

GLOBE ALBANY
SUNDAY—MONDAY
 APRIL 13-14
 4 shows daily—1:30-3:15-7:30-9:15
 Direct from the Library at Portland

REX BEACH'S
Flowing Gold
 with MILTON SILLS and ANNA Q. NILSSON
 Attend the matinee and avoid the evening crush

 Soon LILIES OF THE FIELD

Halsey Happenings etc.

(Continued from page 1)

The Linn realty board meets at Albany tomorrow.

It is expected that the Clear Lake survey will begin today.

A. C. Armstrong and family visited at W. P. Wahl's Sunday afternoon.

John Willbanks and wife visited at Geo. Workinger's Sunday afternoon.

J. H. Wilkins of Sweet Home took the train here for Hood River Thursday.

George H. Randle of Lebanon seeks the republican nomination for assessor.

Earl and Orville Armstrong are back in school again after their siege with the measles.

The biggest open forum meeting yet held in the county was that at Scio Monday evening.

Harry Commons and wife visited Wallace Sprenger at the Hanson poultry ranch Thursday.

Mrs. Tussing, Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Bert Clark attended the Eastern Star lodge at Brownsville Monday night.

Mrs. George Tyer of Portland was called home on account of the serious illness of her brother, Harry Bressler, last week. Harry is reported some better.

A sign at Junction City directing highway traffic is proposed by the Albany chamber of commerce, the expense to be borne by Harrisburg, Halsey, Shedd and Albany.

In "Flowing Gold" at the Globe, Albany, next Sunday and Monday, you can see the gold flowing from the bowels of the earth. A startling explosion and a river of fire are among the incidents.

F. W. Falk made a trip to Albany one day last week to purchase supplies for the Brandon baseball team. There is a game scheduled for Friday, April 11, Brandon vs. Spoon River College.

Hulbert's garage, the first one at Albany, as one drives from Halsey, counted 220 tourist cars going past last Sunday in nine hours. A year ago the number was 111. Others cars passing during the nine hours brought the total up to about 1000.

Among those who attended the revival meeting held at Rowland last week were Mrs. Eliza Brandon, Mrs. Arthur Wesley and Misses Beulah Miller and Anna Drinkard. The meetings closed Wednesday.

Fifteen new market roads are in the county court's 1924 program, though probably they will not all be finished this year for want of funds. One of these is from Halsey to Tulsa and one from the Brandon school-house to the Pacific highway.

Read Prof. Horner's "Short History" which sells for a dollar, for authentic facts about the beginnings of Oregon, and read "In the Days of Poor Richard," in the Enterprise for the same kind of a view of the beginnings of U. S. A.

R. C. Pepperling, Scio, Monday filed on the republican ticket for commissioner. Grant Froman, also a republican, filed for assessor; Charles H. Leonard, county surveyor, in republican primaries for reelection, and Jay W. Moore, Halsey, in republican primaries for county assessor.

We have a large line of Easter Goods
 CARDS of various kinds and prices
 CHICKENS and RABBITS
 RINGO DRUG STORE

Don't overlook the French entertainment Friday night. You may never have another opportunity to attend one.

The pastor of the Methodist church will preach next Sunday morning and the Standard Bearers, which is the young people's missionary society of the church, will have charge of the evening service. The league services will begin at seven and the following service at eight o'clock next Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Bramwell and Miss Mary Smith drove to Brownsville, Saturday.

The "block signal signal system," which the Southern Pacific has just installed through this part of the valley, divides the track into sections called blocks. When a train enters a block it au-tomatically sets a signal at each end of that block, which is a warning to all other trains to keep off, at the same time releasing the signals on the block it has just left. A block may be a mile, or more, or less, depending on the lay of the land and the frequency of trains.

Mrs. C. P. Moody and little daughter Coralea went to Portland Monday.

They returned next day, accompanied by Mrs. P. A. Blanchard of Greybull, Wyo., and two children, who, after a short visit, went to Harrisburg to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Moody, parents of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Carter and Mesdames E. E. Gormley and George Laubner went to Albany yesterday noon.

SPECIAL OFFER
 The regular price of the Wear-Ever aluminum boiler offered here for $1.98 during the special sale, APRIL 10 TO 19 is $3.05

"Wear-Ever" two quart ALUMINUM DOUBLE-BOILER for only $1.98
 This offer expires April 19th.

HILL & Co
 offer all kinds of
Wear-Ever Aluminum Goods
 at Similar Reduction
 throughout the special sale
Thursday, April 10,
 to
Saturday, April 19

What are you going to do about that car?
 Don't wait till the spring rush. Have it ready for spring trips when you need it the most.
 Our shop equipment is among the best, which enables us to do your job the way it should be done.

All Work Guaranteed
ARROW GARAGE
GANSLE BROS.

W. F. Carter was in Brownsville Monday.
 Undertaker Wright of Harrisburg was in town Monday.
 Mrs. J. W. Clark and her mother, Mrs. M. B. Southern, went to Albany yesterday.
 Frum & McMahan sold a bunch of cattle to Henry Broders, Eugene butcher, Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Straley and son LeRoy visited Albany and Corvallis Saturday.
 O. W. Frum, Glenn Chance and J. H. McMahan have taken the G. R. Walker place for two years. They are putting the whole 130 tilled acres into oats.
 Mrs. Adda Ringo and Mrs. J. C. Bramwell met with the Neighbors of Woodcraft at Shedd Tuesday night.
 Saturday J. W. Clark was called to Redding, Cal., on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. M. K. Clark. She died Monday.
 J. H. Thompson and wife of Albany visited O. W. Frum and family Sunday. Mrs. Thompson is Mr. Frum's sister.
 Mrs. William Beene was a Eugene shopper Monday.
 Mrs. A. Maiera of Philomath and little grandson are visiting at the J. T. Curry home.
 Miss Helen Staab of Oregon City arrived Saturday for a visit with Frank Gansle and wife.
 People usually read stories mainly for amusement. The Enterprise is publishing some that yield trustworthy education as well.
 Mrs. A. King of Tacoma left Tuesday, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Curry, for Leona, to visit her niece, Mrs. Joseph Krewson.
 Miss Dorothy Cornelius, whose father was formerly station agent here and is now Southern Pacific telegraph man at Albany, was visiting friends in Halsey Saturday.
 F. W. Robins is building a commodious new brooder house to take the place of the one that was destroyed by fire last week, along with 150 young chicks. It is supposed it caught from the lamp.

A clean, fresh stock of
JERSEE MILK FOOD COMPOUND
 The right feed for calves, pigs and chickens
 Baby Chick Feed and Developing Mash
O. W. FRUM

CANDY. A Child May Eat Our Candy without any injurious effect, for it is all made of the purest materials, and is fresh every day. The purity and freshness of our confectionery has always been our strong point, and it has always found favor with the candy eating public. Just try a box and be convinced it is the best candy made.

Clark's Confectionery

Saturday Mrs. L. E. Walton and son James went to Eugene, where James consulted an oculist in regard to eye trouble. Yesterday they went again and Charles Reeves went with them to spend his seventh birthday with his father.

The manager of an Illinois country newspaper wrote to the dean of the Missouri school of journalism: Please send me a reporter who has been graduated from your school. I married the last reporter you sent me and I know you turn out good material.

Ten prisoners, one of them convicted of manslaughter, escaped from the Lane county jail at Eugene by digging a big hole through the west wall. Nine were recaptured.

A new tariff of the Oregon-California Power company, which increases slightly some of the rates of the corporation in Oregon, became effective as of April 1, according to an order issued by the public service commission. The tariff previously was suspended by the commission pending an investigation.

A system of week-day Bible study in the public schools of Oregon is being developed by the state and will be launched in Oregon, in a small way, at least, next fall, declared J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, in an address before the Lane County Sunday School association in session at Central Presbyterian church in Eugene.

A fund, not to exceed $25,000, was asked of the state emergency board at its meeting Monday by the state sanitary livestock commission to be used, if necessary, in policing the California-Oregon line to insure enforcement of the quarantine which this state has placed against the products of that state to prevent the spread of the foot and mouth disease into Oregon.

The first timber wolves to be caught in Oregon for some time were taken in a trap on Evans creek in Josephine county last week, according to Stanley G. Jewett, predatory animal inspector of the United States biological survey. After months of hunting to eradicate a family of the almost extinct species, three were caught and killed in one week by Harry Stokes, predatory animal hunter.

Spring is Here

Now is the Time to Dress up

A large number of Men's and Young Men's Suits are now on display. Spring styles models for the young fellow, and the regular conservative styles for men.

Come in now, before Easter, while our stock is complete, and make your selection.

Prices unreasonably low
 See our Spring

OXFORDS SHIRTS HATS
TIES SHIRTS SOX

Quality Style Service
BLAIN CLOTHING CO.
 ALBANY OREGON

HALSEY RAILROAD TIME

North		South
No. 18, 11:37 a. m.	No. 17, 12:15 p. m.	No. 24, 4:27 p. m.	No. 23, 4:27 p. m.
No. 22, 3:20 a. m.	No. 21, 11:32 p. m.	Nos. 21 and 22 stop only if flagged.
No. 14, due Halsey at 5:09 p. m., stops to let off passengers from south of Roseburg.
No. 23 runs to Eugene only.
No. 21 runs to Eugene, thence Marshfield branch.
Passengers for south of Roseburg should take No. 17 to Eugene and there transfer to No. 15.

SUNDAY MAIL HOURS
 The delivery window of the Halsey postoffice is open Sundays from 10:50 to 11 a. m. and 12:15 to 12:30 p. m.
 Sunday mail goes out only on the north-bound 11:37 train:
 Mail goes south once a day, closing at 11:05 a. m., north twice, closing 11:25 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Mail stage for Brownsville, Crawfordville and Sweet Home leaves daily at 6:45 a. m.

Amor A. Tussing
 LAWYER AND NOTARY
 HALSEY, OREGON

NOTICE
 of appointment of executrix:
 Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, has been appointed Executrix of the last will and testament of David I. Ieom, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said decedent are required to present them within six months from the date of this notice, with the proper vouchers, to the undersigned at her residence, about four miles southwest of Halsey, in Linn County, Oregon. Dated and first published this 10th day of April, 1924.
 SOPHIA ISOM,
 Executrix Aforesaid.
 AMOR A. TUSSING,
 Attorney for Executrix.

NOTICE
 of hearing of final account.
 Notice is hereby given that the final account of Rosa Powell as executrix of the last will and testament of T. A. Powell, deceased, has been filed in the County Court of Linn County, State of Oregon, and that the 21st day of April, 1924, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., has been duly appointed by said court for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof, at which time any person interested in said estate may appear and file objections thereto in writing and contest the same.
 Dated and first published March 20th 1924.
 ROSA POWELL,
 Executrix Aforesaid.
 AMOR A. TUSSING, Atty. for Exrx.

NOTICE
 of appointment of administrator:
 Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, by an order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, has been appointed administrator of the estate of John F. Waggener, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are required to present them within six months from the date of this notice, with the proper vouchers, to the undersigned at his residence, about 4 1/2 miles southeast of Halsey, in Linn County, Oregon.
 Dated and first published this 20th day of March, 1924.
 A. G. WAGGENER,
 Administrator Aforesaid.
 A. A. TUSSING, Atty. for Admr.

COMING!
EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS
HALSEY CHURCH OF CHRIST
 Friday, April 11, to Sunday, April 20
LON CHAMLEE, the pastor, will do the preaching.
CLYDE SMITH of Eugene, song leader
 Come and hear the Gospel in sermon and song

News Notes
 (Continued from page 1)

A special election in the Astoria school district will be held Tuesday, April 29, to authorize a bond issue not to exceed $125,000, the funds to be used to purchase a site or sites for the construction of a new school building or buildings.

Citizens of Brogan in Malheur county have filed a petition with the public service commission protesting against the proposed curtailment of train service on the Vale-Brogan branch of the Oregon Short Line.

The growth of Cottage Grove is well indicated by the growth of freight business at the Southern Pacific station. In 1921 the total freight handled was 36,847 tons. In 1923 it had increased to 56,125, despite the competition of motor vehicles.

While the bank clearings in Eugene during March were slightly less than those during the same period last year the clearings for the first three months of this year show an increase of 10 per cent over those of the first three months during 1923.

Ronald B. Reid, piano instructor in the school of music at the University of Oregon, was found in his coupe in Hendricks' park, Eugene, with a bullet wound in his head and died in the Eugene hospital. Reid, only 22 years old, was thought to have committed suicide.

Governor Pierce and Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, have signed a contract whereby an appropriation of $10,000 authorized at the last session of the legislature will be made available to pay the cost of preparing a report dealing with the investigation of the Umatilla rapids, near Pendleton.

