Mylrea of Liverpool; G. Ruhr, Hamburg; V. Merello, Genoa; H. Desmidt, Paris, and R. G. Bonsor of London.

OREGON is to become still better known to travelers and business men of Europe.

Five European representatives of Southern Pacific company have just made a trip through Oregon in order to better acquaint themselves with the scenic attractions and economic resources of the state.

With this more intimate knowledge of the state they will be in a better position to serve both the interests of Oregon and those of Europeans in carrying out their duties with the railroad company.

Having been in Oregon they can more accurately and easily furnish information to people planning to come to the United States, or who ship or receive freight to or from the state.

The foreign agents have been spending a month visiting various sections of the Pacific coast served by Southern Pacific, accompanied by L. H. Nutting of the company's New York office. They traveled during the daylight hours only so that the members of the party could get a good idea of the character of every section visited.

The visit of the European representatives of the Southern Pacific is expected to be of importance in improving the business relations between the Pacific coast and the countries of Europe. It is said to be the first time that a transcontinental railroad has brought its foreign agents here for an intensive study of local conditions.

Members of the party are V. Mylrea of Liverpool; G. Ruhr, Hamburg; V. Merello, Genoa; H. Desmidt, Paris, and R. G. Bonsor of London.
