

U of O Library

HALSEY ENTERPRISE

VOL. XII

HALSEY, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1924

NO. 46

HALSEY-HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

Sam McGee of Peoria has been fined $50 for killing deer out of season.

Brandon school district elected A. H. Quimby clerk and Clinton Morse director.

'Rah! 'rah!!! 'rah!!! Halsey went over and trimmed Brownsville in a baseball game yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Chamlee and small sons Paul and Ralph spent Sunday at the A. C. Armstrong home.

W. G. Trill of Harrisburg had some ribs broken and W. A. Taylor of the same city suffered a broken leg and both were otherwise injured yesterday when their car skidded into the Yaquina river near Craitwood.

Petitions bearing nearly 1000 names were submitted to the state highway department protesting against any change in the location of the Albany bridge, for which bids have been opened.

Lively school election Monday: More than twice as many votes cast as last year—nineteen of 'em, H. C. Davis got 10 of them to 9 for Bert S. Clark, so Davis is school director for three years, B.

Albany's Only EXCLUSIVE OPTICAL PARLOR

OUR NEW PRICE LIST:

Double Vision Lenses
 Ullex, $18.50; Kryptok, $17.50;
 Peerless, $16.50; Brights, $15.50;
 Cemented Segments, $14.50.

Single or Distant Vision Lenses
 6 D Curve Toric, $13.50; Menicus, $12.50.
 1 1/4 D Curve Periscopic, $12.50;
 Flats, $10.50.

Fitted in Zilo, gold-filled or rimless frames.
 For heavy Zilo frames add $1 to $2.
 Deduct $2 for second-grade lens.
 Reading glasses, $2.50 to $10.

Bancroft Optical Co.
 313 West First street, Albany, Ore.

Ask about Punkal, the perfect lens.

M. Bond was re-elected clerk, as usual.

Horace Armstrong and family and Horace's mother were in Albany Saturday.

Mrs. Addie Schmelzer of Tillamook is visiting Mrs. Rachel Nicholson, near town.

Mrs. J. O. Drinkard of Elmira, Wash., is visiting Mrs. Douglas Taylor this week.

Earl Carey has gone to Eugene for a few days' visit while his fractured rib is recuperating.

Howard Fernan, who has employment in Portland, is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. C. Bramwell.

Horace Armstrong and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Olin Stalaker and Mrs. George Cummings at Corvallis Sunday.

George F. Schroll and wife are the recipients of a fine box of clams from their son, J. B. Schroll, at Cushman, Ore.

Ed Smith of Los Angeles, with his family, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. J. C. Bramwell. They are on their way to Colfax, Wash.

Mrs. A. C. Armstrong drove to Eugene Monday to attend the university commencement and brought home her daughter Helen for the summer vacation.

Mrs. J. D. Rode of Union, Ore., arrived Tuesday to visit at the home of her son R. M. Rode, and especially to get acquainted with her grandson Richard.

C. L. Kisler is substituting for Station Agent Moody for ten days while the latter and his family enjoy his vacation.

Miss Dellie Allingham returned to her home in Portland Monday, after demonstrating Crown flour in the Koontz store last week.

Farmers cut more hay in a week hereabouts than they usually cut in so short a time. Then came the pioneer picnic at Brownsville. The combination was too much for the weather man, and sprinkles of rain have been frequent since Tuesday. The picnic has but one more day to run and the showers have quit.

In this week's installment of "In the Days of Poor Richard" Jack Irons either falls asleep by the fire and has a prophetic dream or receives a spirit message from Henry Thornhill, for he later learns, as will be narrated in a future number, that Thornhill has been dead for years.

(Continued page 3)

Shedd Snapshots

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Irl Nolen, who was very ill for some time, is much improved.

Miss Merle Pugh came home on Tuesday for her vacation from O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robson left Thursday for a month's visit at Long Beach, Cal.

Miss Mildred Payton of Baker visited with Miss Merle Pugh a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Plainview spent Sunday in Shedd with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Thompson.

Mrs. Agnes Clark and Lucille Shedd are home from Portland and report having a fine time.

Miss Dorothy Satchwell, who graduated from state normal school at Monmouth, came home last week.

Mrs. Satchwell went to Salem on Wednesday to see her son Leonard graduate from Willamette university.

Charles Pugh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, Dale LaMar, Agnes Pugh and Dalton Gibbs all went to Cascadia Sunday.

British Bunker Hill War Map.
 A military map and plan, used by the British at the battle of Bunker Hill, has been sold at auction in London for $950. The map, eight inches square, bears the signature of Major General Sir Henry Clinton.

Peanut Oil.
 Peanut oil is one of the prime necessities of the average Chinese of south China and means to him what lard does to the American.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ:
 Lon Chamlee, minister.
 Big Brother's Bible Band is the name of the men's class, adopted last Sunday. Aaron Starnes proved to be a good president. He put things over in fine shape. Next Sunday we want fifty men present. We are going to meet in Odd Fellows' hall at 10 a. m. for a real lively session. The Odd Fellows will be there in large numbers. We guarantee some fine singing.

At 11 o'clock the pastor will deliver the annual memorial address to the Odd Fellows. They will march to the church and be seated in a body.

The church has granted a leave of absence for four weeks to the pastor while he and his family visit friends and relatives in California. Clifford Carey will fill the pulpit during his absence.

Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.
 Christian Endeavor, 7.
 Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.
 Evening service, 8.

The church without a bishop, in the country without a king.
 If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist:

Robert Parker, pastor.

The Methodist services will be held in the church next Sunday for three Sundays they have been held in the tent. The children's day program, which had been postponed for the tent meetings, will be given at 11 o'clock in place of the regular services, and preaching will be as usual in the evening. The young people voted in the League service to have a Bible study class Tuesday evening. The Bible, not some book about the Bible, will be the textbook. All young people are invited to be present.

Sunday School, 10.
 Preaching, 11.
 Intermediate League, 7.
 Epworth League, 7.
 Prayer meeting Thursday, 8, Preaching, 8.

Brwnsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Elaine Woodworth has secured the Brush Creek school for the coming year.

The new meetings at the tabernacle are well attended. Services three times a day.

Mrs. Ica Kent (nee Slavens) from Salem is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alice Moore, during the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allen have returned from Newport and started housekeeping in South Brownsville.

Miss Shirley Hemingway of Springfield is spending the days of the picnic with her aunt, Mrs. Hazel Moyer.

Mrs. Emma Harrison was up from Lebanon last week and paped her house for Fay Mallow to move into.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brox have set up housekeeping in the property formerly occupied by Homer Thompson.

Because the pastor went to the memorial services at Providence on Sunday there was no preaching at the Baptist church in the morning.

Hazel Moyer had a rather successful sale of her household goods last Thursday. She expects soon to go to Springfield where she will have employment. She was called to Albany Sunday on business.

The banquet at the Ash Swale school house last Friday night under auspices of the Hunt club, was a decided success. About fifty from Albany were present, also a number from Brownsville and Shedd. Sandwiches, cake, strawberries and coffee were served.

Among those who attended the Joab Powell memorial services at Providence Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Stanard, Mrs. Ed Starr, Rev. M. S. Woodward, Cecil Harrison and Miss Thelma Marvel Lawson. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Howe and daughter Emma, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Crune and Fred Harrison.

Alonzo Neal went to Albany Monday.

Mrs. Gessner of Portland, who has been visiting in Brownsville, went home Monday.

The boys continue, undetected, to shake the city at night occasionally with big explosives. One occurred near the bridge one night last week.

TH' OLE GROUCH

SO YOU'RE TH' OLE BUSYBODY THAT'S BEEN SPREADING TH' DIRTY ABOUT OUR BOYS 'N GALS, HEY? WELL, ALL I GOT T' SAY, MADAM, IS THAT TH' DUCKIN' STOOL WUZ ABOLISHED TOO SOON!

His Way Out.
 His Lordship—John. I'll bet you've looked into my whiskey flask. John (his valet)—Your lordship. I make it a princel's never to bet.

Heard by the Wayside.
 Trouble was never yet succeeded in making a freeborn fiddler mad enough to smash his fiddle over Trouble's hard head.

Perhaps is Right.
 Perhaps the people can't pay more for the food the farmers raise because they have to pay so much for everything else.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

who has been staying with her aunt, attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck called at the L. H. Straley home Friday.

J. N. Burnett went to Portland last week after his daughter Violet.

Mrs. A. E. Armstrong called on Mrs. E. A. Starnes one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rolfe spent several days at Corvallis and Buena Vista last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oxford and two sons of Plainview visited at the Starnes home Sunday.

Mrs. John Willbanks and daughter Gladys called on Mrs. E. A. Starnes one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck were Sunday evening callers at the J. I. Palmer home at Lake Creek.

Jake Dannen and wife of Shedd visited Mr. Dannen's sister, Mrs. E. A. Starnes, Sunday afternoon.

Lee Ingram and family were Sunday evening callers at the E. A. Starnes and E. D. Isom homes.

L. H. Armstrong and family called on the E. A. Starnes and E. D. Isom families one evening last week.

Emery Rickard spent several days at the home of his uncle, Jesse Jenk's last week, helping with the hay.

Mrs. E. D. Isom and daughter called on Mrs. J. H. Rickard and Mrs. Julius Falk Friday afternoon.

Leonard Ingram and family of Alpine visited Leonard's uncle, Lee Ingram, Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Thelma Ingram spent the night with her friends Hazel and Kate Green Thursday of last week.

Mrs. L. E. Bond and daughter Vera of Albany visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. D. Isom, last Saturday.

Miss Fay Dykstra spent Sunday with Henrietta Starnes and Esther Starnes spent the day with Doris Dykstra.

Mrs. Veda Bramwell and children of Halsey called on Mrs. E. A. Starnes and Mrs. E. D. Isom one afternoon last week.

Clyde Ingram of Portland, Garrison Sheldon of Ingram Island and Joe Ingram were Sunday visitors of Lee Ingram's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jenks, Oliver Jenks and Mrs. Mary Jenks of Tangent visited at the J. H. Rickard home Sunday.

Doris Robnett of Eugene came on Saturday evening to join her sister DeEtta for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. D. I. Isom.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kickenap, Miss Artamese Baine and Desmond Baine of Portland were week-end guests at J. N. Burnett's.

Miss Hatie Dannen and Mrs. C. C. Dickson and children and Mrs. Dickson of Shedd visited at the E. A. Starnes home last Friday afternoon.

At the annual school meeting of the Alford district Monday J. N. Burnett was elected director for three years, and Mrs. E. D. Isom clerk for one year.

Jay Curtis and family of Lebanon visited his brother Chester Curtis on Sunday. In the afternoon Jay and Chester with their families called on their brother Ellsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cooper, their son Homer Cooper and little granddaughter Madeline Cooper of Plainview were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mrs. D. I. Isom.

NEWS NOTES FROM ALL OVER OREGON

Epitome of Events in the Beaver State

Twenty-six carloads are estimated as the tonnage of Hood River strawberries this year.

Central, a small settlement west of Eugene, is planning a Fourth of July celebration.

Eugene is the first city in Oregon over the top in the alumni part of the University of Oregon gift campaign.

The Royal Anne and Bing cherry crop in Lane county is heavy this year and the cherries are ripening rapidly.

For throwing hot pennies to children in the streets a Portland dentist must serve 16 days in jail. Also, he must pay a fine of $100.

A series of joint community meetings are being held in all parts of Douglas county sponsored by the Roseburg chamber of commerce.

The state fish commission appointed Bert Ross of Astoria as master fish warden, to succeed Carl Shoemaker, whose resignation recently was announced.

Excavation work has started at Fir and Third streets in Medford for the erection of a new warehouse for the Mason, Ehrman company of Portland, to cost $80,000.

Harry B. Johnson, who has been principal of the Roseburg high school for the last three years, will be principal of the Astoria high school for the coming year.

Sixty-four fires in Oregon outside of Portland during May resulted in losses aggregating $488,875, according to a summary compiled by the state fire marshal.

With 250 delegates in attendance from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia, the Northwest Moose association held a three-day convention in Portland.

H. A. Miles has been granted permission by the Tillamook county court to operate a ferry near Pacific City and make a charge for foot passengers, teams, rigs and autos.

Hubbard B. Kenniston, 79, Lane county resident for 39 years and a veteran of the Civil war, died Thursday morning at Eugene at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. S. Oeden.

Trustees of Willamette university will make every effort to retain Dr. Carl Gregg Doney as president of the institution. It was announced after his resignation was presented the trustees.

Reckless use of fireworks in Multnomah county outside the city limits will not be tolerated this year. Sheriff Hurlburt announced that deputies will patrol all roads of the county on July 4 to enforce this order.

Dr. Fred E. Gultick of Portland was reelected president of the Oregon State Dental association at the annual convention of the organization in Portland. Dr. J. E. Richmond of Eugene is the new vice-president.

Natural gas, said to be of the petroleum type and reported in quantities sufficient to light a large city, was discovered issuing from eight fissures in the dry bed of Tule lake, seven miles southeast of Merrill.

Remodeling of the First National bank of Eugene to combine the present bank site and the adjoining building into a single structure, has been started. The remodeling work will cost $100,000, according to estimates.

The Oregon grand lodge of Masons, in session at Portland, elected Oliver P. Coshov of Roseburg, justice of the supreme court, as grand master for next year. George T. Cochran, grand master, became past grand master.

Phillip L. Jackson, associate publisher of the Portland, Oregon Journal, was appointed a member of the board of regents of the University of Oregon. The appointment of Jackson fills the vacancy caused by the recent death of Charles Fisher of Eugene.

Material reductions in food costs in the past year are shown in a comparison of bids submitted to the state board of control for supplies for the various state institutions with prices paid for the same commodities a year ago. Except for coffee, which has advanced in price from 19.2 cents a pound last year to 22 1/4 cents a pound at this time, all staple supplies show a decline in value. Sugar, which last year commanded $9.50 per 100 pounds is now quoted to the state at $7.95 per 100 pounds.

(Continued on page 2)

Needs No Breaking In

Longer Wear Greater Comfort.

You have probably concluded that to be tough and durable a shoe must be uncomfortable. You have a new sense of satisfaction coming with your first pair of Weyenberg's Complex "All Solid Leather" shoes.

WEYENBERG'S COMPLEX

If you want work shoes that will wear longer, that will be comfortable and flexible, that will protect your feet and your health—get Weyenberg's Complex with the double-tan soles—we sell them because they offer our customers, at a moderate price, the best service that can be bought at any price.

KOONTZ'S GOOD GOODS