Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Bella Burson was in Albany Tuesday.

J. C. Harrison and Jim Burson attended the track meet at Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Harrison has rented her home in North Brownsville to Faye Mallow and expects to reside at Lebanon.

The play shed at Ash Swale is receiving a new coat of paint. Jack Gamble and Earl Harrison are doing the work.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson is to speak at the Presbyterian church Thursday, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U.

Nelson Crume has traded his house just north of town for a rooming house in Corvallis and expects to move soon.

Mrs. W. P. Elmore is convalescing nicely after her fall of last week. She is able to be up a part of each day, but cannot use her foot.

Some of the Ash Swale women and a few women from town spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. S. C. Harrison at the Harrison country home at Ash Swale. In the evening ice cream and cake were served.

There is to be an all-day W. C. T. U. meeting at the Baptist church Thursday. The union is organizing the children of its own into a Loyal Temperance Legion. The best time to get workers for the W. C. T. U. is when they are young.

Either the pupils were unusually prepared for the eighth-grade examinations or the questions were easier than common, for only one failed to pass, and he failed in civics only. All in the sixth and seventh grades passed. This means a full freshman class next year, as some of the freshmen this year were not so fortunate.

North Brownsville people are building much cement sidewalk this year.

Last Monday William Davidson and wife passed the 57th anniversary of their marriage. He is 81 years old and she is 76. Both are in good health, though Mrs. Davidson has not fully recovered from the effects of a recent accident in which her hip was injured. Three or four years ago Davidson bought an automobile which he runs on occasion. He was in Halsey a few days ago and appeared good for many more years.

Kathleen Mavournean Loan. A debtor, on being sued, acknowledged that he had borrowed the money, but declared that the plaintiff knew at the time that it was a Kathleen Mavournean loan. "A Kathleen Mavournean loan?" questioned the magistrate, with a puzzled look. "That's it, your honor—one of the 'it may be for years, and it may be for ever sort.'"

American Plant in England. Introduced by accident in 1879 into the Bay of Southampton, at Hythe, an American plant, called the Spartina Townendii, has spread rapidly along the English coast, flourishing vigorously in spite of the fact that it is under water part of the time. The plant is an excellent fodder for cattle and may possibly be used for paper pulp. It may be introduced to the French coast to bind the shifting sands.

Most "Waxed" Paper is Glassine. Only a very small amount of the so-called waxed paper is really waxed, but is the "glassine" paper which is made by overcooking the pulp while it is being prepared.

Chinese Currency. Two years after China invented bank notes, the currency of the country became so inflated that a $100 note would only buy a pound of rice.

Pasteur Aided Wine Makers. To grow their grapes so that poisonous fermentations could not develop was taught the wine makers of France by Pasteur.

Factory Accidents. One-half the accidents in factories in New York, with a loss of $80,000 a day to industries, are due to ignorance of the English language.
