THE BROWN MOUSE

Stock Comes Far to Pacific International

The Pacific International Live Stock Exposition is held in Portland, Or., but it is "true to name." Livestock of the best herds comes from all parts of the continent to fight out the last battle for supremacy in its show ring. Animals that win the purple ribbons at the Pacific International are as good as the best anywhere.

The lower panel of the picture shows the Thorp string of Jerseys from California. They will be at the Exposition in Portland November 3 to 10 to see if they are as good as the Jerseys of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and elsewhere. They have good Jerseys in California, but they will meet the best of the West at Portland.

Friday evening from Salem, where she is attending Willamette University, and spent the week-end at her home. Roland Marks came home from O. A. C. Saturday night and spent Sunday shooting pheasants. O. W. Frum was transacting business in Brownsville and neighborhood the last of the week.

Carl Hill, Delos Clark, Kenneth Cross, Wayne Robertson and William Corcoran all came home from O. A. C. Friday evening and spent the week-end at their respective homes, incidentally going gleaning for the pheasants Sunday. Miss Leitner of the local high school was a week-end visitor in Portland.

Mrs. Albert Miller made a trip to Eugene Friday, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Harry Leeper and family. One of the most astounding crime stories known comes from Bandon. Alton Covell, 19, confesses that he killed his step-mother by seizing her and holding a cloth saturated with ammonia over her mouth till she was dead, at the instigation of his uncle, Arthur Covell, who planned the crime in all its details. Arthur, a bedridden cripple and an astrologer, confesses that he planned that and many other murders that were to follow it.

Burglars Caught at Peoria

Burglars entered the store of LaMar & LaMar at Peoria Tuesday night to their confusion. The store had been visited by crooks more than once before and the proprietors had finally installed a burglar alarm.

About 1:30 the mechanical watchman "hollered" and the proprietors and Dale Lamar, Fred Mason, J. D. M. Warren and Fred Frady responded.

Three men ran and dodged behind a woodpile. Two of them, Robert Bruce of Sweet Home, who has been in trouble before, and R. W. Hodge of Pleasant View, were caught and the third plunged off the river bank, under a rain of bullets, and disappeared. They had entered the rear of the building and tried to break through to the front.

The idea that our government must expend millions in perpetuating wild game that certain men may have the pleasure of satisfying the savage nature remaining in them by getting out and shooting it, is rank foolishness and a waste of the people's money.—Junction City Times.

Judge Bingham of the circuit court has decided against J. T. Woddy and awarded the Pacific Co-operative Woolgrowers 10 cents a pound damages and attorney's fees and costs of court for selling his 1922 clip outside the association in violation of contract.
