HALSEY HAPPENINGS AND COUNTY EVENTS

Short Stories from Sundry Sources

S. P. Passenger Agent Jenkins was in Halsey Tuesday.

All of the rooms of the new Albany general hospital will be furnished by fraternal organizations.

W. H. Beene took a load of hogs to the Nebergall packing company at Albany Tuesday—about three tons.

C. Anderson of Ontario arrived on Sunday evening and visited his aunt, Mrs. W. H. McMahan, and J. S. McMahan, his cousin. He went home Monday.

Fourteen fires were set by lightning Monday night in the Santiam forest reserve, but little damage was done, the forest patrol being wide awake, with an airplane scouting overhead. No rain fell.

We do some growling about the weather in Oregon. It's human nature. But we are fortunate. Hardly a recent week has passed without reports of death and destruction caused by wind and flood east of the Rocky mountains. Last week the towns of Lorain and Sandusky, O., were wrecked by a storm that snuffed out about 100 lives and destroyed immense amounts of property.

Mr. and Mrs. Claron Gormley have moved into the premises in the postoffice building vacated by the Wheelers.

Jess Cross has a new Ford.

J. E. True is putting in some cement sidewalk.

Jay Moore and family were in Albany Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter were visiting here from Portland last week.

Miss Mary LaRue went to Albany Saturday. She is taking treatments from a chiroprapist.

Mrs. H. Wayne Stanard of Brownsville left for a visit with relatives at McMinnville Saturday.

On a trip to Washington from California W. A. West and family spent a few days this week at the O. F. Neil home.

L. R. Kaylor, who has logging camp interests at Grants Pass, was calling on J. C. Walton Saturday. Mr. Kaylor's home is in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Marks returned Sunday from Yoncalla, where they Marks' sister, Mrs. F. Applegate, and family.

Mrs. L. A. Pray and granddaughter Delora and Mrs. Logan left on Wednesday for Montesano, Wash. Both of the elder ladies have sons they go to visit.

George W. Knapp and wife of Eugene, with their son Stanley at the wheel of their car, came along Sunday and took Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler to the Brownsville park and all had a picnic there.

If your sidewalk is rotten and you have one of Mr. Rector's notices ornamenting your property take a look at Mrs. Gray's new walk on F street, between First and Second, and follow her example, unless you can put in a cement walk.

We repeat Gansle's advertisement of Lubricating Gasoline to correct a printer's error which appeared in it last week. The claim made was that as much mileage could be made on 160 gallons of the new gasoline as on 200 gallons of the old. The printer changed "160" to "116."

The Sinslaw News reports that a Mr. LaBar of Rainrock "sold 50 per cent of a half-acre crop of strawberries for $500." Rainrock is farther from any cannery or other market for strawberries than any farm in the Halsey neighborhood. Why not learn Mr. LaBar's method of marketing and raise a few berries? We have the soil and climate.

Pursued Lincoln's Assassin

Guests at the Sidney J. Smith home last week were his uncle, W. A. McDonald of Cheneoa, Ill., and cousin, Marion McDonald and family, of Ames, Iowa, who were returning to their homes from Long Beach, Cal. W. A. McDonald, although eighty-four years old, is completing his fourth trip between his home and Long Beach in the past four years. Mr. McDonald is the sole surviving member of the posse detailed to capture Booth after the assassination of President Lincoln. He was also a member of Lincoln's body guard during the war and has many interesting stories to tell of those stirring times.

Brownsville Briefs

(By Special Correspondent)

Edna Boggie and Fay Proebstel were home over the week end.

M. A. Harrison of Richmond, Cal., is here visiting his brothers and a host of friends.

Carmelita Woodworth is home from Linfield college. She is keeping house for her father in the house-keeping rooms of the Baptist church.

The county Baptist picnic will be held in Brownsville park on the 4th. Everybody is cordially invited. Come and bring your bathing suits and dinner, especially bathing suits.

The wild blackberries are most abundant in the hills around Brownsville this year. Lots of people are camping, picking for local market. The berries are selling for fifty cents a gallon.

Among those spending Sunday at Cascadia from Brownsville were Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, the Misses Burson, Marvel Laurence, Gladys Hoy, Louis Geist, Bruce Burson, John Bowers and Roy Pents.

Miss Mary Laurence of Pacific Grove, Cal., is here visiting at the J. C. Harrison home. Miss Laurence is a registered trained nurse from the Los Angeles county hospital and is well acquainted at Lebanon, it being her former home.

The woolen mills store has been removed to Albany.

Aubrey S. Tussing attended circuit court at the county seat Thursday.

Ed Sawyer is looking mighty prosperous these days and driving a brand new Ford truck.

Mrs. Alice Moore and children of Brownsville left for a two-month stay at Long Beach, Wash., Saturday.

Mrs. L. G. Curtis of Portland took the stage here for Brownsville last Thursday to attend the funeral of her father-in-law, James Curtis.

Democratic Products of Linn

A. A. Tussing, George Laubner, C. C. Jackson, Henry Zimmerman, J. N. Wesley, B. M. Miller, Chaney Sickels, W. J. Ribelin and Miss Nettie Spencer from Halsey and Charles Kizer and J. Philpott of Harrisburg were at a banquet at the Hotel Albany Friday night at which honor was done to three Linn county men who are candidates on the democratic ticket this year before the people of all Oregon for places in the public service. They are Jefferson Myers, a Scio boy who has become state treasurer, O. P. Coshaw, a Brownsville boy, now on the supreme bench of the state, and Milton A. Miller, a Lebanon boy, who has served as internal revenue collector and a United States foreign minister and one of whose bursts of eloquence on this occasion is quoted in our editorial column in this issue.

The banquet was attended by from 100 to 150 people. J. K. Weatherford, recovered from his recent illness, was toastmaster, and many persons prominent in the counsels of the party in this county responded to toasts.

The occasion drew from the Herald a lengthy editorial article entitled: "Linn as a Mother of Democrats," beginning with this sentence: "While Linn county has been overwhelmingly Republican in her politics for many years, her chief contribution to the public service lies in the number of distinguished Democrats she has given to the state and the nation."

The article mentions, among other names of Linn county people who have achieved fame in the party, Delezan Smith and George Chamberlain, and says of the trio honored at the banquet: "Who shall say that within their party they are not contributing to the glory of their country?"

The funeral of W. C. Templeton, who was found dead from heart disease, sitting by the roadside in his automobile, was postponed from Sunday until Tuesday to give time for a brother to come from Los Angeles, but the brother was unable to be present. The obsequies were at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Messrs. Woodworth and Orr officiating. Interment in the Alford cemetery.

Shedd Snapshots

Miss Dorothy Satchwell and Miss Helen Ritchie left Saturday to spend the summer at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson left on Monday afternoon on a trip to The Dalles and into Washington.

Mrs. Dora Davis returned Saturday from a several weeks' visit with her daughter in Washington.

Mrs. C. A. Pugh and daughters and Mrs. Satchwell and daughters spent Thursday near Bellfountain picking wild blackberries.

Mrs. Agnes Clarke gave a little party Friday for her niece, Mary Jane Tait, the occasion being her fourth birthday. Bernice Sherwin and Patricia Shoan were guests.

A large group of Shedd people and their friends had a big dinner at Cascadia Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman and son, C. A. Pugh and family, C. Malson and family, Pete Freerkzen, wife and mother, E. Nest Abraham and family, Fred Sprenger and family, Bill Abraham and wife, Dick Abraham and wife, Harold Pugh and wife, Roy Myers and wife, Mrs. Agnes Clark, Solomon Myers, Mrs. Jim Porter and son Harry participated and from Albany were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Isom Jr., Jeff Isom Sr., Mr. Arthur Henney and family and Judge Payne, also Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pugh of Brownsville.

Losses of Butterfat

Losses of butterfat in separating skim milk from cream on the farm may be traced to one or more of the following causes, according to C. A. Iverson of the department of dairying at Iowa State college.
Low Speed of the Separator—Always run the separator at least as fast as the speed which is given on the handle of the machine.
Cold Milk—Milk should be at a temperature of 90 degrees Fahrenheit.
Dirty Bowl—The separator must be washed every time it is used, not only because of economy, but also because it is impossible to produce a good quality of cream with a dirty separator.
Worn Bearings—Loose disks and other mechanical defects often cause losses of butterfat. The machine should be kept clean and well oiled.

Feasible Plan Outlined for Seeding Grass Plot

Where it is desired to seed timothy, red clover and redtop with oats, the following seed mixture per acre has proved satisfactory: Timothy, eight pounds; red clover, seven pounds, and redtop, five pounds. This mixture may be seeded with the oats, provided the drill is equipped to seed both grain and grass at the same time. It is not well to seed more than two bushels per acre of oats, and better results may be expected if not more than six pecks of oats are used. Heavier seeding of oats tends to injure the young grass plants. Unless it is known that red clover will give good results on your land, it might be well to add two pounds of alsike clover to the mixture.—R. J. Garber, West Virginia College of Agriculture.

Value of Soy Bean Straw

Soy bean straw which is left after the beans are threshed compares favorably with timothy hay in feeding value. The loss, however, is greater than in the case of the timothy. Soy bean straw contains about three times as much digestible protein as does oat straw. It is not as rich, though, in carbohydrates, so the two feeds compare favorably in the amount of total digestible nutrients. When the two feeds are given, the horses seem to do better on the soy bean straw.

Mrs. A. C. Armstrong and daughter Helen were in Brownsville Wednesday of last week, in Albany Friday and in Eugene Saturday.
