HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUG. 2, 1923

NO. 1

JOTS AND TITLES

Brief Chronicles of Happenings in Halsey and All Over Linn County.

Shedd went to Albany Sunday and got beaten at baseball, 5 to 0.

Work has begun on the Mountain States Power company's 11,000-volt power line to Lebanon.

Tallman postoffice is closed and its patrons are served by adding 4.7 miles to route 5 out of Albany.

Balers are baling and thrashers are thrashing and hay and grain are pouring into the big Halsey warehouses. Amos Ramsay began thrashing at Guy Layton's Monday noon.

Blaine Colburn of Harrisburg, who designed and built the best street scarifier that city ever had, has invented a sprinkler that throws oil on the pavement without getting it on the sidewalk.

A. G. McDaniel was over from Brownsville yesterday after binder repair parts that were due on the noon train.

H. F. English and family and his mother and sister, were at his mother's home in Eugene Sunday.

Dean Tveer and wife (Janet Boggs) visited at Mrs. Tveer's maiden home, the J. W. Morgan residence, Halsey, last week.

The following Halsey people attended the campmeeting at Cottage Grove Sunday: Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Cook and son Claude, Mr. Eliza Brandon, J. P. Templeton and E. E. Carey and wives, B. M. Miller and wife and daughter Gardis and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McWilliams and son Elliott.

The O. A. C. extension department will have an exhibition at the county fair, from which it is hoped farmers will learn lessons of value to them.

Th Cusick & Co. Bank at Albany has been consolidated with the First National Bank, except its savings business, which is taken over by the First Savings Bank. The First National is the oldest bank in the valley and now has $3,000,000 capital.

Miss Clarice Gourley is selling goods at Koonitz'.

Miss Elmer Bennett of Lebanon is visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. H. Robertson, Mrs. E. C. Miller and Mrs. I. E. Gardner.

George Maxwell and W. F. White have just completed a new barn for E. C. Miller.

Martin Anderson of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the E. C. Miller home Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shelley and daughter Thelma of Portland spent the week end at the home of their cousin, Mrs. A. C. Armstrong.

Adrian Smith, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for several months, left for his home in Illinois Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Danley and daughter Joseph and mother, Mrs. J. B. Huston, went Sunday to Broomfield Springs, expecting to remain for several weeks.

Ernest C. Wilson of San Diego passed through Halsey Tuesday on his way to Seattle and Minneapolis. While here he spent a few hours at the C. P. Stafford home.

Bert S. Clark is raising the roof his residence, giving more air space to the rooms on the upper floor and reshingling.

The W. F. M. S., M. E. church, will meet tomorrow at 2 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ribelin. All members are requested to have answers to the mystery question given in July Friend. All invited.

Mrs. Horace Armstrong and daughters went to Roseburg Friday, returning to Oakland that evening and back home Saturday.

Dr. Kirshman found so little dental work to do in Halsey, coming here about the beginning of the vacation, that he has closed the office and taken the outfit home to Harrisburg.

You haven't a moving picture to go to in Halsey, but in an advertisement this week the Globe theater of Albany offers a chance to take in a show every day of the week.

Two Albany boys, 8 and 10 years old, started out Tuesday to see which could steal the most keys from autos in garages. When arrested they had over fifty.

Brownsville Briefs

William E. Shea is playing sheepherder at Susanville, Cal.

The Thomas Woody family killed a large rattlesnake near the home last week.

W. J. Lane has a new Chevrolet coupe and Glenn Rice a touring car of the same make.

Dr. Garajobst changes location again. This time he goes into partnership with Dr. Howard at Salem.

O. P. Coshow, now of Roseburg but well known here, has been appointed Oregon parole commissioner by Governor Pierce.

Dr. W. J. Powell, who retired from practice in Brownsville three years ago and went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Gibson, at Crawfordville, died there last week, aged 73. He was buried from the Starr undertaking parlors.

E. E. White, late mayor, enjoys the fruit of his labor each summer by taking a pleasure trip. This year he and his wife and daughter Blanche have gone to see the state of Washington and Rainier national park.

The Salvation Army charioters who were in Halsey Monday of last week were in Brownsville the next day. Their "chariot" is one of the biggest motor vehicles ever seen in the valley. Wednesday they were in Lebanon.

Mrs. Henry Thompson, although she cannot swim, plunged into the river Thursday and rescued her six-year-old boy, who had got over his depth in trying to save an automobile tire that had rolled into the water while he was playing with it. The little fellow was unconscious when she got him out, but a doctor was able to revive him.

Percy Talent of Portland, while visiting his uncle, J. O. Talent of Brownsville, went swimming in the Calapooia last Sunday and was drowned. Whether he had cramps or had a fit of asthma, to which he was subject, is not known. Brothers took the body home to Portland. His age was 34 years.

Rev. M. T. Nolan of Shedd is to preach at Union Point Sunday at 2:30. Since the revival meetings at Brownsville last winter there have been regular Sunday school and Wednesday evening prayer-meetings at Union Point and usually preaching. Rev. W. P. Elmore frequently preaches there on Sundays.

Dorothy Satchwell spent the week visiting Miss Jenks at Tangent.

Miss Gail Troutman visited at the Pennell home Monday.

SOME BANK SALARIES

Investigations made by the Missouri Bankers Association have revealed that 368 banks in the state in towns of under 2,000 population are paying their cashiers and chief executives an average of only $110 a month. Only 273 of the 1,162 reporting banks in towns under 5,000 population pay the president a salary. The report says: "It indicates that, even allowing for the economy of living in small communities, the cashiers and managing officers of those 1,162 banks, who receive an average of $140 per month, either must have personal means to begin with, or must maintain the standards necessary to their positions as the leaders of their communities and the builders of the commonwealth by means of 'side lines,' such as selling insurance, collecting commissions on farm loans, and trading in real estate."

They've had an earthquake shock in Los Angeles; thus disproving the contention that nothing can shock Hollywood.—Register. But it took God Almighty to do it.—Junction City Times.

PECULIAR AND INTERESTING

Some of the Quips and Quirks Observed by Gleaners of Current News.

Armories not for Debs

George A. White, adjutant-general, has put a quietus on socialist plans for Debs mass meetings in Oregon armories. He advised the representatives of the one-time candidate for president of the United States that they will not be permitted to rent or use any armory in Oregon for such a purpose. He said: While he has been freed by a tolerant government from the cell in which it was found necessary to confine him until our country had passed through its darkest emergency, there is no record of repentance or change of heart on his part and so his name cannot but be offensive to the ears of loyal Americans.

The use of proteins in making milk may be compared to the use of boards in building a house. Boards of various lengths are needed in a house. In building up milk many different amino acids are needed, and usually these can not all be obtained from the protein of one kind of feed, or at least not in the proper proportions to prevent waste.

College Reunion

The second annual reunion of the former students of Mineral Springs college was held in the former college building in Sodaville last Sunday. While the college has been closed for about twenty-two years, there was a goodly number of students, with their families and friends, present. Everyone took lunch and it was then served family style in what was once the home of the business department of the college, with three tables, sixty or seventy feet long, laden down with good things to eat. And be it said, there was not room at these tables for all present to be seated at once.

Among those present were J. R. Geddes, former president of the college, who responded with a lengthy address relative to the origin and history of the school, E. C. Peery of Portland of the class of '96, who acted as toastmaster; R. A. McCully of the same year, who was for several years in business in Halsey, and S. M. Ramsay of Portland and his sisters, Mrs. Esta Ramsay Meyers of Portland and Mrs. Lulu Ramsay Searcy of Condon, of the class of '97, all three of whom are natives of Halsey.

Former students attending from this place were D. H. Sturtevant, class of '97 and C. P. Stafford of '97 in the business department and O. W. Frum, with their families. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Straley were also there.

An increase in yield of more than 48,000 bushels of wheat without extra labor was the reward of farmers in Union County, following the advice of the county extension agent last year. A number of farmers planted Hybrid 128 and obtained an average increase of 6.1 bushels per acre over all other varieties. About 92 acres of the 1922 planting was certified for seed.

On the Southern Pacific lines from Portland to Ogden and El Paso there are 12,000 watches, 105 watch inspectors and 144 standard railroad clocks. S. A. Pope of San Francisco is supervisor of the time service. All this tells why the trains are so often on time.

Oregon is foremost in the milk production per cow of all western states, increasing 17.2 per cent from 1910 to 1920. During the same period Idaho increased 15.3, Washington 15.3 and California 9.1 per cent.

Linn School Statistics

The average monthly salaries paid men teachers in Linn county has been increased from $127.89 in 1922 to $138 in 1923. The monthly salaries paid women teachers average $104.

The number of women teachers has increased from 213 in 1922 to 228 in 1923, while the men teachers have decreased from 52 in 1922 to 44 this year. The average daily attendance was 4422, or 93.8 per cent of the pupils enrolled. The report shows that there are 130 school districts in the county and 141 schoolhouses. Approximately 105 of the schools have only one room.

Railroad Promotions

Disabled World War veterans, who have failed to make application for government compensation should do so at the earliest possible moment. The laws give the war veteran five years from discharge to file application for compensation. In a large number of instances, this period expires this year.

There has been a general shake up in Southern Pacific offices.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent, becomes assistant passenger traffic manager and J. A. Ormandy takes the post from which Mr. Scott is advanced.

Miss H. F. Mulenby becomes freight manager and is succeeded as general freight agent by W. F. Miller. Miller was assistant general freight agent. C. M. Andrews comes from Seattle to Portland to succeed him.

C. W. Stinger succeeds Mr. Ormandy as assistant general passenger agent, and J. A. Hopgood takes Stinger's late berth and is succeeded as advertising manager by H. F. Craig.

Some other changes are these among district freight and passenger agents: I. T. Sparks from Eugene to Merced, Cal.; L. L. Graham, Corvallis to Eugene; A. L. Mickel, Salem to Corvallis.

J. W. Miller and wife returned from Portland Friday.

No two blades of grass, no two of anything are exactly alike. A counterfeit signature may deceive many and counterfeit paintings have done the same, but the expert can soon point out differences from the original. No more will these two illustrations give you the pictures John Stradish is painting. But they give a general idea of the subjects and the style of their representation.
