

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1924

NO. 42

HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Glen Frum went to Salem Monday.

Miss Mary LaRue had business in Albany Monday.

H. D. Warner is driving Mr. Guldner's stage this week.

Miss Cleona Smith made a trip to Sweet Home Saturday.

A. F. Spurling is taking an automobile trip into southern California.

Claron Gormley, who has been working at Reedsport, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hess of Brownsville were passengers to Albany on Monday.

Tuesday Mrs. C. E. Gormley went to Millersburg where she will visit her father, J. G. Gourley.

Mrs. H. M. Henry and Emma and Pat drove over to Nortons Tuesday for a stay on their ranch.

Mrs. R. H. Daugherty of Pomeroy, Wash., and son Asa of Seattle, arrived in Halsey Tuesday for a short stay at their old home.

Only four failures occurred among the 1200 eighth-grade pupils who took the state examination in this county.

Several instances of wool theft have been reported since shearing started and now thieves are peeling chittem on other people's property. Two men were arrested last week for stealing 22 fleeces from Anders Christensen of Harrisburg. One confessed and the wool was recovered.

Davidson, president of the Santiam wagon road company, claims there are twelve to fourteen million feet of timber on the right of way. If the government will exchange equal timber for this he may take the county's $5000 and let the county and the govern-

WE HAVE EVERY THING OPTICAL

EYE STRAIN
Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS

If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US. We can Relieve You

Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany, Phone ment and build a road over the pass.

Master Jerry Moody of Harrisburg arrived Monday to spend the week with C. P. Moody and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Simons of Eugene visited at the Curtis Veatch and Henry Weger homes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Veatch and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Frum drove to Hood River Monday to attend grand lodge.

Miss Alberta Koontz spent the week end with home folks and had as a guest Miss Irene Balsinger of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. James Drinkard, accompanied by Mrs. M. V. Koontz and Frank, Martin and Herman Koontz, drove to Holley Sunday.

County Surveyor Leonard was the only candidate voted for in the primaries of both parties to succeed himself as county surveyor, and a son was born to him the same day.

Gravel is being unloaded by machinery from railroad cars and hauled to the road east of here in the Carey neighborhood at a rapid rate. The quantity of sand in that gravel is surely sufficient to serve as a binder, if it will so serve.

A. A. Tussing and wife started for California Monday morning on a combined business and pleasure trip, expecting to visit various towns and go as far south as San Diego. They expect to be home about June 7th.

William Schweiger, who had lived at Harrisburg since last fall and had a good reputation, is in jail charged with a felonious assault on fifteen year-old Mary Swift. The girl had been permitted to go to a movie with him by the Frank Nemchick family, with whom she resided, and the crime is alleged to have been committed on the way home.

Our history story, "In the Days of Poor Richard," in this week's chapter recounts some bloody deeds, but they are deeds which no worthwhile history could omit in telling of the events leading to formation of the American nation. The old one-legged renegade whom Jack Irons whipped in the first installment of the story gets his quietus from the mouth of Solomon Binkins' gun and the raiding indians get a scare which they think comes from the Great Spirit, and who shall say it didn't, whatever the medium which brought it?

(Continued on page 4)

Pine Grove Patters

(Enterprise Correspondence)

The Pine Grove orchestra met Wednesday.

Mrs. Inez Smith was a Eugene visitor Saturday.

Albert Miner was helping Mr. Dykstra fill a silo Saturday.

Otto Neff is in a Portland hospital recovering from an operation on his eyes.

Mrs. Etta McDaniel of Portland visited at the R. K. Stewart home last week.

Charley Gibson and T. P. Patton shipped two carloads of sheep Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eagy spent Sunday at the home of her parents at Oakville.

Frank Gansle, Albert Miner and Albert Heinrich went to Eugene Monday.

The Pine Grove boys will play baseball with a Halsey pick-up team Saturday afternoon.

About two hundred saw "The Farmerettes" at the schoolhouse. The piano fund was gainer by $34.65.

The Harmony school closed Friday, the teacher, Mrs. Laurel Chandler, and pupils having a picnic on the lake.

Mr. Gardner and Walt Smith have just finished shingling the house and doing some work on the barn at the Floyd Nichols farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pike of North Bond visited Mrs. Pike's uncle, R. K. Stewart, and cousin, Mrs. Hoyer, Saturday and Sunday.

There have been no cases of foot and mouth disease in Oregon as yet, but an exchange remarks that it knows of several people afflicted with the hand to mouth disease.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ:
Lon Chamies, minister.
Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.
Christian Endeavor, 7.
Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.
Evening service, 8.

Sunday twenty-five men met after the morning service and talked over the prospects for a big men's class, similar to those now going in hundreds of churches of Christ over the country. They were enthusiastic about the idea. A committee was appointed to arrange for place and date. A delegation of Halsey men will be in Eugene June 1 to hear George P. Taubman, the world-famous teacher of the largest men's Bible class, and come back full of "pep" for a men's class at Halsey.

President E. C. Sanderson will be our speaker next Sunday morning. You will want to hear him.

Sunday, June 1, is Children's Day and June 8 is Pentecost. June 15 is Ministers' anniversary day.

Last Sunday the two Smith boys, Wayne and Fleming, were baptized in the little stream that flows past their place. Quite a number of friends were present to observe the ordinance.

The baccalaureate sermon for the High school will be delivered by Rev. Robert Parker of the M. E. church in the Church of Christ building at 8.

The church without a bishop, in the country without a king. If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist:
Robert Parker, pastor.
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Intermediate League, 7.
Epworth League, 7.
Prayer meeting Thursday, 8.
Preaching, 8.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

A number of farmers around town are replanting their corn.

Mrs. Emma Harrison returned home from Lebanon Friday.

Marvel Lawrence has accepted a position in Albany for the summer.

Jack Gamble, John Newland and Cecil Harrison drove to Albany Saturday on business.

Belle and Mabel Burson, Gladys Hoyer and Bruce Burson drove to Albany Friday on a shopping tour.

Miss Eva Weeks of Lebanon, former teacher at Ash Swale, spent the week end at the N. L. Burson home.

The local W. C. T. U. is offering a prize to the school children for the best essay on "Cigarettes." The time is up Friday.

There are to be union memorial services at the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. M. S. Woodworth is to deliver the sermon.

The Pioneer Telephone picnic held at the local grounds Saturday was well attended. The sports were good as well as the speaking. Brownsville lost as usual in the ball game with Harrisburg.

School closes at Ash Swale with a picnic Friday on Lone Pine. Mr. Howe, the teacher, has put in a successful year and has been hired for the coming year. Thelma, Edna and Elbert Harrison were neither absent nor tardy during the eight months. There was no eighth grade, but Thelma Harrison, Dora Burson, Guy Burson and Jim Lawrence will all be in the eighth next year.

John Warren of Brownsville died May 9, aged 83.

The first Linn county open forum picnic is to be at Brownsville on June Sunday noon.

Mrs. Minnie Waggener, who was operated on recently at the Brownsville hospital, is reported to be recovering nicely.

The Brownsville chamber of commerce is trying to have the state commission force the Southern Pacific to restore the daily railroad train, which was discontinued because it was losing money for the company.

Miss Helen M. Kols went to Albany yesterday.

M. L. Howe of Brownsville was a passenger to Portland Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Brallier of Brownsville was a passenger to Albany Monday.

Dick Landon of Brownsville was a passenger to Albany Monday via Halsey.

Mrs. Louis Howe and son took the train at Halsey for Roseburg Friday.

In the first game played at the new baseball field Harrisburg beat Brownsville 8 to 4.

Mrs. E. F. La Fayette of Brownsville went to Albany Tuesday. She has a class in music there.

A. B. Miller, cream agent, was transacting business with M. H. Shook in Halsey yesterday.

A Brownsville fisherman came in with an 18-inch trout and was proud of it till a small boy caught one of the same length within the city limits.

Shedd Snapshots

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Jack Dannen has installed a radio in his home.

Glen Gregory, who has been working at Hilt, Cal., has returned home.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church served a chicken pie dinner election day.

Mrs. Lyman Pennell and boys drove to Portland Saturday and returned Monday.

C. A. Pugh, C. H. Davidson and C. W. Malson drove to Oakridge on Sunday.

Mrs. Del Hinson of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Arnold.

The Potter Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Ed Zimmerman Wednesday. A quilt was tied for the Children's Home, after which lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerman.

Roy Commons, who has been in California, was an overnight visitor in Shedd on his way to Portland.

Elmer Margason and his aunt, Mrs. Emma Coon, were in Brownsville on Friday attending school exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kennedy and small son James of Chelan Falls, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Dora Davis.

At the meeting of the Eastern Star Wednesday five were initiated: Mr. and Mrs. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. Clay P. Moody and Dr. T. I. Marks, all of Halsey. After the regular work refreshments were served. Several visitors were present from Albany, Tangent and Brownsville.

Some of the Shedd visitors and shoppers in Albany Thursday were Mr. Ritchie and Harry Spranger and wives, Mrs. W. W. Poland, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Poland, Mrs. W. McConnel and daughters Clarice and Willow, Mrs. Edith Coney, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. McClaine, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Margason and Mrs. Emma Coon.

J. E. Willoughby has sold his meat market to Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, immigrants from Montana. Mr. Willoughby will do some resting and visiting before entering in new activities.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Arch Ingram of Monroe called on his uncle, Lee Ingram, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Sprenger of Corvallis visited at the E. A. Starnes home Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Mercer of Eugene spent several days last week with her mother, Mrs. D. I. Isom.

Mrs. E. D. Isom spent several days last week in Albany with her mother, Mrs. L. E. Bond, who was ill.

B. E. Cogswell of Portland came up to his ranch last week to look after the shearing of his sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sickels and son of Eugene were Sunday evening callers at the E. D. Isom home.

Chester Curtis and family visited at the home of Chester's brother, Jay Curtis of Lebanon, Sunday.

Leonard Ingram and family of Glenbrook visited Leonard's uncle, Lee Ingram, Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Lillie Rickard came home from Monmouth last week to spend a few days with her mother, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cornett of Shedd and Mrs. Tom Hill of Halsey called on Mrs. D. I. Isom Thursday afternoon.

C. L. Morris, an old resident of Harrisburg, was buried in the Masonic cemetery at Alford Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Moore and two children and Mrs. Andrew Brown and nephew were callers at the E. D. Isom home one evening last week.

Mrs. Michael Rickard went to Corvallis Sunday evening to help care for two of her grandchildren who had had their tonsils removed.

Sunday afternoon E. A. Starnes and family drove to Eugene, where Mrs. Starnes entered a hospital and underwent a surgical operation early Monday morning.

Sunday visitors at the John Rolfe home were Lewis Walle and family and Wm. McCann of Wells, Etta Godwin of Buena Vista, George Godwin and family of Corvallis, Ed Wills and family of Hilt, Cal., Mrs. Jennie Juhnke of Foster and Mr. Phelix of Roseburg.

Walter Winslow, Salem attorney, has filed suit in the circuit court to restrain the state game commission from changing the opening dates of the deer season. Mr. Winslow filed a similar suit in the circuit court a year ago with the result that his contention was affirmed by the supreme court.

NEWS NOTES FROM ALL OVER OREGON

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

Gaston is to have a tourist free automobile camp.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed one of the barns at the state training school for boys at Salem.

Although the season is early, caterpillars are already appearing on the fruit trees in Benton county.

The steam schooner G. C. Lindauer struck the bar at the mouth of the Umpqua river and is a total wreck.

The Marshfield chamber of commerce annual banquet was attended by 400 people representing Coos bay and coast sections.

With a nucleus of 500 volumes in 1877, the second year of the University of Oregon, the library at the state university has grown to 130,000 volumes.

Damage roughly estimated by the owners at $100,000 was done by fire in the furniture-making plant of the Strauss Manufacturing company in Portland.

The Hawley Pulp & Paper company of Oregon City has purchased approximately 11,000 acres of high-grade pulp timber in Tillamook county, according to recent reports.

The La Grande post of the American Legion has voted $1000 in pledges to be used as the initial fund for the construction of a proposed armory building in that city.

Plans for the new Elks' temple to be erected in Salem this year have been approved by the grand exalted ruler of the order. The temple will cost approximately $175,000.

Contractors have begun work on the North Powder gymnasium and it is hoped to have the building completed by the opening of school in the fall. The cost will be about $3500.

A mortgage given by the Coos Bay Water company for $450,000 in favor of the Security Savings company of Portland was filed last week in the county clerk's office at Coquille.

Oregon pensions have been granted as follows: Martha W. Williamson, La Grande, $30; Joseph B. Johnston, Medford, $12; James C. Stevens, Portland, $18; William A. Hicks, Portland, $12.

The logging industry of the lower Columbia river district is having hard sledding at present, both from the viewpoint of the operators and that of the employes, owing to cuts in the price of logs.

Voters of Multnomah county retired the three present members of the county board of commissioners in the recall election and replaced them by the candidates who were sponsored by the recall committee.

A single selling agency for the $5,000,000 Oregon prune crop and a single featured brand has been agreed on by prune growers and others who have been working with them on the project for nearly a year.

The use of calcium cyanide flakes as a means of poisoning red ground squirrels that are a serious pest in some parts of Umatilla county has proved very successful, according to Fred Bennion, county agent.

Drastic alterations in the state income tax provisions, intended both to popularize the statute and to overcome the serious legal objections involved in its present form, are planned in a new law drawn at the instance of Governor Pierce.

Walter T. Eakin of Astoria was appointed a member of the state fish commission in place of John Smith, also of Astoria, who declined to serve. Announcement of the appointment was made by Governor Pierce. Mr. Eakin will succeed Christian Schmidt, who term has expired.

There is being distributed from the office of J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, pamphlets containing information relative to the issuance of bonds by school districts in Oregon. The circular is authoritative, having been prepared by I. H. VanWinkle, attorney general.

Many Baker county farmers are in fear that the serious water shortage will cause a heavy loss in farm crops this year. In many sections of the county the range is reported to be drying out, and springs which have never been known to go dry are lower this spring than any time in previous years.

(Continued on page 3)

LOOK YOUTHFUL IN GINGHAM

GINGHAM WEEK SPECIALS

Crispy fresh gingham frocks in new colorful patterns that only the gay brilliance of Spring itself can rival, will form no small portion of midday's Spring wardrobe. National Gingham Week, April 27th to May 3rd, in all the glory of the new season's happy colors, will furnish many a timely inspiration.

See the new Gingham at

KOONTZS
GOOD GOODS