SQUIRTLESS GRAPEFRUIT

The Department of Agriculture is turning its attention to the tangerine and grapefruit that in appearance resembles a round orange.
There are two varieties, according to the Scientific American, the Sampson and the Thornton; the latter is less acid than the former, but both are delicious in flavor, while the Thornton exhibits little tendency to squirt when the spoon is inserted in the segment.

"Sure. That won't hurt your

the fact that you spent two years on the stage as a chorus man."—Bir-

Candidates for Governor

When a candidate for public office makes a campaign promising what he will do if elected, it is fitting and proper that the voter examine the public records to ascertain whether or not the candidate's record squares with his campaign promises. In the present campaign Candidate Pierce professes to be the apostle of lower taxes.

Mr. Pierce's Record

1. Of the $9,376,000 of state taxes for 1922, Mr. Pierce specifically approved of $8,564,039. This is 92 per cent of the total. Mr. Pierce had no opportunity to vote on the other 8 per cent, as he was not a member of the legislature when it was up for vote.
2. He voted for 97 per cent of all tax appropriation bills of the 1919 session of the legislature, and for all the appropriation bills of the special session of 1920.
3. The State Highway Commission now works without pay. Mr. Pierce introduced a bill to pay the commissioners $12,000 a year.
4. He voted to submit a bond issue of $400,000 for a new penitentiary. Governor Olcott has repaired the old one with convict labor at no tax expense.
5. Mr. Pierce claims he wishes to relieve real estate of the tax burden; yet he is the author of a bill submitted to the legislature which would exempt from all taxation moneys, notes, credits and accounts.
6. In the last few years he voted for 185 salary increases.
7. He voted against the bills to consolidate the state bureaus and commissions.
8. He introduced a bill providing for the most elaborate commission any state ever had. He specifically provided "to secure every citizen of Oregon an opportunity at all times to work for the state," and provided a $5,000 salary for the head of the commission. This bill was purely Socialistic.
9. In the 1917, 1919 and 1920 sessions of the legislature there were appropriation bills introduced totaling $10,552,000. Of these Senator Pierce voted for $10,075,000.

Measured by every standard, Mr. Pierce is the most consistent little tax booster the state of Oregon ever had.

Mr. Olcott's Record

1. He introduced a change in the state secretary's report which has saved the state many thousands of dollars since 1912.
2. His renovation of the penitentiary saved the state nearly half a million dollars.
3. He secured funds for a training school building for the Boys' Institute without a single dollar or additional taxes.
4. He is the originator of the Oregon Blue Sky Law, which saves the Oregon people millions of dollars annually.
5. He was responsible for the wopping of junketing trips by state officials at state expense.
6. He secured the passage of a budget law effecting large economies in the state government, which could not otherwise be accomplished.
7. The change in the State Sessions Law, recommended by him, saves the state $10,000 a year.
8. He has been universally commended for the excellence of his official appointments.
9. He is responsible for changes in the administration of the state farms, which this year brought returns of $491,000 into the state.
10. He has shown himself, by his acts, a friend of the ex-service men, has warmly supported the bonus measure, and has administered the law in the interest of the ex-service men with honesty and efficiency.
11. He has taken the first real constructive step in the equalization of the state tax situation by the appointment of a committee of experts to investigate and report to the legislature the entire scope of the tax problem in this state, thus assuring that any changes to be made will be made along sane, conservative and constructive lines, which give far more promise of securing results than demagogic bawling and idle campaign promises such as are being made by the non-partisan candidate of the Democratic party, especially in the light of his record as the champion tax producer of the state of Oregon.

Vote for Olcott for GOVERNOR

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

God gave parents their children

Governments cannot rightfully take them away

AMERICA has always stood for the protection of natural and inalienable rights, among which none is so sacred as that of parents over their children.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN said:
"The Family is the corner-stone of social order and the guarantee of public safety. No Government can take the place of the Parent, and should never be permitted to usurp it." (Speech at Quincy, Ills., 1859.)

The results of the campaign against the so-called Compulsory Education Bill, which is in fact a Bill to Establish State Monopoly of Education, may be grouped under two heads:

Facts demonstrated

- 1. The FACTS DEMONSTRATED, no longer seriously disputed by anybody, are these: That the Bill was given a False Title, to mislead the public and deceive the voters.
- 2. That it in no respect pretends to improve the existing law as to the Public Schools, but simply destroys the Private Schools.
- 3. That not one cent of public money goes to the support of any private or parochial school in this State, or ever has, or ever can, under the plain prohibition of the Constitution and laws.
- 4. That it will increase taxation at least $1,000,000 each year, and require from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 investment in new public school buildings.
- 5. That it vests in the County Superintendents arbitrary and unappealable power to grant special privileges to the wealthy and influential, by which they will be exempt from the law.
- 6. That it will prevent parents from educating their children in private schools both inside and outside of the State, as they cannot even send their children elsewhere to be educated.
- 7. That so far from being united in support of the Bill, the Masonic Fraternity in the State is divided, many of the leading Masons are openly opposed to it, and the Grand Master of the State Grand Lodge has publicly denied that the Grand Lodge endorsed it.
- 8. That the best elements in the social, religious, educational, and political life of the State are opposed to the measure.
- 9. That the educational leaders, inside and outside of the State, are opposed to the Bill. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University, says: "It should be called a Bill to render the American system of education impossible in Oregon." The Presidents of Yale, Princeton, Chicago, Leland Stanford and other great Universities have emphatically condemned it.
- 10. That the private schools, under the existing law, are required to conform their course of studies to the public schools standards, the English language is made compulsory, and they are subject to the inspection and supervision of the State authorities.
- 11. That the proposed law will close up every orphan asylum, home for defective and dependent children, and other private charities, where any elementary instruction of the inmates is attempted.
- 12. That it destroys the rights of minorities, the most vital and valuable principle of Americanism, and the one that has preserved this country from the tyranny of Old World Governments.

Arguments unanswered

1. THE LUTHERAN ARGUMENT: "If you see fit to send your child to a school in which your religion is taught, not one day in the week, but every day, and the whole training of the child is permeated by such religion, the State, under the Constitution, must not prohibit you from so doing. This bill is manifestly unconstitutional."
2. THE PORTLAND CITIZENS AND TAXPAYERS' ARGUMENT: "If the number of children now attending the public schools is to be increased by adding those now taught in the private schools, it is inevitable that overcrowding must result unless new buildings are supplied, and it is also certain that taxes must be materially increased."
3. ST HELEN'S HALL (EPISCOPAL) ARGUMENT: "No invidious fact or condition affecting public interest has been called to our attention that would furnish in the slightest degree an excuse for the proposed legislation."
4. THE PRINCIPALS OF PRIVATE SCHOOLS' ARGUMENT: "It is against the best American ideals of freedom, in that it denies to men and women freedom of thought and action in the choice of environment and influences for their children."
5. THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS' ARGUMENT: "We know not at all certain that a man educated in the public school is more intelligent than if he were educated in a private or sectarian school. We have heard no convincing argument that a person is necessarily more patriotic if educated in a public school, than if he were educated in a school not supported by public taxation."
6. THE CATHOLIC ARGUMENT: "There is no occasion now for agitation that will estrange old friends and neighbors, and that will divide our people into classes and factions. No greater misfortune can befall us than movements calculated to create divisions."
7. THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS' ARGUMENT: "It is based on the philosophy of autocracy—that the child belongs primarily to the State. It is an unjustifiable invasion of family authority, and threatens ultimately the guarantee of our American liberty."

The foregoing "Negative Arguments" are as strong today as when written and filed. They remain unshaken and unshakable after three months of public discussion.

The great International Convention of the Episcopal Church, meeting in Portland recently, adopted strong and unequivocal resolutions condemning this bill.

The State Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at its meeting in Salem last August, refused to entertain any movement looking to an endorsement of the bill, by the express ruling of the Presiding Bishop.

Upon the foregoing statement of the case we invoke the fair and intelligent judgment of the voters of Oregon, confident of the result if a regard for the inherited and fundamental principles of reasonable liberty are to prevail in this state.
