State Grange for Economy

At the state grange last week the Union county grange proposed a retrenchment program that looks like a good one. It would lop off a million and a half of dollars from the load taxpayers groan under and nobody except the fellows who would lose soft jobs would be noticeably hurt. Here is the list of grafts the grange proposes to cut out: Public service commission $50,000; special election $15,000; International Livestock association $175,000; armories $115,000; national guard $100,000; artesian wells $10,000; bureau of mines $25,000; state tourist bureau $25,000; Pacific Northwest Tourist association $75,000; public library $25,000; contribution to workmen's compensation budget $175,000; medical department U. of O. $100,000; fish and game commission $170,000; O. A. C. extension work $200,000; capitol buildings $25,000; tax investigation commission $10,000; bounty on wild animals $100,000; ventilating system state buildings $18,000; new buildings and cement walks state fair grounds $75,000; county fairs $100,000. Total $1,605,000.

A resolution opposing a federal sales tax was adopted without debate.

A graduated income tax is provided in a measure being promoted, a copy of which was filed with the secretary of state for approval as to form and for preparation of title for use in obtaining the necessary signatures for placing the measure on the November ballot.

The state grange elected one officer from Linn county. Grace Harris, flora.

Next year's gathering will be at Newport.

A delegation from Linn county favored the abolition of all commissions that may be dispensed with and the consolidation of the remainder.

Calapooia Grange

[Received too late for publication June 1 and accidentally omitted last week.]

The grange held its first evening meeting in the hall at Brownsville, May 27, at 8:30, with a good crowd attending.

By special invitation about thirty-five visitors from Fairmount and Morning Star granges, in Benton county, were present and were entertained.

Our grange extended an invitation, which was accepted, to Pomona grange to meet at Brownsville July 29.

Mrs. Mable Davidson was elected alternate delegate to the state grange.

Two candidates received the first and second degrees.

Lunch and hot coffee were served cafeteria style by the ladies at 10:30, after which dancing filled up the remainder of the evening.

We expect our evening meetings to be very successful.

Grange Reporter.

Lake Creek Rodents Suffer

Lake Creek community gave a hard times social Friday evening. Everybody was there and did justice to the baked beans, salad, pie, cake and candy.

The sum of $27.83 was raised and Martin Cummings, rodent control leader, paid the boys and girls $18.65 for varmits killed. Lee Anderson and wife of Corvallis came, bringing with them Mr. Haralson of the Benton County Courier, who gave a most enjoyable entertainment. We hope to have him with us again.

A large number of Harrisburg people were in attendance.

Mrs. Martin Cummings, Sec. Farm Bureau.

Linn Clubs Lead

(Albany Democrat)

Linn county club boys and girls judged the spots off of things at the annual picnic of the Linn County Jersey Cattle club, held on the Warren Gray farm near Jefferson Saturday, winning from four counties in the team judging contest and in the individual contest.

In the individual judging contest Ralph Malson, John Davis and Dellis Cornutt, all of Linn, tied for first with 240 points out of a possible 300. Roy Scott of Scio took second with 225, Cecil Elder of Shedd third with 210, Earl Brock of Lake Creek and Carl Dannen of Shedd and Edwin Gladd of Tillamook tied for fourth place with 195. For fifth, Linn again furnished the real talent, Ralph McNeal and Carl Williams of Lake Creek, Ruth Quimby of Halsey and John Scott of Scio each took 180. Thirty-three boys and girls entered the contest. Linn's team won first, Edith Pugh, Stanley Satchell and Lyle Davis forming the team. They amassed 600 points.

There is no need of a collision between a railroad train and an auto. A careful auto driver never runs into a train. In the last four years 676 automobiles ran into the sides of Southern Pacific trains, resulting in 13 deaths and 253 injuries. Hereafter the drivers of offending cars are to be sued for damages by the company. Good!

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly George Taylor went to Albany Monday.

Miss Irene Quimby has gone to O. A. C.

Miss Nettie Spencer is at home after teaching a term of school at Youcalla.

Miss Viola Talent of Brownsville took Monday's train here for Monmouth to attend school.

The Oren Strateon family are on the farm at Brownsville from their Salem home during the fruit shipping season.

Brownsville baseball players went to the strawberry festival at Lebanon and beat the baseball team there 22 to 2.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Loeper of Eugene, mother and sister of Karl Bramwell, with their families spent Sunday at Bramwell's.

J. M. Ringo and wife and daughter, Lou Jane, of Lebanon spent Sunday with Mr. Ringo's brother, W. A. Ringo.

Mrs. Bert Clark visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Poole, at Lebanon, over the week end. So did her daughter, Georgina.

The guarantors of the Chautauqua at Shedd had a deficit of about $125. They seem cheerful about paying it for the good of the city.

Mrs. George Starr, residing a couple of miles east of town, is home after a period in a hospital at Corvallis but is still seriously ill.

Mrs. William Curry and daughter of North Bend are visiting their mother-in-law and grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Curry, on the H. C. Davis farm.

Mrs. W. A. Shorey of Holley arrived on Monday's train from Salem and took an auto for her home. With her were Misses Enid and Mildred Sill of Idaho.

Mrs. Tom Lacey of Portland arrived last week for a visit at the Ped Templeton and Al Waggener homes. Coming to Halsey Sunday with her brother-in-law, Frank Kirk, and other friends, going on to Brownsville (formerly her home) in the evening for a visit with old friends and to attend the pioneer picnic there this week.

Howard Bramwell, editor of the Palouse Gazette at Colfax, Wash., visited with his uncle, J. C. Bramwell, about fifteen minutes Monday while on his way to San Francisco. He was born and raised in Halsey but it was seventeen years since the two had met.

Miss Irene Quimby organized that canning club. She is president, Beatie Dykstra vice president and Genevieve Wells secretary. Gladys Newton and Rena Walker are also members and Mrs. A. H. Quimby leader. More members are invited.

There are visitors at the H. C. Davis farm nearly every evening to see and hear the wonderful radio, phone which Kenneth Stone has built. With a little financial assistance the young man could add an amplifying horn so that all in the room could hear what comes from far-away cities, and he could install receiving apparatus so that messages, songs, etc., could be broadcasted from here as well as from other cities and Halsey would be on the map.

rection, Rev. 20: 6: Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection. . . . They shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

1 Cor. 15: 41-44, 46, 52, 53: It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. And as we have borne the image of the earthy (one, Adam), we shall also bear the image of the heavenly (One, Jesus). The dead shall be raised incorruptible; for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

(2) The earthy, or human, resurrection, Ezek. 37: 1-14, 19, 21-23: When I shall bring again . . . the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them. When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. Then . . . thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters. Is. 25: 6, 8: In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things. . . . He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of His people shall be taken away from off all the earth. Is. 65: 17, 19, 21-23: For behold I create . . . a new earth. And I will joy in My People. They shall build houses and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat. . . . And Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for
