principles in handling of the funds entrusted to my care, approximately $258,000.00

I have successfully administered a business which has increased in volume 500 per cent since 1916, with an increase in departmental expense of 31 per cent.

By close attention to the industrial and segregated accident funds, I increased the interest yield 196 per cent with an increase in funds of 92 per cent, or $71,000 saved for 1921.

I saved the state over $5,000 by arranging with the banks to handle indorsed state warrants for 2 per cent instead of 6 per cent, when the general funds became exhausted last year.

I have increased the earnings of the inheritance tax department over $60,000 by inaugurating a policy of examining valuations and insisting on the true value being placed on all property.

I refused to sanction a proposed increase in my salary during the 1921 legislature, believing the present a time for reduction in state expense.

I have consistently opposed increases in salaries of state officials and more highly paid state employees.

These are inscribed on the records, and I invite inspection thereof.

The methods of economy and undivided attention to the state's business, which have enabled me to make this record, will continue to be my policy, and the principles embodied in my oath of office are my platform, and approval of the same by the people will be sincerely appreciated.

O. P. Hoff.

Methodist Church

Last Sunday was a most excellent day at the Methodist church, baptism and reception of members still continue. Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach an Easter sermon. In the evening an Easter program will be given by the members of the Sunday school. It will be interesting.

Fifteen or more Methodists of Halsey attended the revival meeting in the M. E. church at Browns-ville Tuesday evening. It was a fine meeting. A booster program given by the children was entertaining and helpful. Evangelist George and his wife are a real team in evangelistic work. The church was crowded.

Forty or fifty Methodists will go to Harrisburg Friday evening to attend the revival meetings in the M. E. church. Rev. E. B. Parrott and wife are the evangelists. Halsey has not forgotten the work of these two faithful people.

The King's Heralds will hold their monthly meeting Saturday at the M. E. church.

Shedd Shots

R. C. Farwell lost a valuable horse with chronic indigestion.

Mrs. T. J. Dannen and son John and Mrs. E. W. Shedd were Albany callers Saturday.

W. Y. Shearer came near losing one of his valuable cows. When Mr. Shearer's barn burned this cow was the last to leave and got her head scorched pretty badly, and to add to her troubles, poor old bossy became sick with a severe attack of bloot.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hoyer and daughter of Halsey spent Sunday at the George Dannen home.

Clapboards and cedar posts from Crawfordville are being brought to Shedd by the carload.

The Study Club

Mrs. D. Taylor was hostess for the Woman's Study club last Thursday afternoon at a very profitable meeting. The club voted to purchase the library of the late Mr. Kirkpatrick, consisting of over 400 volumes of standard literature, and three book cases. These books represent the master poets and novelists, history, biography, oratory and encyclopedia, and will be a great addition to the public library.

The club decided to give a chicken dinner on election day, funds to be expended for library. Mrs. Clark gave the lesson on Oregon's wonder places in a very interesting manner.

Mrs. Mornhinweg read a very beautiful bit of Oregon poetry. Mrs. C. H. Koontz and Mrs. L. C. Merriam were guests of the club. Mrs. Mornhinweg assisted the hostess in serving.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. James Drinkard.

League Plan Fails

The plan of the trustees of the Oregon Dairymen's Cooperative league to exchange their plant at Harrisburg for the membership's back pool interests met with complete disapproval at the meeting held Friday evening, at which time a resolution was passed authorizing the trustees to sell the factory to the best advantage.

LESSON FOR APRIL 16

EASTER LESSON

LESSON TEXT—John 20:1-31.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is risen indeed.—Luke 24:34.

PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—The First Easter.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why We Observe Easter Day.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Effect of Belief in the Resurrection.

I. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples, Thomas Being Absent (vv. 19-25).
He appeared to several of His disciples at several different times during that day. This is the first appearance to the disciples as a body. The rumors of His several appearances on that day caused the disciples to assemble to talk over the matter. For fear of the Jews, they met in a private room and barred the door. While they were discussing the strange happenings of the day, the Lord mysteriously appeared before them with the greeting of good cheer, "Peace be unto you." He did not come with censure for their failure and desertion. At His birth the angels announced "Peace." Just before he took His departure, He said:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you" (John 14:27); "Let not your heart be troubled" (John 14:1); and now the first word after His resurrection is "Peace." Having calmed their fears, He gave them an unmistakable evidence of His resurrection. "And when He had so said, He showed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." Their doubts needed to be scattered, and His peace needed to be upon them. Consider:

1. The disciples' commission (v. 21). "As my Father hath sent Me, even so send I you." This commission was not simply to a class, as the eleven, but to all Christians. In Luke 24:33 we find that there were others there in that meeting besides the eleven when Jesus showed himself to them and commissioned them, showing that the commission is not confined to a class or order, but is wide as the Christian body itself. All Christians, therefore, are envoys and representatives of Christ. The exercise of this great function is not merely optional with the individual, but is obligatory upon him. The Lord placed it upon a plane with His own commission from the Father—"As my Father hath sent me, so send I you."

2. The disciples' equipment (v. 22). "He breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost." The mission of the disciple is a very great one, but every one who goes forth in its execution He clothes with the power of a new life by the bestowment of His spirit. No one who has this equipment shall ever fail. The Lord's representatives have His life in them. The barrenness of our efforts is due to our failure to take by faith our equipment.

3. The disciples' authority (v. 23). "Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto him; and whose sins ye retain, they are retained." This authority was not by virtue of office, but by virtue of having the Holy Ghost. This would give the spiritual discernment to know who had or who had not repented, and consequently, to pronounce pardon or not.

II. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples, Thomas Being Present (vv. 26-29).
Thomas was absent at the first appearance of Jesus. His absence deprived him of a vision of the Lord. Absence from the assembly of believers always occasions loss. The other disciples go to Thomas at once with the glad news of the resurrection, but he will not believe. His stubborn disbelief is such that he doggedly declares that unless he sees the prints of the nails, etc., he will not believe. It is right to demand evidence, but to prescribe terms is rank unbelief. Note:

1. The Lord's kindness to those who have difficulties. Thomas deserved rebuke, but the Lord kindly supplied the evidence which he demanded.

2. The revelation of the Lord transforms a doubter into a possessor.

III. The Conclusion of the Gospel (vv. 30-31).
In these verses John's arguments are summarized, and an explanation is given as to why he wrote this Gospel. Many other things could have been written, but these that he wrote he judged adequate to prove his point: To prove that (1) Jesus of Nazareth was the expected Messiah; (2) that He was divine—the very Son of God; (3) that those who believe on Him as God's only Son—the Messiah—would receive eternal life. Eternal life is in Him and only as He is appropriated by faith can men be saved.

Mrs. Simou, daughter of John McNeil, returned to her Eugene home Friday, after several days with her parents.

Miss Donna Robertson has been at home from her Eugene studies this week and has played the piano for the Christian church meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McMahan came up from Portland Sunday and are spending a few days with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Patton drove to Corvallis Sunday. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. O. B. Stalnaker, who had been visiting in Halsey since Thursday.

W. H. Kirkpatrick, who died recently in an Albany hospital, left at his home in Halsey, among other things, a valuable collection of books, which the Study club has purchased and added to the public library.

The resuscitation of the Brown-woolen mills is to be celebrated by a grand ball on its new floor April 21. The proceeds are to go to the American Legion community building fund.

The Elite confectionery of Albany, advertised in the Enterprise, has a new expert candy maker, A. T. Wallace, from Portland, at work.

D. H. Sturtevant is recovering from the flu and Charles Mornhinweg, who nursed him, went home Friday indisposed.

Mrs. Mary Darling of Brownsville passed thru Halsey on her way to Eugene Sunday evening to visit her daughter Beatrice, who was operated on for appendicitis the previous Sunday.

The young people of the Methodist church will hold a "sunrise" prayer-meeting at the church at 7 o'clock Sunday—Easter—morning.

The Study club paid $100 for those Kirkpatrick books and considers them a bargain. The books were in a good state of preservation.

Mrs. William Grimes of Heppner, for several years a resident of this vicinity, was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Isom, the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Marks drove to Portland Tuesday, expecting to be absent for several days. Dr. Marks will attend the meeting of the State Medical association.

Mrs. Herman Mitzner received word of the death of her aunt, Mrs. E. R. Cummings, at Albany, which occurred Monday evening. Miss Bessie Bond, a niece, had been helping care for Mrs. Cummings for some time.

E. H. Barber of Wisconsin, uncle of Mrs. J. D. Pittman, is here on a visit. He has visited points in California and will do the same in Washington on his way home, incidentally boosting for his home region.

The annual boys' and girls' club summer school will be in Corvallis, beginning June 12 and ending June 24. Last year there were more than 30 who attended from Linn county. A limit of 500 has been set. It will be impossible to care for more. Those interested should apply early.—Albany Herald.

The annual Jersey jubilee meeting will begin May 24 at Albany. The greater part of the first day will be spent in Linn county visiting the larger herds. Members of Jersey calf clubs should begin to prepare for this meeting. Calves should be in the best possible condition. Those planning on making this trip should get in touch with the club leader.

Tom Miller of Brownsville is one of the kindest and most generous-hearted of men, but is liable to sudden fits of ill temper when things go wrong. If anything can make a man lose his temper a balky horse can. In such an outbreak Miller committed the offense to which he pleaded guilty in the justice's court in Albany. Nothing can excuse cruelty to dumb brutes, though circumstances may explain it. Miller's friends say he was told that if he would plead guilty to the charge he would be let off with a fine. He did so plead and was sent to jail.

FILTHY FATTY'S FREE

Two-thirds of the Jurymen say "Not Guilty"

Fatty Arbuckle has been acquitted of the slaying of Miss Rappe. Thirty-six jurors have passed on his case. Twelve of them voted for conviction and twenty-four for acquittal, and twelve of the twenty-four chanced to be on the jury which tried him last.

Whether or not he caused the girl's death, it has been shown that he is grossly immoral and an experienced booze fighter. The least offensive form of amusement which he was wont to indulge in seems to have been the giving of parties where members of both sexes danced and frolicked in "undress uniform."

The Lasky picture combination had much money tied up in films of the beast and spent much money to secure his acquittal, hoping those films would again become marketable. If an attempt is made to show him on the screen the producers' promise to reform the movies from within can be taken with a whole shovelful of salt—and an onion.

There is one newspaper in the country that will refuse, in the interest of the young, to advertise Arbuckle pictures.

Left Over

What follows was crowded out of the last issue:

F. E. Livengood, manager of the J. C. Penny store at Albany, will remain there. He has an interest in an eastern store, but the report that he would go to manage it was an error.

Rice Blackburn has a radio receiving station at Brownsville and Charles Robertson and Edgar Enger are installing others. The Times says: Mr. Enger is a confirmed radio fan and has been experimenting with radio apparatus for some time. He is a student at Willamette university, and while experimenting in Salem he was able to pick up messages in his room by attaching the receiving set to the springs of his bed.

The county rock and gravel plant at Saddle Butte will be in operation again as soon as the roads are dry enough to haul gravel on, it is reported. Last year six or eight trucks were employed hauling to the roads from 250 to 300 yards of gravel per day. The work this year will complete the plans started on last season, it is said. The gravel is being hauled in some instances three or four miles and is being used largely to complete market roads.—Democrat.

Ash Swale Assertions

Mrs. Hamill, who died in Brownsville last week, was the mother of Mrs. Charles Troutman, who formerly lived at Ash Swale.

Mrs. Opal Price, from Portland, visited at the Newland home over the week end.

Mrs. Groves of North Dakota, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Farwell, for several weeks, has returned to her home.

Charles Carlson and Frank Newland attended a telephone meeting held by the Rockhill Telephone company last Monday night.

Mrs. F. O. Mallow and Mrs. W. F. Sylvester were heavy shoppers last Friday.

Oscar Barnes, the seaman prophet of Ash Swale, who never makes a mistake, predicts that we will have bad weather until our planting time.

O. Gunderson and E. Ellis of the Fir Grove district were in Ash Swale hunting seed grain last Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Archibald, who lost his fine barn by fire last week, lives just a few miles north of Saddle Butte. His loss was very heavy. Among other things it included four thoroughbred calves, hack, milking machine, electric light plant, separator, ensilage cutter, grain chopper, binder and a silo. Both Mr. and Mrs. Archibald were slightly burned. Mr. Archibald is as yet undecided as to whether or not he will rebuild. He says he cannot replace the property for $5000.
