

U of O Library

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, FEB. 14, 1924

NO. 29

HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Did you get a valentine?
Mrs. S. J. Smith has been suffering with the grip.

Jess Saffley and family were Albany visitors Thursday.

Glenn Stevenson of Beaverton was in Halsey Sunday.

Gilbert Carey was an Albany visitor or the first of the week.

Mrs. J. S. McMahan drove to Brownsville Friday evening.

W. A. Carey was a business visitor to Cottage Grove Saturday.

Mrs. A. A. Tussing was a Scio visitor the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davidson were both on the sick list last week.

Mrs. G. G. Hockensmith came from Albany Saturday. She had been to consult a dentist.

Miss Inez Trefry, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Fred Taylor of Eugene was the guest of her father, J. C. Standish, several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lowrey of Portland were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brock last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Walker returned the last of the week from a visit with their son, S. I. Walker, and family in Portland.

Mrs. W. H. Beene and her brother, W. A. Allen, motored to Corvallis last Tuesday, where Mr. Allen consulted Dr. Garnjobst.

J. W. Drinkard attended the merchandise shoot at Corvallis Sunday, and, as usual, succeeded in bringing home the bacon.

W. F. Carter has bought back the Halsey meat market from the Falks and took possession a week ago today.

C. H. Koontz was an Albany visitor Monday.

Douglas Taylor was in Albany Thursday.

Miss Ida Mitzner came home from Albany Saturday.

Mrs. L. C. Merriam was a passenger to Albany Thursday.

The O. A. C. boys are all spending the week end at home.

Miss Gladys Willbanks was visiting in Albany last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt. Cummings were Halsey shoppers Wednesday.

Mrs. Adda Ringo took the early morning train for Salem Thursday.

Mrs. Edith Thompson of Yoncolla has been visiting at the C. P. Moody home.

Alonzo Neal of Brownsville visited with his parents, O. F. Neal and wife, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. B. Southern and her daughter, Mrs. George Hayes, went to Albany Saturday.

After a week's wrestle with the grip Eldon Cross threw the critter and is back on his job again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramwell spent Sunday at the home of Guy Bramwell and family of Brownsville.

W. J. Ribelin has been teaching his flock of hens so carefully that he is now selling eggs by the case instead of the dozen.

D. H. Sturtevant, Eldon Cross and W. F. Carter have been appointed administrators of the estate of the late Mrs. Gormley.

Mrs. D. F. Dean returned from visiting in Portland and Oregon City Monday. The report that she had returned to Bandon was an error. She is still visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Stafford, and husband.

The train which goes at 11:37 carried a man in the baggage coach by the name of McNitt of Centralis, who was suffering from a fractured skull and broken hip. He had gone to sleep while driving his auto. It pays to keep awake sometimes.

Little Horst Ruelhing, 2 years old, who was the only survivor of the twelve partakers of the Gerber dinner who was alive when last week's Enterprise went to press, and who at first was expected to escape, took ill after all the others were dead and died Sunday. He had had a sip of the juice from the beans, though he took the bulk of his nourishment from a bottle.

Shedd Snapshots

(By Anna Pennell)

Mrs. Charles Pugh was in Corvallis Saturday.

J. W. McCumber left for Portland Monday.

Harold Shedd was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Lyman Pennell left Monday morning for a visit at Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pennell spent a few days in Portland last week.

Harold Troutman has returned to his home in Shedd from Marshfield.

A crew of men are at work repairing the steam shovel at the A. D. Kern quarry.

The Shedd high school presented the play "Putting it up to Patty" in Tangent Friday night and took in $42.80.

Dale Lamar of Peoria, who has been attending Shedd high, has left this school to attend in Corvallis.

E. E. Aubry of Tangent was a Shedd visitor Monday.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Lee Ingram and family called at the J. H. Rickard home Saturday evening.

Frank Kropf and family spent Sunday at the Jake Roth home near Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Isom and Mrs. J. F. Isom went to Eugene Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brock and daughter Doris of Lake Creek called at the Chester Curtis home Thursday.

J. N. Burnett and wife and son Edwin and Oliver Ingram and family were afternoon callers at the Lee Ingram home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Curtis and children visited at the home of their uncle, Jack Curtis, at Peoria Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck were afternoon callers at the L. H. Straley home Thursday.

Alvin and Orle Kropf and Herman Smucker were Sunday afternoon callers at the Lee Ingram home.

J. H. Rickard and family attended the church services and basket dinner at Lake Creek Sunday.

Mrs. D. I. Isom is staying in Eugene at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rova Robnett, this week. Mr. Isom has been moved there from the hospital and is still improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Chance visited at the John Willbanks home Sunday.

Miss Esther Starnes is sick with a severe cold.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Ralph Lawrence)

J. C. Harrison made a business trip to Sweet Home Saturday.

Bessie Howe is confined to her home on account of asthma.

Hazel Meyer was called to Eugene Sunday afternoon, returning the next day.

The Burson children are back in school after a month's absence on account of measles.

Word was received here last week of the marriage of Frank Newland, but we didn't learn the name of the bride.

It has been reported that Jess Bowers has traded his farm for the Millwood ranch. This gives Mr. Bowers a fine modern country home.

Friday night Brownsville negative team, consisting of Elaine Woodworth and Katherine Starr, debate the Lebanon affirmative team on "The Severance Tax." It is a triangular debate, Brownsville's affirmative going to Albany. There is no admission charge up to 10:00 p.m. at the high school auditorium. Come and see what has been taught in the schools the last four years, as all the debating team are seniors. The other two debaters are Edna Boggie and Fay Proebstel.

Friday night was "children's night" at the special meetings being held at the Baptist church. The choir consisted of children, and the sermon, by Rev. M. S. Woodworth, was especially for the children. Sunday afternoon Rev. Mr. Cain preached to the children's choir from the Methodist pulpit. Sunday night Rev. Mr. Orr preached to a full house on "Be Sure Your Sins Will Find You Out." The meetings all this week are to be held at the Methodist church. Friday night is to be "children's night" again, with a special sermon, and Sunday afternoon another sermon for the children.

Vitz Ramsdell is to hold a public sale at the Millwood ranch next Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsdell expect to make their future home in Portland. This leaves a vacancy in the Ash Swale school board, as Mr. Ramsdell was elected a member last June.

Elaine Woodworth, who has been staying with Mrs. Moyer all the school year, has changed her place of abode to Mrs. Ida Harrison's.

Belle Burson drove up from Lebanon Sunday to visit her folks north of town, but because her brother, Bruce, is still confined to his bed, she did not go into the house but visited from the car. They are all better at the present writing and returning to school this week.

Brownsville will reassess March 3 for the pavements the city is enjoying. The original assessment, under which a considerable amount of money has been collected, has been declared invalid.

W. J. Lane, the jeweler, has a nice display of Confederate bills in his window. Among these are bills issued in Richmond and Vicksburg at the time they were under siege by the union troops.

The mayor of Herrin, Ill., was foreman of a coroner's jury investigating a murder the other day when he was arrested for the crime. That is an incident such as frequently vary the monotony of that little shool.

W. J. Lane, the jeweler, has a nice display of Confederate bills in his window. Among these are bills issued in Richmond and Vicksburg at the time they were under siege by the union troops.

Lake Creek Locals

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Leone Palmer is ill at her home.

W. L. Smith of Halsey is doing carpenter work for Thomas Ardry this week.

Rev. Francis Nugen and wife were at the church Sunday. Mrs. Nugen and little son arrived recently from Idaho.

Lucile Herndon spent the week end visiting Edith Smith of Halsey.

Claude Cook and family visited Claude's sister, Mrs. Roy Owen, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler and Agnes of Pine Grove spent Sunday at Lake Creek; also Mrs. R. K. Stewart and granddaughters Helen and Jennette.

Bert Minkley and wife mingled with old friends at Lake Creek Sunday.

N. H. Cummings and family visited

OREGON OCCURRENCES RECITED FOR READERS

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

Pine Valley is considering erecting a new school building.

Thomas G. Hawley was nominated for postmaster at Multnomah.

Student registration at Oregon Agricultural college for the college year now totals 4176.

Wheat shipments from the Columbia river to all ports for the crop season reached 18,323,785 bushels.

At a meeting of the Newport city council, Jess Frey, councilman, was elected mayor to succeed Carl Ryckman, resigned.

City ordinances prohibiting minors from frequenting pool halls and the curfew ordinance are now being enforced in Eugene.

The Roseburg Elks lodge has voted to proceed immediately with the conversion of Farquhar island into a city park and playgrounds.

Establishment of a government naval base at Tongue Point was favored in a resolution passed by the Monmouth Commercial club.

The first carload of broccoli to be sent from the Umpqua valley this year was shipped from Roseburg by the Umpqua Broccoli exchange.

Charles Colvin, a Beaverton young man, was killed instantly when east-bound Southern Pacific train No. 130 struck a "bug" he was driving.

The Madras flour mill was destroyed by fire starting from an unknown cause. It was feared for a time that the entire town would be burned.

A vigorous campaign to prevent overloading of trucks operating on the highways of the state is to be started under the direction of the state traffic department.

Nearly 150 different automobiles of 29 different makes were displayed by 21 leading automobile dealers of Portland at the 15th annual automobile show in that city.

There was a total of 522 accidents in Oregon industries during the week ended February 7, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission.

Maurice E. Crumppacker, well known attorney of Portland, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for representative of the third congressional district.

The Chester-Fisher Logging company has filed with the public service commission application to establish a logging railroad over the Nehalem highway near Astoria.

The Astoria board of school directors has decided to dispense with the services of the school health officer after the first of the coming month, leaving the health department in charge of the school nurse.

All northbound traffic over the Southern Pacific railroad was held up by a landslide in Cow creek canyon. The slide buried the tracks for a considerable distance, but was discovered in time to prevent a wreck.

Wages of Lane county road laborers in 1924 will range from $3.50 a day for common labor to $13 a day for men with large tractors, according to a schedule agreed upon by the members of the county court, to be effective March 1.

George Pendleton, farmer living in the vicinity of Broadacres in Marion county, was killed when an automobile truck in which he was riding was struck by a southbound Oregon Electric train at a crossing north of the Broadacres station.

Judge Weatherford, in an address before the Albany chamber of commerce, urged that body to start a move among like organizations throughout the state to get a law passed to tax the government-owned timber lands in Oregon.

One-twelfth of the roads built under federal aid since 1916 are in Oregon, according to a report from the secretary of agriculture. Of approximately 26,000 miles completed in the United States under joint agreement, 2147 miles are in Oregon.

S. R. Thompson, who was elected president of the permanent organization of the Oregon Export Commission league, in a meeting at Arlington of officers of the various county organizations, left Sunday night for Washington, D. C., to lobby for the McNary-Haughen bill.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING OPTICAL

EYE STRAIN
Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS

If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US. We can Relieve You

Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany, Phone

(Continued on page 3)

School Stockings

FOR years, mothers of boys and girls have looked to us for hosiery strongly made; to stand the wear and tear of the school playground. For as many years we have recommended.

Allen A Black Cat Hosiery

Our lines of children's hosiery include every style or quality you are ever likely to want. Stockings for school, "dress-up" or knockabout wear, made with reinforced heels, toes and knees, for sturdy boys and girls—all rightly priced. See our special School Display this week.

KOONTZS
GOOD GOODS

The mayor of Herrin, Ill., was foreman of a coroner's jury investigating a murder the other day when he was arrested for the crime. That is an incident such as frequently vary the monotony of that little shool.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ:
Lon Chamlee, minister.
Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.
Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.
Christian Endeavor, 6:30.
Evening service, 7:30.
The church with out a bishop, in the country without a king.
If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist:
Robert Parker, pastor.
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Intermediats League, 6:30.
Epworth League, 6:30.
Prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30.
Preaching, 7:30.