W. J. Ribelin and Arthur Wesley came home from Broomton Springs Friday, declaring that the "kelp ore" treatment had rejuvenated them and appearing as if it had.

William Kirk, Charles Morrison and Delos Clark went to the postponed races at the fair ground Saturday.

The farmers have been wonderfully favored by the weather clerk. Enough rain to make good plowing and then good plowing weather.

Mrs. Clara Thompson of Brownsville came home from Eugene and was met by H. C. Thompson and wife and Mrs. Amy Standish and went home from here in the Thompson car Tuesday.

Some good high school news came this week, but was too late after there was more news in hand than the Enterprise force could put in type for this week's paper.

William Templeton is still in a serious condition at Salem, where he is under Dr. Kent's care.

Mrs. Harry Davis and daughter and Mrs. T. J. Skitvin and niece went to the races Saturday.

The county fair was under cloudy skies and over wet soil until Halsey turned the school children loose and pretty nearly all of Halsey attended, Friday, when the skies were bright and all was merry.

T. P. Patton was at the county metropolis Tuesday.

R. W. Tripp and family of Albany, a party of six, expected to start yesterday for Minneapolis, where his mother is reported to be very ill.

Prof. English's passengers to the county fair were his family and P. J. Forster and wife.

Unregistered stock is slow of sale this fall and horses can hardly be given away. At the Harmon-Jackson auction a pair of horses went for less than $10. Great is King Auto!

D. G. Gray, brother of Frank Gray, the draymen, returned to his Portland home Monday, after drying prunes for Mr. Gormley during the season.

Tom Miller has a broken little finger, the result of a fall from a ladder at the Rialto, where he was doing janitor work, Friday.

A new fireproof building, a "picker house" 50 by 70 feet, is being erected at the woolen mill.

Mrs. E. C. Miller has been visiting her sister in Albany all week.

Mrs. Guy Layton fell on a gasoline engine Monday morning and cut her right hand so severely that Dr. Marks had to take five stitches in it.

Jack Ackerman and wife of Brownsville and Mrs. Mary West visited at J. W. Pugh's Sunday.

Mrs. O. J. Albertson has been on the sick list this week.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church held a very helpful meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Hadley last Saturday. Mrs. Chance was a visitor. At the next meeting lessons will begin in the new text book, "Building With India." Every member is urged to try to be out in order not to miss this study.

Mrs. McWilliams was out in the auto Sunday, the first time since she was under the surgeon's knife.

A fire in the logging place of the Sawyer sawmill near Brownsville (one who runs a sawmill is a sawyer, you know) was just becoming threatening when the rain put it out.

The Brownsville high school football team goes to the county seat Saturday to try conclusions with the high school team there.

Ray Fox and Faye Evans were fined for setting off firecrackers on the streets of Brownsville last week.

George Laubner has taken his farm back from Mr. Neff and moved on to reside, leaving the large Dean house vacant.

W. H. Umstead, son of Mrs. A. V. Umstead of this city, has been confined to his bed in his home in Portland with heart disease for some weeks. His mother visited him Sunday and found him very low. A letter received Tuesday morning reported him no better.

Mrs. Lucy Pray returned Sunday night from her visit with the Wells family near Junction City.

Mrs. Lena Romer of Portland, whose first husband was the late Perry Overton of Brownsville, where she is well known, returned home Monday from a visit with the Overtons of Brownsville.

Miss Anna Warmoth of Brownsville died Sunday and was buried Tuesday. She had been confined to her room with rheumatism for several years. She was 60 years old and had taught school in her home town for many years. It is said that she taught more primary pupils in that city than any other teacher.

The Mountain State Power company must be spending some of the recently-raised money in improvements and changes. The juice has been shut off pretty regularly Sunday and the latter part of each night lately.

James Rice was at county headquarters Wednesday.

Harry Commons and family were at the county metropolis Friday.

Mrs. O. F. Neal was sitting on a trunk in a wagon this afternoon when the team jerked and threw her out, injuring her back. Dr. Marks was summoned and said there was no danger, but it will take some time to overcome the effects.

In an item printed on page 8 John Salash was reported as having visited Saturday's races and the words "and wife" were omitted after his name, leaving Mrs. Salash apparently at home, where she wasn't.

As we go to press Mrs. Hugh Leeper is reported nicely improving in her combat with tonsillitis.

BLESSED DEATH!

Dr. Charles Park, although a lover of Latin, told at a recent gathering of the protest of a Brown university sophomore against study of the dead languages. The sophomore, according to Doctor Park, pasted the following lines "To the Dead" on the university bulletin board:

All are dead who spoke it. All are dead who wrote it. All are dead who learned it. Blessed death! They earned it! —From the Outlook.

Youth and Age.

In my youth I thought of writing a satire on mankind; but now in my age I think I should write an apology for them.—Walpole.

Are You Looking Ahead?

Are you saving for the future or spending all as you go?

Saver or Spender?

The saver will soon be able to own his own farm or business. His success is assured. The spender has a good time early in life, spending all, and too late realizes the truth of the saying: "The secret of success is saving."

Which One Are You?

Why?

"The woman walked alone." "How do you know?" "The Rialto announcement says so." "Why did she walk alone?" "Well I have to go and see. Maybe it was because she could walk without help. Maybe she went on crutches. Maybe it was because nobody would walk with her, or because she would not walk with anybody else."
