

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1924

NO. 45

HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Delos Wesley was in Albany Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Corcoran visited Albany Monday.

T. H. C. Brasfield, who was ill last week, is able to be up and about again. S. J. Shoen is on the sick list.

Halsey learned the baseball lesson the Pine Grove boys came over and gave, and last Saturday went over and returned the compliment, beating Pine Grove 7 to 4.

Roland Marks, having graduated and meantime served time in various drug stores, starts out as a full-fledged pharmacist in one of Portland's big drug stores at $150 a month.

Mrs. Cecil Small, who has been living at Newberg, is visiting Mrs. Lyman Coates a few days before going to Astoria to live. Mrs. Small will be remembered as Florence Adams.

The Kirk-Pollak Motor Company has moved into a large new building on Second and Lyon streets, Albany, and it is the handsomest and most up-to-date auto quarters in the county.

E. B. Williamson was elected president of the Albany chamber of commerce at the annual meeting.

The Rev. Robert A. Buchanan of Sitka, Alaska, has accepted the pastorate of Grace Presbyterian church at Albany, succeeding the Rev. A. D. Thompson, who resigned after serving several years.

The Wheelers wish to thank the Halsey young people who serenaded them Monday evening. The musicians kindly left some of their instruments—gans, kettles, etc.—which the recipients may perhaps learn, in the course of time, to play.

O. W. Frum was a Holley visitor Friday.

Mrs. L. E. Walton was a Salem caller Thursday.

Mrs. C. P. Stafford was a Eugene visitor Saturday.

M. H. Shook returned Monday from a short trip to Portland.

Mrs. Albert Miller was a Brownsville visitor the last of the week.

Patton & Gibson shipped a carload of lambs from Tulsa Monday.

Miss Grace Kirk returned Saturday from Monmouth normal school.

E. S. Hayes and family returned Wednesday from a trip to Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bramwell and B. S. Clark and D. Taylor drove to Albany Thursday.

R. M. Hoop of Portland went home Monday after doing work in Brownsville for the Albany college drive.

Miss Dollie Allingham, for many years a resident of Halsey, is demonstrating food products at the Koontz store.

J. S. McMahan returned the last of the week from Sweet Home, where he had taken some cattle to summer range.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Quimby returned Friday from their home at Alesia and will spend the summer in this neighborhood.

E. G. Ward and son Ferris of Eugene, were in Halsey Sunday visiting their mother and grandmother, Mrs. M. M. Ward.

Mrs. Albert Miller returned Monday from a visit to Eugene and was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Florence Leeper, and grandson Francis.

The county offered $400 to the heirs of John O. Brown for ownership of an acre needed for the approach to the Harrisburg bridge. The heirs ask $1200. Condemnation proceedings have been started.

The Fisher-Braden Furniture company is now established in its new home at Second and Broad-albin streets, Albany, and has a large advertisement on page 6 of the Enterprise this week. Look at the prices.

Frank Ganzle, Will McDowell and J. P. Hunter were in a car engaged in the sport of chasing a rabbit along the road near Sweet Home Saturday when a wheel came off. No damage was done except a little plowing up of the road.

(Continued page 3)

Cleveland Auditorium Scene of G. O. P. Convention

The convention yesterday approved the Harding-Coolidge world court plans and invited LaFollette to start his threatened third party on progressive issues.

E. L. Barnett of Portland a d wife and their daughter and husband from Seattle stopped in Halsey a few hours Tuesday on their way to Harrisburg. The elder Barnett formerly lived in Halsey. He and H. C. Davis were chums and schoolmates, their fathers' farms adjoining, but he found very few people here now whom he recognized.

Young James Rector returned Sunday evening from Albany, where he had been the guest of Elliott McWilliams for a few days. While gone he made a trip to Portland with the McWilliams family.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ: Lon Chamlee, minister.

Last Sunday 20 men met for the opening session of the Men's Bible Class. Our aim was 25. We want the other 5 by next Sunday. There was a good, lively song service, a patriotic service, introduction of all men, and a short message on the lesson. Class officers were elected as follows: President, Aaron Starnes; vice president, Rodney Savage; song leader, Elbert Isom; secretary-treasurer, Arlie Cummings; teacher, Lon Chamlee; assistant teacher, William White. There will be six committees, publicity, music, social, usher, membership, and benevolent. The president will announce the chairmen later.

Next Sunday the Bible school will observe children's day. We will raise $50 for the support of a native evangelist in Africa, where Miss Goldie Wells is. The plan is for every one to give one cent for every year he or she has lived.

The minister will preach his anniversary day message at 11 a. m. "It's a Great Life if You Don't Weaken."

Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.

Christian Endeavor, 7.

Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.

Evening service, 8.

The church without a bishop, in the country without a king.

If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist: Robert Parker, pastor.

Sunday School, 10.

Preaching, 11.

Intermediate League, 7.

Epworth League, 7.

Prayer meeting Thursday, 8.

Preaching, 8.

THEODORE E. BURTON

He made the "keynote speech" at Cleveland.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Chester Curtis went to Albany Monday.

Beverly Isom visited her grandmother, Mrs. Louise Bond, Kate and Hazel Green visited their friend, Thelma Ingram, Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Starnes was brought home from the hospital Thursday of last week.

Miss DeEtta Robnett of Eugene is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. D. I. Isom.

Mrs. Michael Rickard is quite ill and Mrs. J. H. Rickard is improving after a long siege of sickness.

E. A. Starnes and daughters Esther and Henrietta, attended the Shedd graduation exercises Friday night.

Miss Lillie Rickard is home for the summer vacation from Monmouth, where she attended school the past winter.

in Albany Saturday and saw Jackie Coogan in "Circus Days" at the Globe theatre, returning home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mercer and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Robnett and daughter Doris of Eugene were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mrs. D. I. Isom.

E. D. Isom and family attended the graduating exercises of the Albany high school Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Isom's sister, Miss Vera Bond, was one of the graduates.

Sunday dinner guests at the E. D. Isom home were Lon Chamlee, pastor of the Halsey Christian church, his family and their guests, Miss Della Snyder and Miss Cornelia Scharfenberg of Bellevue, Ohio.

Shedd Snapshots

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Arnold drove to Lebanon Sunday.

Jim Tait, the Shedd barber, was in Albany on business Wednesday.

Miss Ima Powers of Albany is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Cornett.

Mesdames H. S. Pugh and Lyman Pennell drove to Scio Sunday.

T. H. C. Brasfield, Sol Meyer and J. C. Clay drove to Sodaville Sunday.

Lyman Coates, Frank Hoffman and wives spent Sunday visiting friends in Albany.

Mrs. W. Brunson and children of Maplewood are visiting Mrs. Brunson's sisters, Mrs. Vern Arnold and Mrs. Harry Sprenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Abraham and sons Lester and Everett returned Sunday from several days' stay at Belknap Springs.

C. J. Shedd and family attended the baccalaureate services at Albany College Sunday evening. Harold Shedd was in the graduating class.

Mrs. Lyman Pennell and sons Mrs. Agnes Clark and Lucille Shedd went to Portland Monday to attend the Eastern Star convention and rose festival.

Mrs. Lyman Pennell and sons, the graduation exercises in Albany Wednesday. Among the graduates who formerly attended Shedd school were Gail Troutman and David Porter.

Thursday was picnic day, the several grades and high school all going to different places in the woods and enjoying their lunches and having a good time in general.

Shedd's first ball team played the Albany Moose at Shedd on Sunday. The score was 7 to 11 in Shedd's favor; the second team played Jefferson at Jefferson and Shedd lost by a score of 5 to 16.

Frank Hoffman drove over from Prineville last week and with his wife is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Coates. Mrs. Hoffman is Mrs. Coates' sister and has been visiting here for some time.

The Commencement exercises were held in the W. O. W. hall Friday evening. High school pupils receiving diplomas were Viola Arnold, Clarence McConnell and Edna Farwell of the eighth grade; Katherine Arnold Berniece Farwell, Dorothy Duncan and Roy Dannen, Janet Katherine and Carl Arnold, Parthena White and Merle Thompson, received awards for the best attendance.

NEWS NOTES FROM ALL OVER OREGON

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

A total of $81,110.50 was turned over to the state treasurer by the state land board during the month of May.

Fitzhugh G. Lee has been confirmed by the senate as postmaster at Junction City, Or., and William C. Foster at Tillamook.

Thirty-nine students at the Indian school at Chemawa received diplomas from Governor Pierce at the graduating exercises.

Eugene's building permits totaled $1,347,035 for the first five months of 1924. The permits during May amounted to $250,150.

City officials have asked that Eugene people curtail their use of water, as the filtering plant is not working up to standard.

An order restraining the state game commission from changing the open season on deer was issued by Circuit Judge Bingham, Wednesday.

Building permits in Marshfield for the first five months of 1924 aggregated $331,000, which is nearly on a par with those issued throughout 1923.

The University of Oregon has raised $309,762 thus far in its nation-wide million-dollar endowment campaign, according to the official report issued May 28.

A limited number of enlistments from Portland for the air service in the Philippines has been authorized by the ninth corps area headquarters at San Francisco.

R. T. Spalding has resigned as secretary of the Marshfield chamber of commerce to become secretary of the Medford chamber, succeeding H. O. Frohach, resigned.

Dentists from many sections of the state, some 500 in number, gathered in Portland Wednesday for the 31st annual convention of the Oregon State Dental association.

While other regions suffer from lack of water, the Warm Springs irrigation project enjoys the distinction of being the only project in the west with a surplus for 1924.

Charles H. Carey, delegate at large from Oregon to the republican national convention was selected to make a speech seconding the nomination of President Coolidge.

The state tax on sales of gasoline and distillate in Oregon during the month of April aggregated $214,457.05, according to a statement prepared by Sam A. Koser, secretary of state.

A seawall of more than a half mile in length is one of the ambitious projects of Newport. The wall has been started and about 800 feet is under construction by the port commission.

F. E. Mallory was wounded in the face, chest and abdomen in exchanging shots with five men whom he observed prowling around the merchandise store of H. N. Beck in Hubbard.

Henry Tuckman of Portland, died at a Salem hospital as the result of injuries suffered when a truck in which he was riding plunged down a hill on the highway between Dallas and Independence.

Closer organization of the live stock industry of the state and the Pacific northwest was emphasized at the 11th annual convention of the Cattle and Horse Raisers' association of Oregon held in Baker.

At the Quartz crossing about five miles east of Baker, a west bound freight train ran into a herd of cattle belonging to Palmer & Denham and killed twenty-two and seriously injured a number more.

A convention of music teachers and professional musicians of Oregon was held at the University of Oregon Friday and Saturday of last week. Several hundred persons from all parts of the state attended.

Ted Mandronas, accused of being the third man in the Mosier Valley bank robbery last October, was found guilty of robbery armed with a dangerous weapon, by a jury in the circuit court at The Dalles.

Governor Pierce commuted from death to life imprisonment the sentence of Abe Evans, who was scheduled to be hanged for the murder of James Doran in Wasco county. The crime was committed September 16, 1921, near The Dalles. The governor's decision is based on the belief that Evans is feeble minded.

(Continued on page 2)

WE HAVE EVERY THING OPTICAL

EYE STRAIN
Is the Cause of Many HUMAN ILLS!
If your eyes give you trouble or your glasses are annoying SEE US. We can Relieve You

Bancroft Optical Co.
313 1st St. W. Albany. Phone

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION
at
M. V. KOONZ CO. STORE
of
CROWN FLOUR
and
Crown Mills Cereals
June 10 to 14 inclusive

Miss Allingham
will demonstrate the products of the company. Samples of COOKED FOOD FREE to Everybody

COME. You will not be asked to buy.

KOONTZS
GOOD GOODS