

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1924

NO. 46

HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Election day dinner at Hill's store. Proceeds to public library.

Mesdames A. E. and Arthur Foote were Brownsville visitors yesterday.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson of Brownsville took the train here for Portland yesterday.

Willard Wooley of Halsey and Merle Baumgartner of Harrisburg took the train here for Detroit yesterday.

Salad, sandwiches, baked beans pie. Everything good. Eat dinner at Hill's store election day and help the public library.

Wilkins, indicted with Thompson for the Peoria burglary, has forfeited his $1000 bond and it is believed has left the state. His mother and Thompson's father are on the bond.

Miss Gertrude Porter took an Indian part in costume in an entertainment in Portland, given for the benefit of the Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls. Her picture as she appeared was in Sunday's Oregonian.

Probably the three businesses at the county seat that have continued the longest under their original management and continued to prosper are the Blain Clothing company, F. M. French's jewelry business and the Albany bakery. Why? Because their business tactics are such as lead to success. One feature of such tactics is wise advertising. All three firms are patrons of the Enterprise's advertising columns.

Mr. and Mrs. David Byrlee, missionaries from Bolenge, Africa, home on furlough, will speak at the Halsey Christian church next Wednesday evening, and Mrs. Byrlee will sing in the native African tongue. They are Oregon people.

J. J. Corcoran is making cement work for S. Collins and F. Vanatta at the Pine Grove cemetery.

Miss Cleona Smith will be graduated from the U. of O. next month. She becomes a bachelor of sciences.

The entertainment and sale at the city hall Saturday night netted the Standard Bearers $14.75. Not a large crowd was present, owing to other things at other places.

There will be a Mothers' day service at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11. Cars will be provided for mothers unable to come on foot. Apply to Mrs. G. W. Morrison.

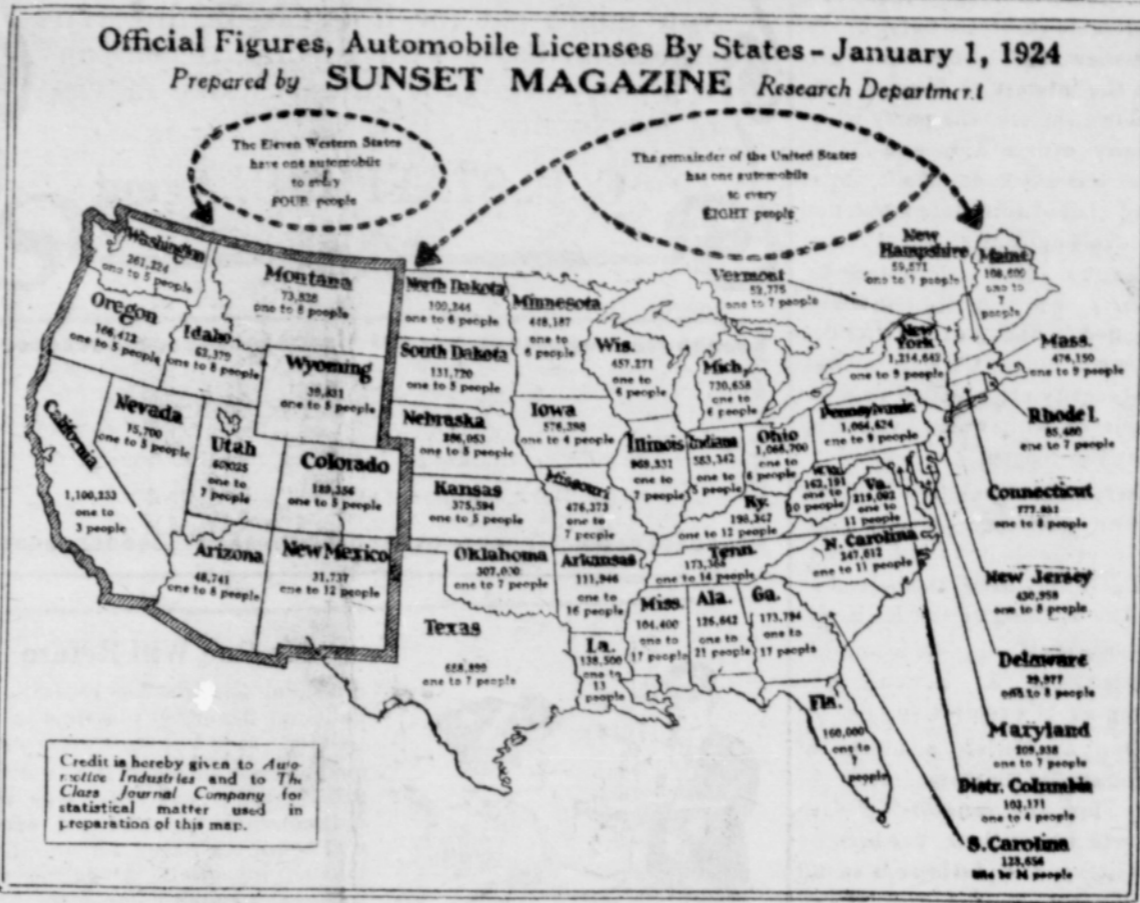

Dr. Whetstone will be in his Halsey office Wednesday afternoons only hereafter. Dr. Maher, who took over the dental practice of Whetstone's father in Eugene a year or two ago, has been stricken with paralysis, and the younger Whetstone has acquired the business.

Mrs. L. H. Wallace of Portland was the week-end guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rector. She was accompanied home Monday by her daughter Grace, who had been here for a week and who has been ill for several days.

Mrs. Edith Robnett and Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cross, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gansle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beene, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mesdames B. M. Bond, Adda Ringo, B. S. Clark, T. J. Skirvin, Agnes Brown, J. C. Bramwell, E. F. Cross, Karl Bramwell, G. W. Mornhinweg, E. E. Gormley, Claron Gormley, O. W. Frum, Mary Gray and Jay Moore and Misses Kena Walker and Mary Smith and Ray Gansle of the Rebekahs went to Shedd Thursday night and a team of the Halseyites exemplified the degree work there.

Mrs. Florence Stewart and daughters, Marie, Mildred and Elizabeth and sons Harold and Rhodell, for many years residents of this city, but who for some time have been living in Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Etta McDaniels of Los Angeles, and Messrs. Marion Fraley and Pete Enns of Portland, were in Halsey Sunday.

(Continued on page 4)

NEWS NOTES FROM ALL OVER OREGON

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

A Kiwanis club will be instituted in Bend in the immediate future if plans outlined are carried to completion.

A total of $107,276.69 was turned over to the state treasurer by the state land department during April.

A detachment of destroyers will be ordered to Portland for the Rose Festival in June, the navy department has advised Senator McNary.

The citizens of Mayville, Wheeler county, have formed a company and put down an artesian well which will give ample water for the town.

Approximately $14,000 will be made available by the forest service this year for work on the Big Camas-Diamond lake section of the Umpqua highway.

Company H, The Dalles machine gun unit of the Oregon national guard was mustered into service at the civic auditorium in The Dalles at a public ceremony.

Fifteen counties in Oregon had failed to remit their first half tax collections when the time for sending the money to the state treasurer expired, May 1.

Because of the embargo on garden truck from California, due to the foot and mouth disease, mid-Columbia gardeners are expecting an unusually profitable year.

Removal of Dr. Frederick D. Stricker as state health officer was demanded of Governor Pierce in a communication signed by the Portland Dairy men's association.

A gain of more than 28 per cent in Eugene postal receipts for April this year over the corresponding month last year has been reported by Postmaster Yorak.

William Edick, prominent orchardist, has been selected as sheriff of Hood River county to succeed Thomas F. Johnson, recently appointed postmaster at Hood River.

The Umattilla house, a historic landmark of The Dalles, once the scene of splendor and lavish entertainments will be sold under the sheriff's hammer for delinquent taxes.

Exhibits at this year's state fair will be confined exclusively to Oregon products, and no non-resident exhibits will be accepted, according to a decision of the state fair board.

Motor vehicles of normal weight have been permitted to resume travel on the Oregon trail between the foot of Emigrant hill and Hilgard for the first time in several months.

The Salem chapter, American War Mothers, has launched a movement to erect a monument in honor of the young men of Marion county who lost their lives in the world war.

The Southern Pacific company had net income of $30,017,397.48 during 1923, according to the annual report of the corporation filed in the offices of the public service commission.

The state tax collected on sales of gasoline and distillate in Oregon during the month of March aggregated $152,282.10, according to a report by Sam A. Koter, secretary of state.

David J. Gover died at Cottage Grove as the result of being trampled by his horses and terribly crushed when two wheels of his wagon, loaded with gravel, passed over his chest.

With wool shearing in Oregon fully three weeks earlier than usual, wool is beginning to accumulate at Boise and other points in the eastern counties, but no business has developed yet.

The Eugene city council has ordered a special election July 2 on the proposal to issue $500,000 in bonds to build a municipal auditorium on or adjacent to the university of Oregon campus.

May day in Portland was marked by two walkouts, one in the plant of the Dollar-Portland Lumber company, with 75 men affected, the other being that of drivers of the Star Ice and Coal company.

A bulletin of considerable interest to lumbermen, covering the natural reproduction of Douglas fir in Oregon and Washington, written by Dr. J. V. Hefman, has just been announced by the Portland office of the forest service. The pamphlet has 63 pages, is well illustrated and has two maps and diagrams. The work has been under preparation for three years.

(Continued on page 3)

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Chester Curtis and family visited his uncle, Jack Curtis, of Peoria, Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Bond of Albany spent the week end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Isom.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Starnes, Miss Hattie Dannen, and Mrs. J. F. Isom went to Eugene one day last week.

Mrs. Florence Cogswell of Portland visited at the A. E. Whitbeck home Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mercer of Eugene visited Mrs. Mercer's mother, Mrs. D. I. Isom, Saturday night and Sunday.

J. F. Isom came home from West Fir, where he is employed in a lumber mill, for a few days' visit with his family.

Lon Chamlee, pastor of the Halsey Christian church, and his family took Sunday dinner at the E. A. Starnes home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burton of Portland came up Friday of last week, bringing Mrs. D. I. Isom home after a stay of three weeks in that city.

The Halsey alumni of the University of Oregon have begun work on their campaign to raise a large share of the million dollar alumni fund which will be used to erect new buildings. Prof. English is local chairman of the campaign, which will be completed May 30.

Mrs. Carl Seefeld and daughter visited the former's mother, Mrs. Smith, Monday.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ: Lon Chamlee, minister. Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.

Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day. Christian Endeavor, 7. Evening service, 8.

The church without a bishop, in the country without a king. If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist: Robert Parker, pastor. Sunday School, 10. Preaching, 11. Intermediate League, 7. Epworth League, 7. Prayer meeting Thursday, 8. Preaching, 8.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tussing spent Sunday at the Reece Malloy home.

Alda Cochran and Glenda Ross have completed their year's teaching and are home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gamble spent the week end at the Dave Paine home in Sheridan.

Marvel Lawrence has finished her post-graduate course in teaching training at high school. She is one of Oregon's future teachers.

Mrs. Lyall Bowers is home from the Lebanon hospital, and Belle Burson is helping her with her housework for the present.

J. C. Harrison and A. A. Tussing of Halsey made a business trip to Douglas county Saturday morning, returning the same night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison motored to Sheridan Saturday morning, returning Sunday evening. While there they were the guests of the Dave Paine family.

Miss Gretia Harrison and Mesdames Irene Lovely and Lila Hanna, sisters, are nicely started in the confectionery business. Their father bought the "Grille" for them.

Sam Barger, an old Confederate soldier, went last week to the State Soldiers' Home. The old fellow was a familiar figure on the streets and no doubt will be missed. Years ago he was a Brownsville business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nelson gave a farewell party for John Bowers last Thursday night. The time was spent playing games until late when sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee were served. John goes to Eugene to work with a construction gang.

Mrs. Lillian Templeton, long employed in Jones' notion store, has bought the business.

Miss Aletha Isom and Jim Callaway announce their engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lawson took a prize offered for the best appearing couple at the legion dance.

Coyotes have been severe on sheep hereabouts this year. Tom Woody, while hunting them, killed eight coyote pups in a den which he discovered.

Brownsville's population continues to increase, in the newspaper business as well as out. Bachelor Hinman as publisher gave place to a flock of Loomises, and now a flock of Byrds has arrived and numerous Taylors are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith and children drove to Albany Sunday and spent the day at the D. S. McWilliams home.

Shedd Snapshots

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Mrs. R. A. Margason was a Salem visitor last week.

S. J. Shoen was a business visitor Monday in Albany.

Mrs. Lyman Pennell and Mrs. H. S. Pugh spent Friday in Salem.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoen last Tuesday.

Mrs. Emma Coon of Portland is visiting friends and relatives in Shedd.

Lyman and Lyle Pennell of Portland were Shedd visitors over Sunday.

C. J. Shedd and Sol Meyers drove to Portland Thursday, returning Friday.

Miss Agnes Pugh is at home, her school near Philomath closing last week.

Clyde Crawford has gone to Oakridge, where he expects to work this summer.

The Potter Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Fred Sprenger Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Porter and Mrs. Agnes Clark were among the shoppers in Albany Saturday.

Miss Undine Dannen is teaching school at the W. C. T. U. Children's Home, near Corvallis.

Mrs. Dora Davis has returned to Shedd, nearly recovered from a recent surgical operation.

Several college students were home for the week end, among them Raymond and Harold Shedd, Merle Pugh and Undine Dannen.

Shedd high school played baseball at Brownsville Friday winning, 19 to 17; the grammar grades played at Tangent on Saturday, losing, 7 to 21.

The recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Jess Cross at the M. E. church Saturday evening, was well attended and enjoyed as the pupils did splendid work.

The Shedd community regrets very much the leaving of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Rodgers. They have moved to Albany, where Mr. Rodgers is working for the Nebergall Meat company.

Bundle day for near east relief is May 21. Last year during the exile of more than a million people from Asia Minor 500,000 people were given protection by means of used American clothing. A Portland man, Barclay Arhosen, now in the near east, writes that this clothing in many cases meant the difference between life and death. Used clothing for many women and children is greatly needed now, as approximately half a million people are still unable to find homes in Greece and the suffering is intense.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING OPTICAL

EYE STRAIN
Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS!

If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US. We can Relieve You.

Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany. Phone

LOOK YOUTHFUL IN GINGHAM

GINGHAM WEEK SPECIALS

Crispy fresh gingham frocks in new colorful patterns that only the gay brilliance of Spring itself can rival, will form no small portion of mid-lady's Spring wardrobe. National Gingham Week, April 27th to May 3rd, in all the glory of the new season's happy colors, will furnish many a timely inspiration.

See the new Gingham at

KOONTZS GOOD GOODS