High School Notes

(Mearle Straley, Reporter)

This has been a famous week. Exams!

The first big game of the season was staged on the campus of the Halsey high school when the dignified seniors were forced to play the humble frosh! The score would have been zero had it not been for the valiant playing of Milford Muller and Truman Robinson. The score stands 24 to 12 in favor of the seniors. If Earl Albertson had not been afraid of soiling his cream-colored cadouros the score would have been at least even.

Wilmetta Forster, a member of the senior class, returned to school Monday after a week's absence.

PICTURES GUIDE YOU AT EVERY STEP

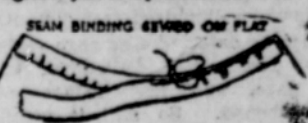

Save materials as experts do

The Deltor cutting layouts give you your size pattern in your view, laid on the width material you are using. You have put before your eyes, simply, clearly, a layout that exactly fits your needs and saves you money on everything you make.

Put together expertly

The Deltor shows you the easiest and best way to handle each step in the making. The lines, the final style of your dress are perfect, you can put it together just as a professional would.

The French finish

You can now give your dress the same exquisite perfection you love in imported things. The Deltor shows you the French finish for each detail, and nowadays these touches are so important they frequently "make" an entire costume.

Short Stories of Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly

The infant son of Robert Acheson and wife died two days after its birth. There are three sons left in the family.

V. K. Allison of Lebanon will discuss the compulsory education bill this evening at the Rialto hall.

The Hall music and floral shop did not intend to offer old music at 35c. The printer changed the word "all" in the advertisement to "old" in last week's advertisement.

There will be a civil service examination to select a postmaster for Albany Nov. 21.

Ed Zimmerman of Shedd, democratic candidate for county commissioner, was here a couple of days this week.

An attempt to get Halsey business men to sign a pronouncement in favor of an out-of-town candidate for sheriff failed. They said they preferred the home-town candidate.

Mrs. Hillard Ackerman of Brownsville last week enjoyed a visit of several days from her mother, Mrs. I. M. Saxton of Fayetteville.

Work horses are a drug on the market, but Albert Pyburn ought to find a buyer for his saddle pony.

advertised elsewhere. We can hardly imagine young riding horses like that going out of favor.

Though the weather clerk joined the dry squad, as mentioned on page 3, he couldn't deny us a little moisture and we are getting it.

John Standish received a school letter from the Evans Art Academy congratulating him upon his recent success in disposing of some of his paintings and sketches. They presented him with a big letter "E" that every student receives after fulfilling certain conditions.

George Powell of Eugene was a visitor at the Pittman home Monday.

Frel Carey, who was injured by a fall in Lane county, has been taken to a San Francisco hospital.

Mrs. F. O. Bennett and little son of Springfield, with Mrs. T. F. Bennett and Ruth McIntyre of Eugene, motored down Friday and visited till Sunday with Mrs. T. F. Bennett, Mesdames E. C. Miller, I. E. Gardner and W. H. Robertson are Mrs. T. F. Bennett's nieces.

William Templeton of Brownsville is home from Salem, improved in health.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Ralph Lawrence)

Rev. M. S. Woodworth and Frank Darling motored to Creswell Friday, returning Saturday. While there they visited Mr. Woodworth's daughter Elaine, who is attending school there, and Mrs. Moyer, daughter of Mr. Darling. Since returning Mr. Darling has been quite ill at his home with a bad cold.

Miss Edna Boggie of Lebanon entered high school last Monday as a junior. The juniors smiled, for their class is so small that they are glad to welcome new members.

The parent-teachers' association met last Friday night in the high school auditorium. So few were present, owing to the lack of publicity, that the election of officers was postponed until the next meeting. The chief topic for the evening was "how to obtain a ball ground for our baseball boys." The subject will be up again next meeting.

The Brownsville high school football team tied the game with Stayton at that town Friday. The next game of the local players will be with Corvallis at Corvallis.

The Camp Fire Girls will meet at the home of their guardian Friday evening after school. It is a business session and all members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Goodman's daughter, Mrs. Ella Stanley, returned to her home in Portland Sunday. She has been visiting relatives in Brownsville for the past three weeks.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a baazar and cooked food sale December 9, at Howe's store.

C. C. Snyder has been nominated for mayor of Brownsville, Frank McFarland recorder, Delos Coshov treasurer, Henry Blakely marshal, Dr. J. W. Shelton and Leon Morse councilmen from the first ward, A. B. Warren and W. W. Robe from the second and J. B. Howe and W. C. Elmore from the third.

Mrs. Morhinweg and Mrs. Wallace spent Friday afternoon at the county seat. The Wallace children spent the afternoon at the home of their uncle Homer and wife at Shedd.

Grace Wallace, who spent the summer with her grandparents, the Rectors, is recovering from appendicitis.

Mrs. Charlie Farwell of Portland spent several days with Mr. Farwell's parents, Hi Farwell and wife.

An enterprise that promises to add more to the value of property in Linn county than three times its cost put into the Pacific highway, good as is the work on that, is the grading and rocking now in progress on a road from Harrisburg east to the foothills, over which products may be hauled to that city and the railroad any day in the year.

The pavement to Alford is completed except the shoulder work, and the entire job to Shedd will probably be done in about a week. It will be about a month before the southern portion of the Halsey-Alford stretch will have set so as to be open to travel. It is of concrete and it is a joy to ride over the portion of it that is already open.

The new officers of the Women of Woodcraft are Mrs. Adda Ringo president, Mrs. B. J. Hill adviser, Louise Rohne clerk, Ada Corcoran magician, Agnes Brown musician, Laura Braumwell captain of the guards, Louise Taylor attendant, Edith Robnett banker, Mrs. J. W. Bressler inside sentinel, Hazel Templeton, Jane White and Sarah Robertson managers.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 29

MESSIAH'S MINISTRY (WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY)

LESSON TEXT—Isa. 61:1-2. GOLDEN TEXT—Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.—Prov. 14:24. REFERENCE MATERIAL—Mat. 7:14-20; Rom. 14:13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How Four Boys Became Healthy and Happy.—Dan. 1:3-20. JUNIOR TOPIC—Destroying the World's Enemy.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Next Step in the Prohibition Campaign. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Progress of Prohibition Throughout the World.

The lesson committee has gratefully named this lesson "World-wide Prohibition." Neither the text nor the context, directly or implied, says anything about prohibition as we understand the use of the word. However, when Messiah shall reign upon the earth the rum traffic with all other iniquitous practices will be abolished.

1. Messiah's Commission (v. 1). He was appointed by the Lord. God's plan for the world is a time of peace and blessing.

2. Messiah's Program (vv. 1, 2). Messiah's program is twofold: to "proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God." The careful reading of Luke 4:18-21 will show that Jesus suspended reading of this passage at the comma, in Isaiah 61:2. His first coming opened up the day of "grace and the acceptable year of the Lord," and His second coming will usher in "the day of vengeance of our God." (II Thess. 1:7-10; cf. Mal. 3:1-3).

1. Proclaiming the Acceptable Year of the Lord (vv. 1, 2). In His ministry of grace He preached (1) "good tidings to the meek," "Meek here means not only a grace, but a condition, that is, those in poverty and affliction. (2) "Bind up the brokenhearted." "Bind up" signifies healing. (3) "Liberty to the captives." The figure of deliverance from the Babylonian captivity is used to describe deliverance from sin and death (Heb. 2:15). (4) "Opening of the prison to them that are bound." Messiah's work was to give deliverance to those who were enslaved by the consequences of their sins. (5) "The acceptable year of the Lord." This means a space of time in which God would accept all who repent of their sins and come to Him.

2. Proclaiming the day of vengeance of God (v. 2). While the day of mercy is lengthened out, the time of judgment will surely come. The day of vengeance will break upon the world when the Lord shall be revealed from heaven (II Thess. 1:7-10). The period of mercy is called "year," while the period of vengeance is called "day," showing that the period of mercy is much longer than the period of wrath.

3. The Blessings of Messiah's Kingdom (vv. 3-6).

1. "Comfort all that mourn" (v. 2). The day of vengeance will bring sorrow to many, but they shall be comforted when they shall see the King on the throne.

2. "Give unto them beauty for ashes" (v. 3). This peculiarly applies to Israel.

3. "Oil of Joy for Mourning" (v. 3). Israel has been mourning for centuries. When the Messiah shall reign as King they shall be glad.

4. "Garment of Praise for the Spirit of Heaviness" (v. 3). Instead of wearing the symbol of the burden of sin they shall be clothed so as to indicate their joyfulness.

5. "Called Trees of Righteousness" (v. 3). These trees represent Israel as planted by God and bearing fruit, not as reeds bowed down with sorrow.

6. "They Shall Build the Old Wastes" (v. 4). Israel shall return to their own land and shall rebuild the city of Jerusalem and the cities of Judah which lie waste.

7. "Strangers Shall Stand and Feed Your Flocks" (v. 5). In the time of the kingdom the Gentiles shall render voluntary service unto Israel so that Israel may devote her whole time to the service of God.

8. "Ye Shall Be Named the Priests of the Lord" (v. 6). God chose Israel to be the priestly nation to represent Him to the Gentiles.

9. "For Your Shame Ye Shall Have Double" (v. 7). Instead of the shame and confusion which Israel has experienced for centuries she shall have double honor and rejoicing.

10. "I Will Direct Their Work, and Make a Covenant With Them" (vv. 8, 9). God will vindicate His people and cause the Gentiles to see the divine favor upon them.
