W. A. Ringo Dead

Friday afternoon W. A. Ringo, feeling ill, went home after 2 o'clock to go to bed. Mrs. Ringo remaining to care for the drugstore. Returning home at 6 she found Mr. Ringo lying unconscious at the foot of the stairs that led up to the bedroom. He was bruised about the head and body, having evidently had a fall downstairs. He had received severe injuries on the head and one hip, and two ribs were broken.

Dr. Marks was called in but, as Ringo did not regain consciousness, he was taken to an Albany hospital next day. His wife and a brother accompanying him.

He died soon after reaching the hospital, having shown no sign of intelligence since the accident.

The coroner did not deem an inquest necessary. The funeral was in Salem Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church there, of which the deceased was a member. Friends in Halsey sent some beautiful flowers. Interment was at Gervais.

Mr. Ringo was a genial man to transact business with, agreeable socially and strictly reliable in business matters.

Mr. Ringo leaves his widow, his aged mother, two brothers and a sister. He was born at Gervais 46 years ago. The Ringos had been married ten years.

Mrs. Ringo will continue to conduct the drugstore for the present. James Rector, a registered pharmacist, will attend to the prescription department.

Licenses for motor vehicles for 1923 should be applied for early. Should an application be filed in the last week of the year the license may be delayed by the rush in the secretary of state's office and it will be a violation of law to run a vehicle without the 1923 license after Jan. 1 next, no matter what the cause.

Miss Ruth Frum is suffering from the flu.

(By Ralph Lawrence)

Little Lester and Marjory Stewart of Vale spent Thursday and Friday with their sisters, Mrs. Neil Turner and Miss Gladys Stewart, third and fourth and fifth grade teachers on the north side. Mrs. Turner and Miss Stewart took the children home Friday evening and spent the week end there.

Dave Callaway entertained his grade at his home halloween night. All the grade were present and had an enjoyable time. They had rather a strenuous time having that enjoyable time, as the sixth and eighth grades and some of the freshies were determined to break up the party. However, this failed. After an evening spent in games, Mrs. Callaway served cake, lemonade and apples. The children left thanking Dave and hoping he'll do it again.

Logan Callaway moved his household goods to the farm owned by Burl Callaway, recently vacated by Ned Callaway. The Callaway property here in town is for rent.

The Prof. Starr orchestra is progressing so nicely they appear and play in public. They already furnished the music for the evening when Governor Olcott spoke at the show hall last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dr. Waltz entertained her Sunday school class at her home Wednesday night. Music and games were played and at a late hour refreshments were served. During the serving the lights went out. Nevertheless, all left declaring Mrs. Waltz an admirable hostess.

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting in the Christian church Sunday night, inviting the several churches of the town. They showed what they had been doing during the past year in order to destroy the illicit liquor traffic. Coming as it did before election, it gave the patrons a chance to think before they voted. The church was well filled, and the program was enjoyed.

The football boys won the game against Harrisburg Friday afternoon by a score of 48 to 0. A number of the boys were "knocked out." Charley Robertson suffered a misplaced bone in his elbow joint. However, Charley said he thought maybe he could play Friday, when the local team goes to Eugene.

The Harrisburg cheese factory is to run again this week or next.

THE CHENEY PHONOGRAPH, better known as the "phonograph with a soul" is the ideal music machine for the home. Plays any make of records with the same clearness and sweetness of tone. Ask us for prices. Something new is the Geer Repeater, to be used on any standard talking machine with 10-inch records. Is made of steel heated to glass hardness. Will repeat same record indefinitely. When in Albany let us demonstrate this Repeater.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 12

JESUS THE GREAT TEACHER

GOLDEN TEXT—Luke 6:20-49.
GOLDEN TEXT—As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6:31.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 5:1-12; John 3:2; 6:58; 7:45; Col. 2:3.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us to Love Everybody.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Living by the Golden Rule.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Golden Rule in Everyday Life.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us How to Live Together.

I. Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 20-26).
Only those who are subjects of the Kingdom know what blessedness is. The spiritual experience of the subjects of the Kingdom are marked by the following steps:

1. Poverty of Spirit (v. 20). This means consciousness of one's lost condition and worthlessness. It is spiritual bankruptcy. It means to come to the end of self and to show sorrow for sins.
2. Hunger for Righteousness (v. 21). The one who has come to know his poverty desires the true righteousness of Christ.

3. Weeping Because of His Lack (v. 21). This is the godly sorrow which worketh repentance (II Cor. 7:10). Those who thus sorrow are assured that they shall laugh.

4. Treatment Which the Subjects of the Kingdom May Expect (vv. 22, 23). When the subjects of the Kingdom become like the King they imitate the hatred, contempt and persecution of the world. Those who pass through this for Christ's sake should rejoice, for there is great reward laid up for them.

5. The Governing Principles of the Kingdom (vv. 27-35).

1. Love Your Enemies (v. 27). To love friends is easy, but to love enemies is only possible to those who have been made partakers of the divine nature.
2. Do Good to Those Who Hate You (v. 27). Love acts according to its own nature. Enmity only stimulates love to act in harmony with its own laws.
3. Bless Them That Curse You (v. 28). Injury by words is hard to let go unchallenged.
4. Pray for Them Which Despitefully Use You (v. 28). Christ's own example is the best commentary on this precept (Luke 23:34; cf. Acts 7:60).
5. Patiently Endure Wrong and Injury (v. 29). The Christian is not to bristle up in defense of his rights, but rather to suffer insult, injury and even loss. This should not be pressed so far that evildoers can go unchecked. It expresses the law which should govern individual action.
6. Give to Every One That Asketh (v. 30). This does not necessarily mean that the thing asked for should be given. We should give to every one that asketh, but not necessarily the thing asked for.
7. Do as You Wish to Be Done By (v. 31). This is called the "Golden Rule." If men were to live by this rule the labor problem would be solved. An end would be put to war. International relations would be peacefully adjusted and all profiteering in business would end.
8. Be Merciful (v. 36). The mercy of the Heavenly Father is the grand example.
9. Censorious Judgment Condemned (v. 37). We should not seek out the evil in others for our satisfaction.
10. Danger of Following False Teachers (v. 39). The one who does not know God and the way to heaven will lead others to ruin. Happily, we have the Scriptures, and the Holy Spirit is ready to make their meaning known, so there is no excuse.
11. Those Who Reprove Others Should Strive to Live Blameless Lives (vv. 31-46). It is easy to see others' faults, but hard to see our own.
12. The Sin of Profession Without Fruits (v. 46). The one who professes a life and fellowship with God should practice the principles which reveal the nature of God.

13. The Judgment to Be Applied to the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 47-49).
1. The one who hears and does the sayings of Christ the King shall be as secure as the house built upon the solid rock. The storms of the judgment cannot destroy him, for the Rock of Ages is immovable.
2. The one who hears and does not the sayings of Christ shall be overwhelmed in the judgment and go down to utter ruin and destruction.

Northwest Newsies

A cousin of Mr. W. A. Muller, accompanied by two other young men from Canada, spent a day or two last week with the Muller family. They were en route to California.

W. A. Muller was a business caller at the county seat last Thursday.

A. F. and O. J. Albertson received the sad news that an aunt at Newberg passed away Saturday morning.

Garrett Mesman and wife of Albany spent Saturday with Mrs. Mesman's sister, Mrs. W. A. Muller, who has been quite ill but is much better at this writing.

Addison Fox and wife visited at the Muller home Sunday, returning to the county capital Monday morning.

William Zellmer spent Monday at the county seat.

O. J. Albertson helped his brother Arthur butcher a beef Monday.

Benna Albertson must be thinking some of starting to school. She visited Harmony school Monday afternoon and Oak Plain school Tuesday.

Tracy Zellmer was absent from school Tuesday on account of sickness.

Did you vote Tuesday? If you didn't don't kick about who is elected.

Mrs. G. T. Kitchen entertained the sewing circle Thursday afternoon.

F. O. Salmon and family spent Sunday afternoon at the Collins home.

Mrs. Anna Safley and two children spent several days visiting relatives in Albany this week.

J. S. Van Winkle, county assessor, died of heart disease yesterday afternoon at his home in Albany. He was well known in Halsey, having been born near this city 66 years ago.

Word came Friday to Bert Minckley, who lives about five miles west of town, that his brother, who is taking medical treatment in Portland, was critically ill. Mr. Minckley made a trip to the Oregon metropolis but, as his wife was alone and there was no body to care for his stock, he was obliged to hasten home again.

Clarence Evans came to town and had some printing done Monday, among other activities.

Try a Change in Oregon Politics

Pierce is elected governor. In Albany the vote was almost 3 to 1 in his favor and against Olcott.

The compulsory education bill carried by a large majority.

The republicans retain control of the lower house of congress, but by a reduced majority.

President Harding's district elected a democrat to congress.

Moore got three more votes in Brownsville than Dunlap.

Thad Sterling was elected mayor of Lebanon.

In Illinois, Wisconsin, New York and California wets were elected to congress, but that does not make congress wet.

The democrats gained ten members in the Oregon assembly and two in the house.

In New York the democratic candidate for governor defeated the republican incumbent.

Ohio voted down an act favoring light wines and beer, but Harding's state gives a much reduced republican vote.

The democrats have made great gains in Massachusetts but it is believed Lodge will squeeze back into the federal senate.

A heavy stream of mud and falsehood was sent against Sam Garland in the senatorship, as against Pierce in that for governor, and in each case it proved a boom-orang, for both men were elected.

The democrats gained nine governorships.

W. J. Dunlap was elected sheriff by a big majority.

Fred Flek of Eugene is the new senator from the joint district of Linn and Lane counties.

Halsey elected Bert S. Clark mayor, E. F. Cross recorder, Douglas Taylor treasurer, J. W. Rector marshal and O. W. Frum, G. W. Mornhawe and Henry Zimmerman councilmen.

Poindexter was beaten for senator from Washington by a man named Dill and the Albany Herald thinks he may have been pickled by Dill.

Hiram Johnson is re-elected in California.

Beveridge is defeated by his democratic opponent in Indiana.
