

GLOBE ALBANY High Class Photoplays Only

SUNDAY-MONDAY OCT. 14-15

A Fred Niblo Production "The Famous Mrs. Fair"

THE CAST Marguerite De La Motte...Carmel Myers...Myrtle Stedman...Cullen Landis...Huntley Gordon...Ward Crane

COMING THE BRIGHT SHAWL SOON

NO BOON IN CHEAP MONEY

One thing that has to be given up is the idea that cheap money is always good for business. Farmers want cheap money, business men want cheap money, stock speculators want cheap money...

Now this fact makes me feel that a mistake is made if we do not fully explain to the public the power already exercised by the bank rate and the Federal Reserve Board and Reserve banks. Our bankers and economists see the bad use that is likely to be made of political control of banking and currency...

Honors for Club Members The annual convention, Wisconsin Bankers Association, presented diplomas to fifteen boys and five girls successfully completing four years club work...

W. H. Robertson returned Sunday from Eugene, where he had been for a few days to have his tonsils removed.

Is your hair as thick and fluffy as it used to be? Save and beautify it with NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

RINGO'S Drugstore

O. W. FRUM Exclusive Agent for Jersey Milk Food Compound the economical feed for calves, pigs and chickens Also a complete stock of FEED AND GRAIN

Double-Headed Reception

A reception attended by the members of the M. E. church, complimenting their new pastor and family, and the many friends of D. S. McWilliams and family, who left today for their new home in Albany...

A program of piano and vocal music and short addresses was greatly enjoyed. The I. O. O. F. orchestra also played a number of selections.

An attractive reading lamp was presented to Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams by Rev. Mr. Parker, a gift from the Sunday school, Mr. McWilliams having served as superintendent for the past eight years.

The program, under the supervision of Mrs. B. M. Bond, was as follows: Selections by orchestra, piano solo—Grace Kirk, vocal solo—Mrs. Glenn Stevenson, piano duet—Ruth and Alice Sturtevant, address—Rev. Mr. Cain, piano solo—Georgina Clark, piano trio—Misses Vannice, address—Rev. Mr. Parker, vocal solo—Edna Vannice, piano solo—Mrs. H. F. English, vocal solo—Mrs. C. P. Stafford, piano solo—Donna Robertson, selections by orchestra.

Jots and Tittles

(Continued from page 3)

A. A. Tussing was an Albany visitor the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munson were Albany visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hill drove to Portland and back Monday.

J. W. Moore and family spent the week end with friends in Salem.

Hugh Cummings of Albany was transacting business in Halsey Thursday.

D. S. McWilliams and wife, accompanied by Mrs. C. P. Stafford, spent Monday afternoon in Eugene.

Mrs. W. H. Robertson was a Eugene visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Adda Ringo, Jess Cross and Miss Donna Robertson spent Sunday with friends and relatives in Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Opal Higbee, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Albertson and daughter Ione, drove to Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. C. E. Osburn came up from her home in Portland Saturday on account of the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Ribelin.

Howard Reeves of Eugene spent the week end with his little sons Willis and Charles, and their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rector of this city.

E. G. Ward and son Ferris of Eugene were in town Sunday calling on Mr. Ward's mother, Mrs. M. M. Ward, and sister, Mrs. Albert Miller, who have recently moved back to Halsey.

Mrs. Glenn Stevenson, who is a former member of the choir of the M. E. church, favored the audience with a solo at the evening services Sunday.

Mrs. Glenn Stevenson and little son of Beaverton are guests of Mrs. Stevenson's mother Mrs. Berry Cummings, and Mr. Stevenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson.

Arrow Garage We will overhaul your Ford engine for $20 labor... All work guaranteed GANSLE BROS. Telephone 16x5

TENACITY by Grace E. Hall So long as mind holds fast you shall not fail... This simple fact explains why some men win While others lag and lose at last the game: One draws the final ounce of power within... Hold! Though the storms of life may madly surge, Though thunders crash and all about you fall... And destinies are shaped by it each hour.

They will be joined in a couple of weeks by the husband and father, Glenn, who will spend his vacation with them.

Mrs. Gerty Pentland of Berkeley, Cal., arrived Tuesday to be with her mother, Mrs. W. J. Ribelin, during her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Crewse left Monday for their home in Marcus, Wash., after spending several days with Mr. Crewse's mother west of town and Mrs. Crewse's cousin, Mrs. C. P. Stafford.

Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith of Albany visited her mother, Mrs. M. C. Bond, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. M. Bond, Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Palmer is recovering from the flu.

Eugene Freeland visited his mother here over the week end.

Mrs. Mildred McMahan was in the southern part of the state last week on Rebekah business.

A lecture is advertised on page 4 as "How to Get Married." The best way is to get married for keeps. There is too much of the other kind of marriage.

There was a rousing community meeting at Riverside Tuesday evening. Funds were raised to finish paying for the $8000 community building.

Henry Clay Powell, a Linn county pioneer, died Tuesday in Albany at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Cornett, aged 83. He had lived in this county 72 years.

Oleona Smite spent the week end at home.

Mrs. O. G. Coldiron is in Oklahoma for a visit of a couple of months.

J. W. Moore and family spent the week end in Salem.

C. C. Jackson and wife had their golden wedding Friday. A well-earned reduction of farm activity is theirs.

Twenty years ago it was said that clover would not grow in Oregon. "Them days is gone forever." T. J. Skirvin shipped an $8,000 carload of clover seed to Chicago last Friday and has two more to go.

Mrs. T. I. Marks and Mrs. J. W. Drinkard were Albany shoppers Monday.

Delma Wahl has pledged Beta Kappa sorority society at O. A. C.

Dev. J. D. Cain and wife and daughter Edna, from Brownsville, were over at the reception last night.

HALSEY GARAGE Automobile and Tractor Repairing Fisk and Gates Tires and Tubes... HALSEY GARAGE Telephone 16x5 FOOTE BROS. Props.

HALSEY RAILROAD TIME North South No. 18, 11:37 a. m. No. 17, 12:15 p. m. No. 24, 4:28 p. m. No. 23, 4:28 p. m. No. 22, 4:30 a. m. No. 21, 11:32 p. m. Nos. 21 and 22 stop only if flagged.

SUNDAY MAIL HOURS The delivery window of the Halsey postoffice is open Sundays from 10:50 to 11 a. m. and 12:15 to 12:30 p. m. Sunday mail goes out only on the north-bound 11:37 train.

Paid-for Paragraphs Admittance Here 5 Cents a Line For Sale—Potato sacks, 4c each. C. R. EVANS, Route 1, Halsey. Old papers for sale at 5c a bundle at the Enterprise office.

Alford Arrows (Enterprise Correspondence) Samuel Gibbs, of Portland, a former resident of this community, was buried at the Alford cemetery Tuesday afternoon. He was 80 years old. His wife and his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Baldwin, and Gerge Gibbs, all of Portland, came with the body.

Mrs. E. A. Starnes, and her daughter Catherine and sister, Miss Hattie Dannen, visited relatives at Oregon City from Wednesday till Friday of last week and at Corvallis Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Isom and Mrs. J. F. Isom and son Prentice went to Eugene Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Albany visited their daughter, Mrs. John Willbanks, and family last week.

Lee Ingram and family called at the John Burnett home one evening last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burkhart of Salem spent several days at their farm last week.

Lee Ingram took Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe to Buena Vista, Mrs. Rolfe's former home and back one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Curtis and children visited Mr. Curtis' uncle, Jack Curtis, at Peoria Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingram, visited Mrs. Ingram's sisters, Mrs. Clover and Mrs. Hawk, at Springfield Sunday. Miss Henrietta Starnes went to Corvallis with the Walkers Sunday.

E. D. Isom and family called at the John Burnett home Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingram and daughter Thelma called at E. D. Isom's Monday evening.

The recallers didn't get enough names on their petitions at 10 cents per to have the recall on the ballot next month. They hope to have enough by next May if the supply of dimes holds out.

Anyone interested in a Milking Machine would do well to see R. S. Marsters. He is offering his "Pine Tree Milker" at a great sacrifice. Would exchange for pay in some pigs, chickens, cows, etc. Come, we will make a satisfactory bargain. At my farm, Halsey, Oregon. R. S. MARSTERS.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administrator of the estate of W. H. Kirkpatrick, deceased, has filed his final account in said estate with the county clerk of Linn county, Oregon, and the county judge has set Monday, the 5th day of November, 1923, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, as the time, and the county courtroom of said county as the place, for hearing objections to said final account, if any, and the settlement of said estate. P. M. GRAY, Administrator. L. L. SWAN, Atty. for Admr.

THE BROWN MOUSE The city council met Monday. Mayor Clark and Councilmen Frum, Gordon and Merwin were present, but there was no business of moment up. The state land commission has invested $50,000 of segregated accident commission funds in school district securities. Following a meeting of the Linn County Association of Pioneers at Albany, the announcement was made that collections would be started at once for the fund of from $10,000 to $12,000 with which a monument will be erected on the site of the first seat of government in Linn county, which at that time was made up of most of this part of the state. The site of the monument is about one mile from Brownsville on the Calapoosia river.

SMALL WONDER HE PAID UP Almost Anybody Would Have Parted With Two Dollars After Reading This "Dunning" Letter. Duns may come and duns may go, but a certain publishing company has an effective "please remit" letter. In at least one instance, the letter had the effect of causing the debtor to have a terribly guilty feeling until he placed in the mail the $2 which he owed them. The letter follows: "Dear Friend—You remember how Abraham Lincoln walked many weary miles from the grocery store where he earned a mere pittance, in order to bring to a poor woman the few cents change she had forgotten and left on the counter. "And how Mark Twain, because his name happened to be associated with that of an unsuccessful company, took all its heavy debts upon himself, and, though an old man, paid every one. "It is this 'I-will-owe-no-man-a-penny' spirit that brings up and strengthens self-respect and personal integrity. "It is because we find just such good old-fashioned honesty as this in 99 per cent of the folks with whom we do business that we feel sure of the payment of your account, even though it has been neglected recently. "You will feel that you have done the right thing when you drop your remittance in the mails today."

A BOUNCING BOY Little May—Mother, is the baby made of rubber? Mother—Why, no, my dear. Why do you ask? Little May—I heard Uncle John say he's a bouncing boy. UNCOVER EGYPTIAN TOWN Palestine excavations carried out at Beisan, the Bethshean of the Old Testament, have resulted in the discovery of substantial Egyptian buildings with evidence of five centuries' occupation, and two large, clear monumental inscriptions of Seti I and Ramesses II, respectively, according to a dispatch from Jerusalem. The inscriptions indicate military dispositions of known divisions of Egyptian troops, and give references to neighboring cities on both sides of the Jordan. Beisan is a small town near the Jordan, 55 miles north-north-east of Jerusalem. Seti I was king of Egypt of the nineteenth dynasty, about 1346 B. C. He was the father of Ramesses II.