

RIALTO THEATER, FRIDAY

"MAN TO MAN"

She detested him because of his family

YET SHE LOVED HIM

She loathed him because of his jail record

YET SHE LOVED HIM

She hated him because of his degenerate past

YET SHE LOVED HIM

The strange story of Steve Packard, jailbird and South Sea outcast, who won the most wonderful girl in the west, in spite of his reputation and his enemies, is portrayed in vivid scenes by

HARRY CAREY in "MAN TO MAN"

A super-western picture with a terrific punch and a powerful heart appeal.

hidden in the ferns, closed on the chief's deputy's hand and he lost interest in that basket. It is said the basket carrier had waited three hours for Brown to come along.

County seat papers assure us that taking the county together as much money will come in for crops this year as last. The shortage proves, on thrashing, to be less than feared, and prices are slightly over those of last year.

Seed wheat has been duly certified on two acres for Charles Pugh for J. B. Cornett and sixteen for Ed Zimmerman, all of Shedd.

Betty Hedges, who has been staying at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosie Powell, for some time, left Wednesday for Tacoma.

The Christian church proposes to build that two-story addition as soon as the summer rush slackens.

F. M. French, Albany weather reporter, says July this year was the driest month in the history of the county.

Sheriff Dunlap has changed his residence from his farm near Shedd to the jail.

The Harrisburg team at home beat Sutherland at baseball 30 to 5 Sunday.

O. W. Frum is advertising that he will buy grain or clean it clean for owners and the Murphy seed company says the same in regard to vetch and clover seed. A lot of clover in the valley dried and shriveled and ought to have been cut for hay, but still quite a bit of good seed was raised.

Miss Blanche Forster, who is employed in the office of the Lane county clerk at Eugene, is at home on her vacation.

Mrs. A. V. Umstead has been seriously ill but is recovering.

Miss Nina Kump took a trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Esther Bond had as a guest over the week end Lydia Aernie of Oswego, who was her schoolmate when both went to school to Mrs. Bond's father. The Bonds took the lady as far as the county seat on her way home.

J. W. Moore has quit baling hay and is waiting for the thrashing of straw which he is to bale.

The county republican central committee will meet Saturday at the county metropolis.

Hecker, the slayer of Bowker, has been denied a new trial and will probably appeal.

John LaRue does not speak nor hear, but he proves during his long life a useful member of the community. He does whatever odd jobs come to hand and what he does is always done well. He and his sister maintain a comfortable home and John is one of the institutions of Halsey. One of his doings last week was to feed up the editorial family on juicy blackberries.

Mrs. A. C. Armstrong got eggs from her white Leghorn pullets this year three months and twenty-seven days from hatching.

W. C. Bass was at the county seat Monday.

Ben Sudtall and family were in Halsey Sunday.

Charles R. Goltra and wife and children and Mrs. Maude Ison spent Sunday at Halsey, where they were guests of A. M. Goltra, Monday's Herald.

The local Christian Endeavorers were guests of the Harrisburg society Sunday.

The W. F. M. S. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. E. Gourley. Cars will assemble at the church at 3 o'clock and all members and friends are invited to ride.

Twenty-five boys and girls from a home for children at Des Moines, Wash., have been visiting in this county, in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Draper of the home. The breakdown of a car held them two days in Albany, where Ed I. Hudson and C. G. Rawlings entertained them at the Globe theater and Tripp & Hood gave them an ice cream feed at the Elite confectionery. They gave street concerts at the county seat and were at the telephone picnic at Kiger's island Sunday.

Miss Gertrude McKern was at home Sunday with her hand bandaged where she had cut it in some way while at work.

Andrew Brown has the Kump home for the winter.

The county farm bureau and O. A. C. will have an irrigation and drainage exhibit at the county fair. There never was a year more fitted for it.

Mrs. Lester Bentz of Olds, Alberta, Canada, has been visiting here.

The D. S. McWilliams family propose to take their vacation at Cascadia.

Kenneth Cross is nursing a four-inch scalp wound received while working at the Saddle Butte quarry

Thursday, Dr. Marks dressed it and Kenneth came home for a lay-off.

A. Chandler of Brownsville has bought the Scio hotel, a $10,000 property, and takes possession be-

The Neighbors of Woodcraft
held their regular meeting and enjoyed a very pleasant evening

Clinton Standish came home from a visit at Woodburn today.
His mother, Mrs. C. W. Standish, came over from their Brownsville home and met him at the train.

A dwelling at Crawfordville owned by Mr. Anderson and occupied by a Mr. Faust burned down last night. The Brownsville fire department responded to a call and put out the blaze which had started in the church belfry with the chemical engine, which probably saved the town.

Mrs. Karl Koppe, accompanied by her son, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. I. Marks.

Misses Gertrude and Amy Porter spent the week end at the home of their grandfather Hopkins in Eugene.

Mrs. Douglas Taylor and son
Lawrence, accompanied by Glenn Frum, drove to Dallas and Falls City Sunday. At Dallas they called on Dr. and Mrs. Lentell Bowman, former Halsey people.

—Herald.

Olin Nicholls of Los Angeles
was a Sunday guest at the G. W.
Mornhiuweg home.

Foote Bros. get two insertions of their garage advertisement because it was printed on page 2
with typographical errors uncorrected after they had been marked by the proof reader.

A. G. McDaniel and wife of Brownsville were over Wednesday and visited at Mrs. Rosa Powell's.

Mrs. Marcella Kirk is home from her position in the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, for her vacation.

Mrs. D. F. Dean left today for her home in Coquille.

On page 2, which was printed early, we said Senator Reed of Missouri had been defeated for re-nomination. Later returns show him victor, but the count was so close for a while that he shivered.

G. W. Wodsworth, a banker, formerly of Oklahoma but now at Gervais, with his family, visited their old Oklahoma neighbors, the Mornhiuweg family, here over Sunday.

Mrs. B. M. Bond visited with her cousin, Mrs. Maude Henderson, at Albany a couple of days
the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Hazel Wallace and child went to Shedd yesterday.

C. P. Stafford is home from his two-weeks visit with his brother-in-law, C. O. Dryden, of Oregon City. Mr. Dryden brought him and his mother-in-law, Mrs. D. F.
Dean, home in his auto. Mrs.
Stafford came home several days before to look after the telephone exchange.

Miss Vera Cornett of Shedd and Paul Brand of Montana, now employed on the Pacific highway,
were married Monday.

and baby started this morning in their car for Pasadena, Cal., to visit the lady's mother, who is reported very ill.

Much grading and rocking is being done on market roads leading out of Brownsville in different directions, the new pavement at that city being the hub from which they radiate.

Mrs. Ben Loucks and Bob wore over from Brownsville last evening.

Dan Hillman and wife and Myles and Bert Ottaway and their wives and Mrs. Stay, all of Silverton, spent Sunday at the T. T. and T. F. Hillman homes.

Mrs. T. F. Hillman scalded her right arm badly Monday. She fell with a boiling teakettle and also injured her knee in the fall.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft
held their regular meeting and enjoyed a very pleasant evening

on Wednesday. After the business session they enjoyed ice cream and cookies. All members take notice.

The missionary society of the Christian church will meet next Tuesday at Mrs. Mary LaRue's.
Mrs. George Taylor will be the leader. Come and bring a friend.

Thomas Miller of Brownsville was in town yesterday, on his way home after taking the last load of his big crop of loganberries to the cannery at Eugene. He has about ten acres of evergreen blackberries which will yield their first crop this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant went to Lebanon by auto yesterday on receiving word that the lady's sister, Mrs. Dr. Booth, was seriously ill. Mr. Foote was chauffeur.

Last night the M. E. church held its last quarterly conference for the year at the church, S. A.
Danford, district superintendent, presiding. Mr. Danford said that Halsey had the best financial standing in his district, everything being paid up in full.

J. E. Bailey and wife and two daughters from Portland visited at A. J. Hill's Sunday and the two families visited Sodaville. The Portlanders went home that evening.

A. G. Reynolds of the Hotel Halsey and his family expect to start Tuesday or Wednesday on a vacation trip of a couple of months, which will take them through
New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma
and Missouri. Mrs. Henry, mother of Dudley Henry, will probably conduct the hotel during their absence.

Ben Holt and wife, daughter of A. J. Hill, talk of occupying the home of Arthur Robnett when the latter moves to Eugene.

Starting in the dreamy moonlight of a tropical night in Tiva-Tiva, a south sea island, and ending in the full glare of an Arizona sun, "Man to Man," the Univers Jewel feature coming Friday to the Rialto theater, presents a variety of backgrounds against which the inimitable western star, Harry Carey, characterizes the figure of a lonely outcast.

The publishers of the Enterprise have found Halsey a pleasant place and its people worthy people.
That they in turn have a kindly feeling for their town paper is evidenced by the fact that all but two of the business houses, great or small, are advertisers in its columns.
