Shedd Shots

(Regular correspondence)

Miss Vera Cornett spent the week end at Monmouth with Edna Gregory.

Mr. McCall, the head bookkeeper of the A. D. Kern Co., was an over-Sunday visitor in Shedd.

Mrs. Hartsell spent the week in Portland with her mother.

Nick Kennedy and wife were county seat visitors last Friday.

W. E. Burton and wife of Albany, who have recently returned from the east, visited at C. A. Troutman's Sunday.

Mrs. Collins of Wyeth has been visiting her husband, who is working at the paving plant.

The young son of Ray Linnan and wife who formerly lived in Shedd, cut off his index finger on his right hand with an ax.

Alvin Leach went to Portland last week on business.

Mrs. McCellen spent Saturday in Albany shopping.

Glenn Hill visited Portland last week.

J. C. Clay, who had eighteen teeth pulled Saturday, is quite sick as a result.

Mrs. A. H. Freerksen of Seattle is visiting relatives in and about Shedd.

Mrs. P. J. Troutman spent the week end at the county seat.

A surprise party was enjoyed at the J. C. Clay home Friday night in honor of Hope Clay, Anna McConnell, Dalton Gibbs, Mrs. Tompkin and Mr. Roberts.

Mrs. S. P. Brock, 75 and a pioneer of 1858, celebrated her birthday Saturday. She and her husband, who is still living, had their golden wedding in 1914.

The Shedd Jersey calf club, with 17 members, is going to try for a $75 prize offered by the American Jersey Cattle club to the first 33 calf clubs to file applications with 20 or more members.

As a part of the Linn county program for the Jersey jubilee the boys and girls of the Jersey calf clubs will put on a show at Shedd on the morning of May 24. In order to do this successfully all of the calves must be in condition, and it is urged that the members start preparations immediately.

Any Linn county boy or girl enrolled in industrial club work may win a thoroughbred bull calf, according to an offer made by T. J. Daunen, Dannen says: "At the international last autumn I purchased the calf, White Cup II. This calf is developing away beyond our expectations. Karl intends to show this bull at the state and county fairs. To the calf club member who writes the best description of this calf I will give a bull calf sired by this bull and out of a pure-bred cow, the calf to be delivered from the next spring calf crop at the age of about ten days. The description is to be short. Any club member is eligible. Contestants must register at one of the fairs or at our ranch. A book will be provided for this purpose."

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly

Mrs. Inez Freeland is a guest at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Carey.

Dr. C. R. Templeton and wife and daughter of Portland were guests at the home of the doctor's sister, Mrs. W. R. Kirk, for the week end. They were en route to Berkeley, Cal., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Andrew Brown was an Albany shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith and Miss Alice Porter of Sweet Home spent Sunday with the W. R. Kirk family.

The Christian church continues to use our advertising columns. If there had been any newspapers in his day the Galilean probably would have used them, for he was a good advertiser; he did the next best thing; he told his followers to go into all the world and spread his news.

Three-year-old Linden, son of Karl Bramwell and wife, got his hand caught in an electric wringer Monday morning and it was drawn in to the thumb before the machine could be stopped. His hand was as large as two the next day, but no bones seem to have been broken.

Mrs. Mary Taylor of Corvallis came Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. M. B. Southern, and other friends.

The Herald mentions Mrs. Frank Logan as being at the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Harrison Wallace and Little daughters of Newberg are guests at the Mornhinweg home.

Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Marks were Albany visitors yesterday.

E. C. Miller has his enlarged barber shop painted and ready for business and the second chair in place.

Johnson Burnett of Harrisburg, whose wife died two weeks ago Tuesday, followed her last Tuesday. He was 72 years old. Mr.

shall be destroyed.

What Scriptures show that death as sin's penalty means extinction?

Job 6: 15, 18: My brethren have dealt deceitfully . . . and as the streams of brooks they pass away. . . They go to nothing, and perish. Ps. 37: 10, 35, 38: For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be; yes, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. I have seen the wicked in great power; . . . yet he passed away, and is not; he was not. Ps. 104: 35: Let the wicked be no more. Ps. 49: 12: Man being in honor abideth not; he is like the beasts that perish.

What does Christ's death as our ransom prove to be sin's penalty?

Matt. 20: 28: Even as the Son of Man came . . . to give His life a Ransom for many. 1 Tim. 2: 6: Who gave Himself a Ransom for all. Is. 53: 5, 8, 10, 12: He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; He was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of my people was He stricken. Thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin. He hath poured out His soul unto death; and He was numbered with the transgressors; and He bare the sin of many.

1 Cor. 15: 3: Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures. Rom. 6: 8, 10: In due time Christ died for the ungodly. . . But God commendeth His love towards us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. We were reconciled to God by the Death of His Son. Rom. 4: 25: He was delivered for your offenses, and raised again for our justification.

2 Cor. 5: 14: If one died for all, then were all dead. Heb. 2: 9: But we see Jesus, who by the grace of God should taste death for every man. 1 Pet. 3: 18: For Christ also hath once suffered, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh.

How can we be saved from sin's penalty?

(1) Repentance. Luke 24: 47: Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Acts 3: 19: Repent . . . that your sins may be blotted out. Acts 5: 31: Him hath God exalted with His right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance . . . and forgiveness of sins.

(2) Faith. John 3: 14-18: Even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life: for God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life: for God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He that believeth on Him is not condemned. John 5: 24: He that . . . believeth on Him that sent Me hath everlasting life, and . . . is passed from death unto life. John 20: 31: These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing, ye might have life through His name. Acts 10: 43: Through His name whosoever believeth in Him shall receive remission of sins. Acts 13: 38, 39: Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins, and by Him all that believe are justified from all things.

John 3: 18: He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the Only Begotten Son of God.

Cook of this place officiated at Mrs. Burnett's funeral. The Oddfellows will have charge of Mr. Burnett's obsequies.

Jack Arehart of Lebanon has been assessed a $5 fine and $25 costs for not sending his 14-year-old boy to school.

W. H. Newman was at the county seat Tuesday.

Page 3 this week was printed in too much of a hurry and errors escaped notice. By a misunderstanding in hearing, Mrs. W. J. Lane was dragged into an item about the Woodworth family and made to take a trip to Eugene. It was only Miss Elaine Woodworth who went to Eugene and visited Mrs. Hemenway. On the same page the dates of the Harrisburg Chautauqua were given as in July instead of June. If you want to wait till July to go you'll get left. Charge these errors to the rush of politics if you like.

A. J. Hill was suffering the qualms of rheumatism this week, but his store didn't look the least bit crippled.

Mrs. L. E. Walton and Mrs. B. M. Bond delightfully entertained the Women's Study club last Saturday afternoon at the Bond home. Fourteen ladies were present. Mrs. R. A. Templeton was elected president, Mrs. J. W. Moore vice-president, Mrs. C. P. Stafford secretary and Mrs. G. W. Laubner treasurer, to take office next meeting. The literary program was given by Mrs. Drinkard and Mr. Marks. Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Moore furnished music. Refreshments were served. Mrs. J. W. Rector and Mrs. W. H. Beene were guests of the club.

Mrs. W. H. Beene visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Jasper Julliford, and Mrs. Will Gordon at Eugene Friday.

We had snowflakes in the air Monday and Albany had them and had white frost on the ground, but no damage was done. The temperature of the wind since indicated that some of the flakes remained on the hills.

Mary Woody of Brownsville was operated on for appendicitis last week.

W. J. Lane came over from Brownsville Monday and he and Archie Cornelius went to Eugene and attended the first day of the two-days meeting of the Oregon jewelers, who fraternized there Monday and Tuesday. F. M. French and W. O. Biddle of Albany and their wives also attended.

FASHIONS IN BRIEF

Rows of beads mark off geometrical figures in silk or velvet to cover hat frames.

Muffs appear with more frequency. Both the square and the melon types are used.

Narrow patent leather and narrow metal link belts are worn with coats or dresses.

It seems to be rather a fad to match up one's felt hat, or its trimming, with drop earrings.

Handkerchiefs with lace edges of varying widths and design, also with drawnwork borders are very smart.

High shades are particularly smart in the wool jersey dresses for children, colors like bright green, rose and a very deep lavender being popular.

Wool stockings, by the way, may be found in a silk mixture that is quite comfortable to many women who cannot bear the feeling of all-wool fabrics next their skins.

Among the very newest blouses now being shown for mid-winter, southern resort, or very early spring wear, are waist-length, over-the-skirt models, made to tie either at the back or side.

Party dresses for wee girls are of sheer handkerchief linen all made by hand and trimmed with real Irish crochet. Some of these exquisite little frocks are dropped over pale pink slips and have sashes of pale pink ribbon.

Combine Plaid and Rough Weaves. Fabric and color combinations are all important in the development of children's clothes, both in dresses and wraps. A coat and cap outfit has a straight line coat of plain color rough weave material, with cap and scarf of a bright tartan plaid. The scarf was fringed at the ends, and was long enough to tie entirely around the figure, with ends swinging either at side or back. The whole outfit was picturesque for a cold, snowy day.

A JUNIOR SUCCESS

High School Actors Draw an Overflowing House

Those who went to Rialto hall Saturday night to learn "Why Smith Left Home" report the best entertainment of the year and the junior class members who played it and the directors who managed it come in for much praise.

There was a full house, every seat having been engaged before the doors were opened, and additional seating arrangements were improvised. The receipts amounted to $104, which paid for the class rings and left a surplus of $22, although there is considerable expense involved in the presentation of such a play. Not every body realizes that besides all the hard work, which is considerable, and the expense of settings, a royalty of $25 had to be paid for the privilege of staging the popular production.

All the characters were so well presented that it would be an injustice to the others to single out any one of them as having been especially good. As the compelling and amusing situations developed one could deduce that, as his final words imported, the reason "Smith left home" was that he "loved his wife."

Besides the orchestral music two highly appreciated cornet solos were rendered by Clarence Cornelius.

A number of people were heard to say they would attend a second rendition if it were given and a move has been started to guarantee receipts of $40 for its repetition in the same way that sums are guaranteed for Chautauqua and lyceum courses.

Home sentiment helps to draw a large turnout at productions by the young people of the town and their judicious use of printer's ink added to the financial success of the affair, but the knowledge that we have talent at home that can satisfy an audience as well as anything imported goes a long way.

Miss Mona Bond was coach, John Standish play manager and electrician, Wayne Robertson stage manager, Preston Newton property manager and B. M. Bond musical director.

Brownsville Briefs

(Regular Correspondence)

May Day festivities were held Monday on the south side school grounds. The program opened with a parade by the school children, Miss Edith Howe was crowned Queen of May and a number of dances and drills were given in her honor. Immediately following the program there was an inter-class track meet in which the Sophomores won first place for the high school. A large crowd attended the exercises.

The game Monday night between north and south Brownsville marked the opening of the baseball season for the Twilight league, recently organized here. The north side was victorious with a score of 6 to 1.

May 8 to 13 has been set aside as cleanup and plant week.

With twenty-five local business men present a very successful luncheon was held by the Brownsville chamber of commerce Tuesday noon.

The question of holding the second Calapooia valley fair this fall has been discussed and definite steps taken toward it.

Samuel Tonkin has purchased two and a half acres south of Brownsville from Mrs. M. J. Thompson and plans to place a chicken ranch.

Senior High Notes

"Mr. Bob" will be here, bag and baggage, May 20, at the Rialto theater. Help the seniors. Give him a warm reception.

The following program has been arranged for the last week of school and all exercises will be held at the Methodist church:

Class night May 28.
Baccalaureate May 29, Rev. C. T. Cook preaching the sermon.
Commencement exercises May 31, Prof. E. T. Reed of O. A. C. giving the address.

L. W. Byerley spent the forepart of the week in Portland.

The Penalty of Sin

II

By The Laymen's Home Missionary Movement, 1327 Snyder Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

What Scriptures show that death as sin's penalty means destruction?

Job 31: 3: Is not destruction to the wicked? Ps. 9: 5: Thou hast destroyed the wicked. Thou hast put out their name forever and ever. Ps. 37: 38: But the transgressors shall be destroyed forever; the end of the wicked shall be cut off. Ps. 145: 20: The Lord preserveth all them that love Him; but all the wicked will He destroy. Is. 1: 28: And the destruction of transgressors and of the sinners shall be together. 1 Cor. 3: 17: If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy. Phil. 3: 19: Whose end is destruction. 2 Thess. 1: 9: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction.

1 Tim. 6: 9: They . . . fall into temptation and . . . into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction. 2 Pet. 3: 16: In which [St. Paul's Epistles] are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable . . . wrest unto their own destruction.

2 Pet. 2: 1, 12: There shall be false teachers among you, . . . even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. These are as natural brute beasts made to be taken and destroyed. Ezek. 22: 27: Her princes . . . like wolves ravening the prey . . . destroy souls. Matt. 10: 28: And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear Him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Acts 3: 23: It shall come to pass that every
