JOTS AND TITLES

Brief Chronicles of Happenings in Halsey and All Over Linn County.

Mrs. B. S. Clark was on the sick list last week.

Revs. C. G. Morris of Brownsville and C. T. Cook of Halsey exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

Miss Amanda Mitzner is now employed in the D. H. Sturtevant store.

Mrs. A. J. Hill is recovering from a severe cold, which confined her to her bed for several days.

James Rector has been on the sick list since he returned from Portland the first of the week.

Former residents of Linn county, members of the Albany, Brownsville and Lebanon societies, will hold their annual picnic at Laurelhurst park Saturday, July 28, starting at 4 o'clock.—Albany Democrat

Miss Laura Ross of Salem visited Marie Sneed a part of last week. She was taken home Monday over the highway by Miss Sneed, Ercell and her father, accompanying her. Incidentally they looked over the asylum and penitentiary grounds, also taking in other points of interest.

Mrs. E. J. Forsythe of Woodburn and daughter Irene, Miss Lucille Cosby of Ellwood City, Pa., and Earl Frum, arrived here Monday night from a trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon marble caves. They spent the night with Mrs. Callie Frum, a sister of Mrs. Forsythe. They found roads to both the lake and caves excellent and declare the trip is well worth while.

William Kimball of Eugene was a guest at the H. L. Straley home last week. His mother, who will be remembered as a school teacher here a few years ago, is now attending summer school at Monmouth, and his father had gone there for a visit when the son stopped here.

J. C. Standish was at the county seat Monday.

Miss Marie Sneed returned this week to Seattle, where she will again take up her work in the library.

Mrs. D. H. Sturtevant and three daughters returned Sunday from their stay at Broton Springs.

Mrs. B. S. Clark and daughter Georgia spent Tuesday with Mrs. Clark's sister, Mrs. Henry Brock, in the country.

Mrs. Marley Sutton and children of Hamilton, Ore., left for their home Tuesday, after a visit with friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fred Taylor returned to her home in Corvallis Friday and expected to leave soon with friends for Pacific City and Rainier Park on an outing.

Mrs. E. J. Forsythe and daughter Irene, Miss Lucille Cosby of Ellwood City, Pa., and Earl Frum, arrived here Monday night from a trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon marble caves. They spent the night with Mrs. Callie Frum, a sister of Mrs. Forsythe. They found roads to both the lake and caves excellent and declare the trip is well worth while.

State director Graves of the Salvation Army, with headquarters in Portland, and a band of instrumental music have been touring this part of the state, giving sacred songs and exhortations. He reported that at Eugene Sunday sixty persons went forward for prayers. The band, numbering half a dozen or more men, gave a service here Monday evening on the corner of Second and I streets and soon after opening were unexpectedly joined by three lassies, one of whom they greeted as "Sister White of Eugene." Mr. Graves said this was the bands third service that day, so it is presumed they halted at Junction City and Harrisburg on the way here. Graves cautions the public against giving contributions for the army to solicitors who do not show credentials, as some unauthorized parties have been collecting funds in its name.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Ralph Lawrence)

Mrs. J. C. Howe and daughter Emma went to Columbia City for a few days' visit and to take in the Baptist convention. Rev. W. P. Elmore is also attending the convention.

Albert Payne's team ran away and he jumped from the wagon and injured his arm so seriously that a doctor had to be called.

J. C. Harrison sold one of his fine registered heifers to Lyman Howe last week.

The Baptist pulpit is still vacant. The pastor, Rev. M. S. Woodworth, is at Palo Alto, Cal., visiting the J. G. Anderson family. Mr. Anderson writes that they both are painting, making $10 a day. [Since the foregoing was written Mr. Woodworth has returned.—Editor.]

Because the canneries have turned down the loganberries the local berry men have thrown open their fine fields to the public. It seems too bad, after all the hard work raising them. Tom Miller's field, north of town, has been so well cultivated that it has hard a weed in it.

Mrs. Ivan Payne entertained Mrs. Fred Harrison and Mrs. Alice Moore and little son Max at dinner Wednesday.

W. P. Elmore, 72, and J. W. Craig, 78, both ministers, have been helping in the hayfields.

Ruth Frum of Halsey was visiting at her Uncle Ray's last week.

Neighbors saved F. E. Harrison's hay crop, he being incapacitated by that badly chopped hand.

Moss King joined the Eugene Co-operative Fruitgrowers and his logans went to that city this year.

J. W. Cook keeps barred Rock hens. A pullet hatched on Washington's birthday laid her first egg July 4. Patriotic bird!

R. L. White and Mrs. Ora Fetzle, married last week, will reside at Pendleton.

The nasty earwig has appeared in several places in this city.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook went Friday to a meeting of more than forty Shropshire sheep breeders, which, starting from the George Armstrong place, near Corvallis, visited O. A. C. and other places where Shropshires are bred, lunched in Albany at noon. They visited Scio in the afternoon, spent the night at Stayton and Silverton and next day viewed flocks in that part of the country. Dr. Cook advertises some Shropshires for sale in the Enterprise.

Mrs. John Spring of Oakland, Cal., after a visit at Sweet Home and at the residence of J. W. Ross of Brownsville, was taken to Halsey Monday by Mr. Ross to take the train for home.

Mrs. Darrrell Sawyer went to Walla Walla Monday to bring home two of her children, who have been visiting her mother there.

John Osborne of San Pedro, Cal., and Mrs. C. F. Crow of Turlock, same state, after a visit in Brownsville with the Talent family, were taken to Halsey Monday by J. O. Talent to take the train for Portland and Chehalis, from whence they will return to their homes.

Villa Gets His Medicine

Francisco Villa and four men with him in an auto were killed by bullets from a house they were passing Friday morning.

August Sunset pertinently remarks that John Hays Hammond as chairman of the coal commission is "trying to find out how too many miners can get a living wage for producing too little coal in a land that counts its coal somewhere in the trillion tons."

That's simple. Cinch the consumer.

Shedd Shots

(By Anna Pennell)

Glen Hill and family spent the week end at Belknap springs.

Mr. Widdows and family of Barlow visited their son, Abe Widdows, who is working at Saddle Butte.

Ellen Speerstra left Sunday to visit friends in Canby.

C. J. Shedd and family and Mrs. Dora Davis drove to Newport Sunday.

Will Porter and wife, who have been living in Corvallis for some time, have sold their residence there and moved to their former home in Shedd.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoller, with their son Fred and wife of Canby, visited relatives in Shedd on their way to Holley Sunday.

Mrs. I. Roger spent the week end in Albany with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. C. A. Troutman of Albany visited friends in Shedd Wednesday.

Harry Sprenger and family and Mr. Sprenger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sprenger of Albany, went on a picnic at New Era.

The pageant given by the W. P. and M. E. churches Friday night was largely attended and gave people quite an idea of the life in India. The pageant was directed by Miss Dickie, a missionary.

Katherine and John Davis of Albany are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Emma Arnold.

C. J. White and son Booth arrived Sunday from Beck, where Mr. White has charge of a saw mill, and were guests at the Amos Ramsay home. Chris returned to his work Monday night, but Booth will remain for a short visit with his grandfather.

MISUNDERSTANDING

The new girl at the summer resort was being rowed out to the fishing grounds.

"All this sort of thing is new to me," she remarked. "How do you do when you hook a big fish?"

"You have to play him with some skill," answered the girl with the oars. "Don't let him have his head too much. Yield a little to his impetuosity, but keep a firm grasp. Accept his presents, such as candy and the like, but—"

"I was speaking of a real fish, you mean thing!" indignantly exclaimed the other.—Boston Transcript.

PECULIAR AND INTERESTING

Some of the Quips and Quirks Observed by Gleaners of Current News.

Fined for Striking.—Seventy-eight of an English steamer crew were fined $10 each in a Liverpool court last week for striking for more pay before leaving New York for the English city.

Chicago Pest-ridden.—Billions of sand fleas have invaded Chicago's lake front, routing bathers on the beaches, blanketing plate glass windows and swarming about arc lights and electric signs.

Buffalo for Sale.—Starting with sixteen animals nineteen years ago the government buffalo herd in Montana has increased until Uncle Sam has more than he wants to feed and he wants to sell 400.

Some Wheat.—The Portland flour mill bought a quarter of a million bushels of wheat from Ben Grete of Walla Walla last week. If Ben keeps on selling like that his crop will soon be all gone.

The Knout in Georgia.—The grand jury of Colquitt county, Ga., recommends the restoration of flogging in prisons, which the governor abolished by proclamation, and says it is necessary to discipline Georgia toughs are hard to handle.

The Smallest Car.—"The Smallest car in the world" arrived in Junction City Saturday. This car, made by Jack Landon of Los Angeles, is fully equipped, has Continental motor and travels 75 miles an hour. Mr. Landon has traveled 4280 miles and says the car is good for many more. The tires are 21x4.—Junction City Times.

A Christian Crime.—Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy, who was eye witness of the Smyrna horror, says: Not Turkey nor Greece, but the great Christian nations, are to blame for the burning of Smyrna. The great Christian nations had created conditions that made the event inevitable. They sold the munitions that made it possible.

In the Swim.—Merrimac, N. H.—Thomas Patton and Martin Glennon, bricklayers working on new sewer construction here, were swept into the sewer main by the sinking of a sandpile, carried 1300 feet underground and dumped into the Merrimac river unburied. They went beneath the main lines of the Boston and Maine railroad and dropped over twenty-five feet of stone steps at the outlet.

Wimmen et Cetera

Brown
Was a rof
Of fellow
Who indulges in a wife
As a kind of extravagance
Or modern convenience—
So he picked out
A modest, plain young person
To cook his dinner,
Wash his collars
And so forth.

After a while
He unsuspectingly introduced
To his friend,
Who proceeded immediately
To fall in love with her—
And Brown went hungry
And his collars were limp

Likewise—
The experts picked a little guy
Who could easily be knocked
It a few rounds
By a fellow twice his size,
But (it's funny)
And yet—the big boy
Was on the receiving end
Of the Kayo wallop—

(Say, fellows, don't it just take a woman or a prize-fighter to upset the dope?)
—Carmelita Woodworth in Albany Democrat

A Poison.—Make no mistake. Tobacco is a poison that would not be urged upon you if there were not a profit for others in making you a victim. Within my own circle of friends and acquaintances I have known many, or at least several, men whom it has killed. I never met a tobacco user who did not regret that he had formed the habit, but I never met a non-smoker who was sorry that he did not smoke. Isn't that significant? If tobacco is such a fine thing why don't its victims rejoice? Why do not men like Woodrow Wilson hasten to acquire the tobacco habit?—Luther Burbank in Dearborn Independent.

Great Shakes.—At 11:28 Sunday night an earthquake was felt from Los Angeles to the Mexican line and into Arizona, centering at San Bernardino, where $6000 to $10 000 damage was done to buildings and sidewalks. Four people were injured, but none seriously. Redlands was hit $25,000 worth and other towns less. Artesian wells near San Bernardino that had been dry for years gushed forth. Shocks were reported from Vancouver, B. C., and Seattle at the same time. At Hollywood, a dispatch says, the chief damage was to plaster, and modestly, so there must have been some of the latter there.

(Enterprise Correspondence)

B. E. Cogswell and his son Philip and daughter Dorothea Stanton and two children of Portland are at the ranch making hay and harvesting the grain.

Fred Hawk and wife of Riverside, California visited at the Lee Ingram home last week.

A. B. Serflins and wife of Eugene called at the E. D. Isom home Friday evening.

E. A. Starnes and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Starnes, spent Saturday and Sunday at Newport.

Lee Ingram got a piece of steel in his eye one day last week and had to go to Eugene to have it removed.

E. D. Isom and family visited at the home of Mrs. Isom's sister, Mrs. W. C. Sickels, near Rowland, Sunday.

Lee Ingram has installed a telephone in his residence.

Medford Ingram and his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of Silverton, were Sunday guests at the Ingram home. Miss Thelma Ingram accompanied them home for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Willbanks have a new granddaughter, born Sunday, July 15. The young lady's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Harns of Roseburg.

J. H. Rickard and family visited Mrs. Rickard's relatives at Tangent, Sunday.

The Irish Bend ferry has been out of commission for several days, but it was expected that it would be fixed soon.

Mrs. Chester Curtis and children visited her aunt, Mrs. M. M. Tandy, near Harrisburg Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. N. Luby of Springfield and her sister, Mrs. Linnie Cowley of Los Angeles, visited their daughter and niece, Mrs. J. F. Isom, the first of the week.

Wallace Springer and wife, who have been in California all summer, returned and were visiting Mrs. Springer's sister, Mrs. E. A. Sistrone, the first of the week.

He Carried Ballast

Twelve pounds of rock were removed from the body of Bert G. Day of Klamath Falls as the result of an operation performed at a local hospital today. Day was injured last week in a dynamite explosion on the Ashland-Klamath highway, when his companion Glen Nyhart was killed. He has never lost consciousness since the accident took place, but his condition is still precarious.

Mrs. G. Mitzner visited Albany Monday.
