Happenings in Linn County Generally and in Halsey Particularly

Mrs. Florence Hale is nurse at the English home in Halsey.

Chancy Sickels offers his nearly new thrashing machine for sale. He is too busy to run it.

During the vacation season Dr. Kirshman will be in his Halsey office afternoons only, Tuesdays and Fridays.

Brandon district elected Fred Falk to succeed F. W. Robinson as director and re-elected Chas. Sickels clerk.

W. A. Carey will have a big auction sale of land, livestock and farm equipment one week from today, June 28, four miles southeast of Halsey. It is advertised in this paper. He is reducing his holdings and cares.

Mrs. Mayme Robertson, of Tacoma, well known here and granddaughter of Mrs. Bassett, was knocked down by a Shell oil truck in her home city Wednesday of last week and one arm broken above the elbow, one leg broken below the knee and several ribs, three toes and an ankle broken. She was in a hospital and doing well at last accounts.

Mrs. Geer, county school superintendent, was ill and unable to conduct the examinations for state teachers' certificates, and Mrs. Ida M. Cummings, her predecessor in the position, officiated. Mrs. Geer is slowly improving.

Rev. C. T. Cook had a letter from John Standish at Wenatchee. John is in the Y. M. C. A. there and is enthusiastic in the work. He rooms at the Y building. The foregoing was left out for want of room when the Enterprise went to press last week. Since then this office received a letter from John. He is as enthusiastic as ever about the work, the pay and the prospects. He is stereotyping, running a power press and doing all kinds of work in a daily newspaper printing office.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Holstein breeders association will be held at Corvallis June 22. The annual Holstein picnic is also slated for the same day.

You won't see a longer day than this.

The addition to T. J. Skirvin's warehouse is about complete.

Thus far George Laubner has laid in four carloads of stovewood for winter.

Lon Chamles, the new pastor of the Christian church, preached his first sermons there Sunday to good audiences. He comes to Halsey from Perrydale, about ten miles north of Dallas, where he had been pastor since last fall. He went to Perrydale from El Monte, near Los Angeles, where he had been pastor three and one-half years.

A. C. and L. H. Armstrong and their wives and Hazel, daughter of the younger couple, went to Albany Thursday afternoon and had an X-ray picture taken of Hazel's lungs to aid the doctors in deciding how to treat them. She is just about holding her own at present and it will take her some time to monia to recover from the pneumonia.

Fourth-class postmasters have been appointed for Oregon as follows: Leland, Josephine county, Kirby K. Trozel; Waterloo, Linn county; John R. Turpin, Jr.

ASH SWALE GAME MEETING

F. M. Brown represented the state game commission at the Sportsman's meeting at Ash swale Friday night. He said about $300,000 a year is collected for licenses and fines, half of which goes to the counties and half to the commission. In three years that body has increased the fish hatcheries of the state from seven to sixteen. He pointed out that eleven dams in this county are without fish ladders and their owners liable to fines. A strong sentiment showed itself for enforcement of the fish-ladder law and for a closed season for quail.

F. C. Stellmacher, president of the Santiam association, presided. W. W. Poland outlined the history of the Ash Swale Hunt club, first formed for war on predatory animals and birds.

During the year six or seven thousand trout have been liberated in Linn county waters.

Waldo Anderson, Ed. S. Hawker, I. V. McAdoo, J. R. Gamble, and N. H. Bateman were speakers. The banquet was declared "scrumptious."

Not Race Suicide

In Washington county, in this state, reside Mrs. Fellows of Strassel, 18 years old and the mother of twins; her mother, Mrs. Mattie Harper of Gales City, aged 32, who was a mother at 14, and Mrs. Rose Forrest of Huxton, aged 46, great-grandmother of the twins and mother and grandmother respectively of Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Fellows. Mrs. Forrest, the great-grandmother, like Mrs. Harper, was a mother at 14 years of age.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Ralph Lawrence)

Mrs. C. J. Howe and daughter Emma returned Sunday from the rose festival at Portland.

Marvel Lawrence returned from Albany college Sunday. She expects to attend the normal school at Monmouth next year.

Mayor Snyder, S. M. Thompson, Dr. Shelton, Thomas Miller and a number of others from here attended the big gathering at the Ash Swale hunt club Friday.

At the annual school meeting Monday Vitz Ramsdell was elected as the new director. Harry Poland was elected clerk.

Mrs. Cecil Harrison entertained Mrs. Hazel Moyer at her home in honor of both their birthdays Wednesday, June 20.

Milton Howe and wife have a daughter born June 12.

Darrell Sawyer and wife have a son born a week ago Saturday.

Mrs. E. E. Stanard is official nurse for patients of Dr. Garnjobst.

gone to live with a daughter at Houston, British Columbia, Canada. P. Totzauer has closed up practically all his Brownsville affairs and Mrs. Jesse Splawn, three miles north of Brownsville, began harvesting ripe tomatoes June 9.

Peter Bither died Wednesday of last week, aged 85, but the Enterprise did not learn the fact until the paper was out.

E. A. Tonseth, a merchant of Fairbanks, Alaska, was married Tuesday to Ethel, daughter of ex-Mayor White.

H. A. Walker has a new Hupmobile, bought in Portland, and N. H. Bateman of Ash Swale has a new Oakland car.

As usual, the guarantors of the chautauqua have a deficit to make up. It is bigger than ever, but pledges are being given for another year.

A. M. Templeton, his son, William T., and Lillian, widow of Walter Templeton, celebrated their birthdays June 10. The eldest of them became 72, exactly seven months after the editor of the Enterprise did.

Brownsville pioneers who take an interest in this week's picnic range in age from 75 years to 84 years or over and include Job Moore, William Davidson and wife, Rev. J. W. Craig and Mrs. Harriet Cooley.

Aubrey Tussing has been formally admitted to the bar and will practice with his father, who has long been the only attorney at Brownsville and who has been troubled of late with failing vision.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lind, electrician and school-teacher, respectively in Bethel, Alaska, write to Lester Walker and wife, Ethel's parents, that a big baby girl was born to them June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker have returned from Salem to this city to reside.

Mrs. Mary West has come home for a rest after a year and more helping Mrs. English at Halsey.

Leonard Lerwill won the prize for the best local reporting work during the year on the U. of O. paper, the Emerald, at Eugene.

H. C. Davis got home Sunday from his eastern trip. His foster daughter, Mrs. C. W. Standish of Brownsville, stopped to see Salt Lake City and did not arrive here until Tuesday.

Arraignment in the case of the Dunlap murder is set for Monday.

Pie Routs Robber

Mrs. Mary Warner conducts a bakery in Chicago. One evening last week a man came in with his hands in his pockets. "You want a pie?" said she. "I want what's in the cash box," said he, drawing two pistols. Splash went a big strawberry pie over his countenance. Then pies fairly rained upon him until he was thickly covered with the red juice and he dropped the pistols and ran. He got what she had first offered, not what he asked for.

Shedd Shots

By Anna Pennell

Mrs. Emma Gregory returned to Shedd Friday evening after spending the week in Salem and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sprenger were in Albany Wednesday.

Mrs. Irvin Rogers attended the rose festival Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Mrs. L. G. Thompson spent last week in Portland and Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Coates left Saturday for Belknap Springs. They expect to be gone a month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hobbs of Albany were in Shedd Sunday visiting friends.

Mrs. Vern Arnold and daughter, Lurleen, returned Saturday from the rose city.

Miss Estelle Satchwell returned last week from Walker, where she had been teaching school.

David Porter of Albany is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Ida Brassfield.

Mrs. A. D. Pease and children, who formerly lived in Shedd, visited at the home of Mrs. Ad. Nelson last week.

John Standish is gaining fame and winning recognition due to the painting he is working on. The canvas reveals an Indian maid meeting her lover after a trip up the lake. Miss June Anderson, formerly of Eugene, has been posing for him, and friends declare that the painting will be a stepping stone for the artist's future if he will follow that as a profession.—Lake Chelan (Wash.) dispatch in yesterday's Democrat.

State Senator Garland and his wife, son and daughter plan to start Saturday on a tour of the United States, visiting a daughter and sister in Los Angeles and Mr. Garland's old home in Virginia as parts of more or less extended call on their route.

Captain Frank L. Culin, 31st infantry, stationed in the Philippines, has been ordered to Oregon as assistant professor of military science at the University of Oregon.

Members of the Oregon public service commission have set July 20 as the date for resuming the hearing of the rate case involving the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

Six or seven inches of new snowfall on the mountain peaks west of Halsey has caused a chill to come over the Powder river valley which has checked the progress of growing crops.

A campaign for the colonization of 8000 acres of land reclaimed through the completion of an addition to the water supply of the Tumalo project has been decided on by the district directors.

In a special election the taxpayers of Medford voted against issuance of $160,000 in bonds for a new high school. The proposition was lost by 27 votes, there being 372 for it and 399 against.

With more than 400 delegates in attendance from all sections of the state the 73d annual communication of the grand lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons held a three-day session in Portland.

As the result of a mass meeting held at Richland approximately $23,500 was raised by residents of that section to be used in a reorganization of the Eagle Valley state bank, which recently closed its doors.

The first sheep deal of any consequence near Bend for the present season was reported in the purchase by Pat Reilly of Shaniko of 3200 head of lambs at a price understood to have been close to $45,000.

The University of Oregon at Eugene has established a course in radio-physicists, designed to train graduate students for positions as radio-physicists, research specialists and executives in the radio field.

Death and fire followed in the wake of the festival regatta on the Willamette river at Portland, when a boy was drowned, a speedy racer burned to the water's edge and another sunk within sight of 10,000 persons.

The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company has filed with the public service commission a protest against the proposed establishment of a grade crossing over its tracks near Grass Valley, Sherman county.

Several changes in the opening and closing of the hunting seasons for the coming year have been made by the state game commission. The deer hunting season, instead of opening August 20 as heretofore, next fall will not start until September 10 and will close October 31. A slight change also was made in the bobwhite quail and Chinese pheasant season. It will open October 14 and close October 28. These are the only important game changes.

The appealed case of A. J. Weston, who is serving a life term in the state penitentiary for the murder of Robert Krug at Sisters, Deschutes county, a number of years ago, will be argued before the supreme court June 28.

A SIDE from the visible beauty and authentic style of BON TON corsets comes the question of fit and quality. In the the designer has fashioned with great skill, each one over a perfect living model, so that its fit must be perfection. Combined with highest quality fabrics is Wun-da-bohn, the resilient, rustless boning, which gives the corset its fashionable shape and graceful lines.

KOONTZS GOOD GOODS

It is apparent that in Bon Ton the fit, style and quality are very definite things.
