

Halsey Happenings etc.

(Continued from page 1)

See premiums in our window.

R. B. Mayberry of Eugene was in Halsey Saturday.

Miss Mary La Rue was an Albany visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Drinkard drove to Albany Monday.

A. A. Tussing made a trip up to Sweet Home Saturday.

Henry Seefield unloaded a new Case separator at the depot Tuesday.

Misses Nora Pehrsson and Alberta Kountz returned Wednesday evening from McMinnville.

Joe Drinkard, for many years a resident near here, was up from Portland the first of the week.

Last week Joe and John Pittman were at Philomath to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Fannie E. Custer.

Lyle Standish came up from Portland Saturday and is a guest at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hayes.

Mrs. Louisa Caswell of Wichita, Kansas, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. P. Patton, and husband, Mrs. Caswell is 75 years old, but made the trip alone.

Mrs. Fred Taylor of Eugene went to Salem Friday to see her brother, Everett Standish, after a few days' visit with her father, J. C. Standish, and wife of this city.

W. F. Frey and family, former residents of this neighborhood, but who have been living in Portland for several years, were guests at the H. L. Straley home last week and attended the pioneer picnic.

Mrs. Bliss Byers and children of Independence were guests at the home of Mrs. Byers' sister, Mrs. E. C. Miller, for a few days last week.

J. W. Moore of this city has accepted a position in the Harrisburg National Bank and expects to move his family there soon.

Howard Reeves was down from his home in Eugene Monday and was accompanied home by his sons Willis and Charles, who make their home with their grandparents, J. W. Reector and wife. The boys will spend a few weeks with their father.

Mrs. Bessie Mulkey and two children and her mother, Mrs. Frank Frisby of McMinnville, spent Thursday at the pioneer picnic at Brownsville and stopped in Halsey for a few calls. Mrs. O. B. Stalnaker of Corvallis came from that city with them.

Mrs. C. P. Stafford returned Saturday evening from a trip to Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Wyatt of Oregon City, who spent Sunday at the Stafford home. Mrs. Wyatt, formerly Miss Leah Perkins, and who taught school here several years ago, left Monday for a week's visit at her old home in Cottage Grove.

O. W. Frum was at Cottage Grove Saturday.

Douglas Taylor was a passenger to Albany Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis were Albany visitors Monday.

The Baptists of the county will picnic at Brownsville on the 4th.

Mrs. E. J. Boner went to Eugene Tuesday, returning to Halsey Wednesday.

Mrs. Angeline Ackley of Portland is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Forster.

Mrs. Harry Bressler went to Newport Sunday to be with her father, H. M. Henry, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Kitchen and son Lavelle of Portland were weekend guests at the W. A. Muller home.

Mrs. P. J. True went to Salem on Tuesday. She is still under the doctor's care, but much improved in health.

Mrs. Ara Miller of Yakima, Wash., arrived Tuesday for a visit at the home of her son, Claire Miller. Mrs. Miller formerly lived in Halsey.

Jack Dean of Port Orford, who is at the summer school at O. A. C., came over Sunday and spent the day with his aunt, Mrs. C. P. Stafford, and husband.

O. B. Stalnaker of Corvallis spent Sunday at the T. P. Patten home in Halsey. He was accompanied home and give your weaker sisters a chance."

J. W. Stephenson took in the picnic at Brownsville Thursday.

George Maxwell is home from that trip beyond the mountains.

Delora Wells is with her grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Pray, again.

A new sidewalk on F. street, beside Dr. Marks' office and past the Carter meat market, makes walking safer.

Herman Steinke and family spent Wednesday at the P. J. Forster home, Herman helping Mr. Forster in haying.

C. L. Kusler, who was acting as station agent here during Mr. Moody's vacation, went Monday to Sutherlin to work as an extra.

Mrs. Opal Higbee and children have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Higbee's sister, Mrs. William Robinson, and with other relatives.

This week's is the last announcement of our big premiums to new subscribers and paid-in-advance subscribers who obtain new ones. The offer expires next Monday and will not be renewed. Those who have obtained premiums under this offer are well pleased with them. Our supply of those Wear-Ever Aluminium frying pans now again enables us to fill all orders.

The protein content of sudan grass hay is not high and for that reason it is not very satisfactory for a dairy herd.

No premiums after Monday.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Mrs. Hazel Moyer spent the forepart of the week visiting in the Ash Swale neighborhood.

Little Rosemary Coshow, who got run into by a car last Thursday, is getting along nicely.

Marvel Laurence has secured the Beulah Land school, over by Sweet Home, for the coming year.

Miss Ruth Jackson of Pendleton, a cousin of Jack Gamble, is here visiting relatives and friends.

As a result of the election in Ash Swale, Jack Gamble is a member of the board to succeed Cleve Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Dawson of Berlin spent a couple of days last week with relatives and friends north of town.

Charley Howe finished shipping his young chickens, raised by Cecil Harrison, last Monday, getting a nice price for them.

Mrs. Frank Fee and Mrs. Ira Laurence of Lebanon called at the J. C. Harrison home one day last week. They are sisters-in-law to Mrs. Harrison.

The school election passed off rather quietly last week. The bonds for the gymnasium were defeated. Joe Hume was re-elected as a member of the board.

The days of the picnic were busy ones and from all reports the last night was especially busy with a "free for all" before the night was over. Wonder where our prohibition officers were during that time. It seems that one of the local town girls flirted (?) a little with one of the show men. The man's wife slapped the girl for her pains, and the result was an arrest or two. If you girls wish to flirt better confine your attentions to single men.

A. Hotchkiss took the train at Halsey for Albany Thursday.

About everybody in Halsey who could attended the pioneer picnic.

A report still persists that the woolen mill is about to take an extended vacation.

A grass fire at the Howe poultry farm Monday night was put out by the fire department.

The Starnard family had a reunion and banquet on Ed Starnard's lawn Thursday, of last week.

James Ashe of Brownsville was a Halsey visitor between stages Saturday.

Mrs. Delma Chipman and son of Portland, who have been visiting in Brownsville, returned home Wednesday.

R. I. Edwards returned Tuesday from Portland, where he took a load of cattle Saturday.

Miss Shirley Hemenway returned to her home in Eugene Saturday, after a visit with Mrs. Hazel Moyer during the picnic.

Mrs. J. U. Ross and daughter Crystal of Tangent took in the picnic and visited the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Warren.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sawyer of Portland has been visiting at the home of Ed Sawyer, who drives the express truck between Halsey and Brownsville.

Mrs. George Griffin and daughters Lena and Gladys returned to their home in Springfield Monday, after taking in the pioneer picnic and visiting Henry Sheldon and family.

Another orphan dynamite explosion occurred Saturday night near enough to the center of town to break windows in the H. C. Thompson residence and the Eggeston creamery.

J. W. Moore and George Dyson propose a trip up the McKenzie to prospect for gold. Both are over 80 years old. Dyson published the first newspaper in Brownsville. His home is now at Long Beach, Cal.

Harry Sawyer has a broken arm, Ed Holloway a sprained ankle when he fell from a ladder, Rose Hughes was thrown from the high seat of his farm wagon, sustaining an injured shoulder and neck, and Mrs. Carr, who is past 80 years of age, and Rosemary Coshow, aged 7, were stuck by automobiles—Albany Herald.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

B. E. Cogswell of Portland is visiting his ranch this week.

George Dannen and family of Shedd visited at the E. A. Starnes home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riggs of Portland visited at the Chester Curtis home Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Bond and Lester and Vera Bond of Albany visited at E. D. Isom's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Medford Ingram and Mrs. Ingram's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of Silverton, were Sunday afternoon callers at the Lee Ingram home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Isom came down Thursday and packed up their things and loaded a car, returning to Oak Ridge on Wednesday of this week to make their home.

Sunday afternoon callers at the J. H. Rickard home were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jenks and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenks, and Oliver Jenks, all of Tangent, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Giddow of Albany, and Mrs. Raymond Rickard of Benton county, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rickard.

According to a report by the Klamath county agent's office, eight steers were infected with rabies and died recently at the Hegelstein ranch on Sprague river, presumably infected from the bite of a rabid coyote.

Halsey Church of Christ

Church Announcements

Church of Christ:
Lon Chamlee, minister.
Bible school, 10, W. H. Robertson, superintendent.
Christian Endeavor, 7.
Morning worship, 11. Lord's supper every Lord's day.
Evening service, 8.
The church without a bishop, in the country without a king.
If you have no church home come and worship with us.

Methodist:
Robert Parker, pastor.
Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.
Intermediate League, 7.
Epworth League, 7.
Prayer meeting Thursday, 8, Preaching, 8.

Paid-for Paragraphs
(5c a line)

Chicken dinner Sunday.
Good Eats Restaurant.

Old papers for sale at 5c a bundle at the Enterprise office.

WE ANNOUNCE OUR

Big 20 pr. cent

SALE

Everything in this store now selling less 20 per cent.

Don't fail to take advantage of this great sale.

SUITS UNDERWEAR

SHOES AND

SHIRTS LUGGAGE

In fact, you can have your choice of any article in our vast stock at less 20 per cent.

ALBANY BLAIN CLOTHING CO. OREGON

Dress well and succeed

Pay Gravel

By Hugh Pendexter

The first really good novel that has been written about one of the most dramatic episodes of American life—the gold rush and the settling of the Black Hills. A different and a better sort of western tale than you have been accustomed to read.

Follow It Serially in

Pay Gravel

By Hugh Pendexter

Mystery!

Danger!

Adventure!

A quick-moving story. One of the best western tales ever written.

Read It as a Serial in

THE ENTERPRISE

beginning with next week's issue.

PAY GRAVEL

by HUGH PENDEXTER

COPYRIGHT by THE BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

A Story of the Black Hills Gold Rush

Through a series of incidents, increasing in dramatic intensity to a climax of tremendous power, Mr. Pendexter has set before us one of the most satisfying pictures of the adventurous West that has ever been placed on paper.

Plots have been done to death in western fiction, so the author wisely has adopted the plan of subordinating the plot of his story to a more thorough development of characters and incidents—a plan that is meeting with much success among the better class of writers. Here you will find a western story that is really western—true to its locality, people and thrilling phases of the time.

TO BE PRINTED AS A SERIAL STARTING

IN THE ENTERPRISE NEXT WEEK

Amor A. Tussing

LAWYER AND NOTARY

HALSEY, OREGON