

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, APR. 10, 1924

NO. 36

HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Mrs. C. P. Stafford spent the week end in Portland.

W. J. Carey returned to his home at Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. William H. Robertson was an Albany shopper Friday.

Mrs. Curtis Veatch was the guest of Miss Beulah Miller Wednesday.

Mrs. L. C. Merriam and son Phillip were Albany visitors Thursday.

D. H. Sturtevant returned from a business trip to Eugene Monday.

Mrs. George Laubner made a business and pleasure trip to Albany Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poole and son and Mr. and Mrs. William Curtis were visitors at the Bert Clark home Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Smith and daughter Edith visited at the Harry Commons and A. C. Armstrong homes Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Carter and Mrs. R. E. Gormley drove over to Brownsville Thursday, where Mrs. Gormley had dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cross drove to Hillsboro Friday, to spend the week end with Mrs. Cross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrell.

Mrs. J. C. Bramwell, Mrs. Adda Ringo, Mrs. C. P. Moody, Miss Mary Smith and Mrs. George Taylor attended the meeting of the Rebekahs at Shedd Thursday evening.

Wednesday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Woodworth of Albany went to Tangent, starting at seven and arriving at home again at 8:15. Burglars entered their residence while they were gone and left after they returned, taking about $200 worth of jewelry.

Mrs. Thomas Bailey of Eugene arrived Saturday and spoke at the Christian church Sunday evening.

She was the guest of Mrs. H. F. English.

O. W. Frum shipped out three carloads of grain hay, at $11 a ton, last week.

Mrs. S. E. Stevens of Eugene was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cross Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McVey of Rowland were in Halsey Friday, on the way to Albany.

Miss Alice Davis of Portland, visited with Miss Willamina Corcoran over the week end.

H. C. Ternan of Salem spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. J. C. Bramwell, this week.

Mrs. Clara McCoy and daughter Lilla of Brownsville drove over to take the train for Portland Monday.

Linn county has received $25,153.32 as its one-fourth of the vehicle licenses in the six months to March 15.

Ben Bartcher and Bessie Bartcher succeed Bartcher & Rohrbach at Albany as "The Bartcher Furniture Co., incorporated.

Miss Amanda Mitzner returned Saturday after several weeks' visit in Los Angeles with her brother, H. D. Mitzner, and wife.

Mrs. H. F. English and children went to Eugene Thursday to visit Mr. English's mother. They returned by auto Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gansle and Mrs. Adda Ringo motored to Eugene Saturday. Mrs. Ringo continued on to Cottage Grove.

Miss Leitner and Misses Ellen and Roberta Vannice attended the Willamette Glee at Salem Friday. Ted Mitzner went Saturday.

Misses Ruth Frum, Genevieve Wells and Rena Walker drove to Brownsville Thursday to see "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter came as far as Shedd Friday. Since then Frank has been painting and primping up buildings on his farm, which C. S. Wright is carrying on. Mrs. Porter expected to return to Portland today and Frank to stay over to the Odd Fellows' meeting tomorrow.

We all know the regulation bandmaster, with his imposing chapeau, ponderous baton and resounding, peremptory voice. A contrast was the leader of the Harrisburg school band, here last Saturday, a bit of perhaps 75 pounds of femininity, whose scarce audible "Ready. Play" started all the instruments with as perfect unison as if they had been so many carefully adjusted clocks.

(Continued on page 3)

Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Rev. M. S. Woodworth preached at the Holley church Sunday afternoon.

J. C. Harrison and Bruce Burson motored to the county seat Friday to pay their taxes.

May 8 and 9 are dates for the state examinations. One notices that the eighth graders are a little busier these days.

The Rosedale poultry ranch has turned out 2600 chicks and has 5200 eggs now incubating. Mr. Harrison, the owner, according to his wife, almost lives with his chicks, now that they are hatched. He recently set 1700 eggs for one man.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nelson entertained the young folks of Ash Swale Saturday night at their home on the Will Harrison place. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Reese Mallow, Miss Gladys Hoy, Mable Burson, Marvel Lawrence, Belle Burson and Bruce and Jim Burson, Louis West of Lebanon and John Bowers.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller Friday.

One farmer north of Brownsville offers $50 and others are interested in the capturing a coyote that is preying on sheep and lambs.

A story with photos concerning the triplet fawns in the McKercher park at Crawfordville has been placed by Everett Earle Stanard with a Philadelphia magazine.

There was a fire in C. F. Rauch's blacksmith shop on the south side Friday morning that caused quite a scare, as it was feared it might spread, but the fire department confined it to that building and the upper floor of Nelson's garage. Loss about $400.

(Brownsville Times)

Word received by Mrs. C. B. Tyce this week from C. B. who just recently left for Oakland, California, to visit his two sons and daughter, is that Oregon is the best country on the face of the earth after all. He also imparts the information that Mr. and Mrs. L. Dean Tyce have a new girl born March 16th who was christened Frances Marie. In speaking further of the two states Mr. Tyce said: "If I could have my Oregon acreage down here, I would be much contented, but as it is, Oregon is the best state. What Oregon needs is California's advertising, and California needs Oregon's soil."

Horn to Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Miller at the Brownsville hospital on March 29th an eight pound boy.

Pine Grove Patters

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Will McLaren Jr. has the measles.

Rev. Mr. Gillispie of Peoria preached at Pine Grove Sunday.

L. E. Eagy and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Eagy at Oakville Sunday.

The community club has purchased a piano for the use of the school, club and orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Neff went to Portland Wednesday to consult a specialist about Mr. Neff's eyes.

Nine men of the Stringtown neighborhood took teams and plows and plowed for Mr. Neff Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols returned from their visit with relatives and friends in Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska last Monday.

The community club met Friday evening. A short program was given and election of officers followed. J. C. Heinrich is the new president.

Misses Agnes and Edith Pugh spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. George Landler.

The service conducted by the Young Peoples' Gospel team of the Halsey Methodist church at the Pine Grove church Sunday, March 30, was well attended and much enjoyed.

Mrs. Fred Roberts and daughter Lucille arrived Saturday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Forster. Sunday they were joined by Mr. Roberts from Eugene.

Shedd Snapshots

(By Anna Pennell)

Lyman Pennell left for Portland Thursday.

Carl Robnett left for Springfield Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pugh drove to Canby Saturday.

Merle Gragg of Monroe spent the week end in Shedd.

Harry Sprenger was a business visitor in Lebanon Saturday.

L. L. Swan of Albany was a business visitor in Shedd Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pugh and Miss Katherine were Corvallis visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Arnold and daughter Lurline spent Sunday in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCumber drove up from Portland last week to get their belongings to Saddle Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shedd and Mrs. Dora Davis of Shedd and Howard Jenks of Tangent drove to Salem Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Porter returned Friday evening from a week's visit in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter came with them.

Miss Helen Ritchie came up from Portland last week to visit with her parents a few days. She was accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Githens.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Nolen, Mrs. Nellie Satchwell and Mrs. J. C. Clay left Saturday for Bandon to attend revival meetings being conducted there by Rev. I. N. Hughes.

Mrs. Agnes Clarke and Mrs. Emma Gregory were in Eugene Saturday to attend the funeral of Ronald Reid, who formerly lived in Shedd and who committed suicide in a fit of insanity.

Members of the Pricilla club entertained their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Albers on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Troutman and daughter Gail of Albany were visitors.

At a special meeting of Willamette chapter, order of the Eastern Star, Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Stella K. Drake of Portland was present. Other visitors were Mrs. Alberta S. McMurphy and Miss Emma Brown of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter of Portland.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Bud Ingram of Ray City was a guest of his cousin, Lee Ingram, one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingram and daughter Thelma have all been on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Burnett and children were Sunday afternoon callers at the Chester Curtis home.

Mrs. A. F. Robnett and Mrs. C. E. Merz of Eugene visited their mother, Mrs. D. I. Isom, last Friday.

Mrs. Frank Porter of Portland and Mrs. Will Porter of Shedd were Sunday evening callers at the A. E. Whitbeck home.

Warren and Glen Isom and their families from Brownsville called at the home of Mrs. D. I. Isom Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cogswell returned to their home in Portland Wednesday of last week, after spending some time at their farm.

Miss Lillie Rickard returned to Monmouth, where she is attending normal, last Wednesday, after a couple of weeks at home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Starnes visited at the home of Mr. Starnes' sister, Mrs. Wallace Sprenger, near Corvallis, one day last week.

This week our serial story brings us into the beginning of the American revolution. We had a close-up view of Benjamin Franklin in earlier chapters but here the author turns the light upon George Washington as well. Other noted Americans pass in review before us as the story proceeds. Batcher writes strictly according to the known details of history, which nobody has studied more painstakingly than he.

School Notes

(Agnes Hayes, Reporter)

The high school was visited one day of last week by a graduate of the '25 class, John Standish.

A number of students attended the moving picture "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" at Brownsville Thursday night.

The boys' team won the game at Shedd with the score 7 to 6. Thomas Palmer, who played right field, knocked a home run which brought in another player also.

The boys' team of Brownsville high will play baseball here Friday. Since the outcome of the last game, our team has been very much enthused, and the boys more determined than before.

In honor of Helen Williams' sixteenth birthday a marshmallow toast was held for her on the Shook lawn Thursday evening. Many forms of merrymaking were enjoyed until a late hour.

Of the three contestants, Georgina Clark, Esther Secfeld and Irene Quimby, the latter was chosen to represent high school at Albany Friday, where other students of Linn county will assemble to deliver orations. Miss Quimby received an award in the form of a medal and certificate. Certificates were given to the other two also.

The girls' baseball team came back from Shedd victorious Friday. The score was 26 to 23. The Halsey players were: Agnes Hayes, p; Ruth Frum, c; Iona Albertson, f. b; Willamina Corcoran, s. b; Agnes Chandler, l. b; Pauline Hardin, s. t.; Rena Walker, s. t.; Helen Carter, l. f.; Elsie Reynolds, r. f.; Helen Williams, c. f.

Don't forget the French plays, "The Surprise of Isidore" and "The Return of the Soldiers" of "Le Retour of the Soldiers." "Le Retour" first mentioned play are: Monsieur Picard, Kenneth VanNise; Madame Picard, Iona Albertson; Isidore, Milford Muller; Madame Duval, Grace Pehrson; Jennie, Gladys Hadley. Those in the other play are: Le Lieutenant Georges LeFranc, Kenneth VanNise; Comus, Truman Robnett; Suzanne Larmignac, Leone Palmer; Marie, Agnes Chandler; Monsieur Larmignac, Milford Muller; Madame Larmignac, Ellen VanNise.

The Halsey girls play Brownsville Wednesday at Brownsville.

Everybody come out and see the French plays tomorrow night. Re-Melba Neal has been absent from school because of the illness of her mother.

Teams of girls from the seventh and eighth grades and from the high school are practicing baseball.

serve seats are on sale at Clark's Confectionery. The plays will be explained in English by slides.

Teams of girls from the seventh and eighth grades and from the high school are practicing baseball.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ:
Lon Chamlee, minister.
Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.
Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.
Christian Endeavor, 6:30.
Evening service, 7:30.
The church without a bishop, in the country without a king.
If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist:
Robert Parker, pastor.
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Intermediate League, 7.
Epworth League, 7.
Prayer meeting Thursday, 8.
Preaching, 8.

NEWS NOTES FROM ALL OVER OREGON

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

North Bend will stage its annual wild flower show in May.

The Tillamook County Fish and Game Protective association has been organized at Tillamook.

Sixty-eight building permits, representing a total construction cost of $468,685, were issued in Eugene during March.

Falls City will probably have a new bank building this coming summer, according to present plans of the Bank of Falls City.

J. W. Brewster, executive secretary of the Oregon state chamber of commerce for four years, has resigned, effective May 1.

Apple shipments from Portland by water for the season reached 682,726 boxes, the Port of Portland traffic bureau has reported.

Out of the 791 students in 61 schools of Clackamas county, visited by the county health officer, 580 were found to be physically defective.

Since January 1 a total of 4798 motor vehicles bearing 1924 licenses of other states and countries have been granted visitors' permits in Oregon.

The Oregon coast artillery corps is to encamp at Fort Barry, Cal., June 14 to 28, according to a revised schedule of national guard encampments in the west.

James Madden was arrested in La Grande by federal officers and placed in jail in default of $2000 bail on a charge of selling narcotics to high school pupils.

Officers of Salem lodge of Elks are making arrangements to issue $100,000 in bonds to defray at least a part of the cost of constructing the new home for the order.

A survey of the flocks of pure bred sheep in the Deschutes country at the end of the lambing season shows an increase of approximately 125 per cent in the past month.

A flareup of typhoid fever in Portland, apparently due to foreign matter in raw milk sold by a dairy, has subsided. Two deaths from the disease were recorded.

Directors of the Talent irrigation district in Jackson county awarded the contract for constructing a new dam on Emigrant creek to W. A. Kramer of San Francisco.

Federal income tax collections in Oregon for the first quarter of 1924 totaled $3,175,175, according to announcement made by Clyde Huntley, collector of internal revenue.

During the last three weeks, fines amounting to $1340 have been paid to Justice of the Peace Noble at Oregon City by people convicted of manufacturing or possessing liquor.

Experiments are being made by the Umpqua broccoli exchange at Roseburg with various varieties of broccoli to cultivate a late strain that will materially lengthen the growing season.

Fearing a possible water shortage later in the season, Deschutes county farmers are already irrigating in order to store water in the soil while the run-off from the mountains is still heavy.

The state tax commission decided to eliminate from the income tax law the 5 per cent penalty on all payments made between April 1 and 15. The interest charge of 1 per cent will stand.

Since the discovery of a large oil shale deposit at Two Mill, below Bandon, rumors have started supporting the belief that well drilling for oil soon will be started on the McBea ranch or on property adjoining.

Senator McNary will not return to Oregon prior to the primaries to look after his campaign fences, according to a telegram received from him by Herbert Egbert of The Dalles, state president of the farmers' union.

The American Legion in Oregon is third in the entire United States in the nationwide membership drive now being conducted, according to word received from national legion headquarters by Harry N. Nelson, state adjutant.

Frank B. Ritchie, 20-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritchie of Freewater, was killed when he fell into an uncovered post hole that had been dug on the right of way of the railroad being extended from Milton to Umapine.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING OPTICAL

EYE STRAIN - Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS!

If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US. We can Relieve You

Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany, Phone

LET TAYLOR DO YOUR TAILORING

J. L. TAYLOR & CO.
NEW YORK - CHICAGO

If you want to know why, drop in and see our styles, our great range of beautiful pure wool fabrics and our superb qualities at

$25 TO $50

KOONTZS

GOOD GOODS