NOTHING LEFT TO DISCOVER

Explorer Laments Fact That Africa is No Longer a Land of Mystery and Wonder.

"There is nothing left to explore in Africa," is the lament of the famous French explorer Bruneau de Laborie, who has recently returned from a journey across the Sahara. He declares that the day of the adventurous discoverer is over, and that of the ordinary tourist begun. M. de Laborie foresees a day not far off when tourist trips to Timbuctoo, by motor, airplane, or even walking, will be arranged by any touring agency. In one feature, however, there is room for improvement; desert hotel accommodation and cuisine. Thus, the explorer declares, native cooks have a habit of putting too much toad into sauces, and although toadfish is excellent in small quantities, over-indulgence may be hazardous—to the toad tribe, at least. The fashions of the ladies of Abyssinia may influence Parisian designers, but the Parisienne is not likely to affect the lip ornament, which consists of inserting a wooden disk seven inches in circumference in the lower lip. M. de Laborie's real mission was economic. He studied cotton raising and geographical problems for the colonial ministry and the Geographical society.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 1

BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 1:27, 31-33.
GOLDEN TEXT—He shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink—Luke 1:15.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Isa. 49:3-5, Mal. 4:4.
PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel, Brings Good News.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Birth of John the Baptist.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Preparation for the Coming of Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Place and Work of John the Baptist.

We are today entering upon a six months' course of study in the Gospel of Luke, whose general subject is "Jesus the World's Savior." Today's lesson concerns the birth of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ.

1. The Parents of John the Baptist (vv. 5-7).
1. When They Lived (v. 5). "In the days of Herod the King." They lived in a day when ungodliness was rife. The priesthood was very corrupt and the ruling classes were wicked. Zacharias and his wife lived in a time when it was not so easy to be godly.
2. Their Character (v. 6). They were righteous before God. To be righteous before God is a high tribute. Many appear to be righteous before men who are not righteous before God. Their lives were so marred that they walked in the commandments of the Lord blameless. How beautiful it is when husband and wife are united in the Lord and walk together in fellowship with God.

6. They were children (v. 7). Though this godly couple were well mated and they possessed the joy of the Lord in their souls, there was a real lack in that home.

11. The Birth of John Promised (vv. 8-17).

1. By Whom (v. 11; cf. v. 19). The angel Gabriel appeared and made known the good news to Zacharias. This exalted being, the special messenger of God, was sent to make this disclosure.

2. When (vv. 8-14). While officiating as priest this good news came to him. Zacharias must have been definitely praying about this very matter (v. 13). As he burned incense, which typified prayer, the multitude without were praying.

3. Characteristics of the Child (vv. 15-17). (1) Shall be great in the sight of the Lord (v. 15). Though the people did not greatly esteem him he was highly esteemed by the Lord. This is infinitely better than if he had been greatly esteemed in the eyes of men or in his own eyes. This is the esteem for which we all should long and pray. (2) Shall drink neither wine nor strong drink (v. 15). "The child shall become a Nazirite, separating himself from the sensuous things and dedicating himself to the service of the Lord. (3) He filled with the Holy Ghost (v. 15). The energy of the divine Spirit would enable him to lead the people to repentance (v. 16). (4) Shall go in the spirit and power of Elijah (v. 17). In this power he was to prepare the people for the coming of the Savior and the salvation which He was to bring.

111. Zacharias Asking for a Sign (vv. 18-23).
Although the aged priest was earnestly praying for the salvation of Israel the gracious promise of the angel, which was the beginning of that salvation, staggered his faith. He was unable to believe that for which he fondly hoped and prayed would be realized. The angel gave Zacharias a sign. He was smitten with dumbness which was to continue until the fulfillment of the promise. Because he refused to praise God in faith for this gracious promise God caused his tongue to be silent until the promise was fulfilled and his lips could open in thanksgiving and praise. Though he was thus rebuked, at the same time his faith was strengthened by the manifestation of the supernatural. God wants us to trust Him, to believe His promises, no matter how contrary to reason they may seem.

1V. The Promise Fulfilled (vv. 24-38).
When the time came for the birth of John, Elizabeth brought forth a son and the neighbors rejoiced with her. On the eighth day they circumcised the child and gave him a name according to the instruction of the angel (v. 13). The name John was contrary to the family custom. By means of writing Zacharias made known the name which he would have by divine instruction. At this time God opened the mouth of Zacharias and he offered praise.

HAS EARNED A REST

Frank A. Welch of Nashua, N. H., has just retired from the grocery business after spending forty-one years in the same location. For the last thirty-five years he has owned the store. He never took a vacation in that time, never was sick a single day and was only away from the store one day—when it was open.
